Transnational Land Grabs and Restitution in an Age of the (De-) Militarised New Scramble for Africa: A Pan African Socio-Legal Warikandwa, Tapiwa V., Nhemachena, Artwell, 2017-09-26 One of the fundamental challenges in deconstructing rethinking and remaking the world from a Pan African vantage point is that some captives have tended to delight in the warmth of the imperial predator s mouth In other words some captives forget that the imperial predator s mouth gets warm because empire is eating and heating up from prey on the continent De Militarisation Transnational Land Grabs and Restitution in an Age of the New Scramble for Africa A Pan African Socio Legal Perspective is a book that knocks on key aspects relating to land militarisation a PostAfrican World Order and a chaotic Post God World Order which require critical scholarly and policy attention in the quest to free Africa from centuries old imperial depredations The book carefully navigates the imperial entrapments which are designed to focus African attention only on decolonising African minds without also engaging in the imperially more unsettling decolonisation of African materialities

Survival: One Health, One Planet, One Future George R. Lueddeke, 2018-09-17 Planet Earth has been here for over 4 5 billion years but in just two human generations we have managed to place our only home at great risk Many lessons from history have not yet been learned and new lessons may prove equally if not more difficult to take on board as we head deeper into the twenty first century This book highlights two of our greatest social problems changing the way we relate to the planet and to one another and confronting how we use technology dataism for the benefit of both humankind and the planet Covering a wide range of key topics including environmental degradation modern life capitalism robotics financing of war vs peace and the pressing need to re orient society towards a sustainable future the book contends that lifelong learning for sustainability is key to our survival The author argues that One Health recognising the fundamental interconnections between people animals plants the environment needs to inform the UN 2030 Sustainable Development Goals and that working towards the adoption of a new mindset is essential We need to replace our current view of limitless resources exploitation competition and conflict with one that respects the sanctity of life and strives towards well being for all shared prosperity and social stability Clearly written evidence based and transdisciplinary and including contributions from the World Bank InterAction Council Chatham House UNESCO World Economic Forum the Tripartite One Health collaboration UN Food and Agriculture Organization World Organisation for Animal Health and World Health Organization One Health Commission and more this book cuts across sociopolitical economic and environmental lines It will be of great interest to practitioners academics policy makers students nongovernment agencies and the public at large in both developed and developing nations

The Least Developed Countries Report 2013 United Nations, 2013 The Least Developed Countries Report 2013 analyses the employment challenge of the Least Developed Countries LDCs Demographic projections indicate that around 225 million people in LDCs will be entering the labour force until 2030 Hence creating sufficient and decent employment opportunities for all will be a real challenge However recent experience shows that the link between growth and employment in LDCs is not automatic The LDC Report 2013 aims to raise awareness and galvanize the attention of policymakers to the magnitude of the problem It also reviews and analyses recent labour market performance of the LDCs compares it with the future needs in relation to job creation and elaborates concrete policy recommendations for growth with employment

Economic and Social Survey of Asia and the Pacific United Nations

Publications,2016 The Survey 2014 will examine the regions challenges to support its economic growth and to promote inclusive and sustainable development Part I of the report will focus on the regions outlook as it contends with the ongoing global recovery and assesses the regions policy response to remaining and emerging vulnerabilities A special theme is domestic resource mobilization in Asia Pacific which will explore the challenges on strengthening tax revenues Part II of the report discusses strategic approaches to strengthen regional connectivity to achieve shared prosperity Sustainable Social Development in Asia and the Pacific United Nations,2017 The Asia Pacific region s impressive economic growth and remarkable achievements in poverty reduction have not succeeded in closing gaps in income between the rich and poor nor the unequal access to for example health care and education among other basic services These gaps disproportionately affect women and the most vulnerable segments of society They also hamper inclusive growth undermine social cohesion and contribute to unsustainable production and consumption patterns In short these social development gaps undermine efforts to achieving the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development Sustainable Social Development in Asia and the Pacific summarizes the social development gaps as countries in the region take steps to achieve the SDGs and sketches out a broad regional agenda for a people centred transformation outlining some of the key priorities and resources needed The policy simulations reported here clearly indicate that acceleration of economic growth alone would not address the remaining development gaps Changing the development paradigm to ensure more decent jobs complemented by broadened coverage of social protection and universal education and health care is critical for eliminating extreme poverty from the region and achieving the other SDGs Asia and the Pacific is already the most dynamic region in the world By harnessing the potential of its people the region can also be at the forefront of a global social transformation for a prosperous inclusive and sustainable future for all Industrial Development Report United Nations Publications,2016-01-14 This report looks at how technology and innovation achieves inclusive and sustainable industrial development ISID Its main finding is that ISID is feasible and technology can simultaneously serve all three dimensions of sustainability including economic social and environmental Rapid inclusive and sustainable industrialization can happen more frequently provided that policymakers firmly steer the industrialization process with opportune policies and avoid past mistakes In some cases the spread of technology has not materialized in concrete growth opportunities because of the lack of technological capabilities Innovation needs to be supported by interventions strengthening the process from invention to adoption as capabilities are developed and high tech manufacturing sectors are created seeing higher rates of sustainable growth Yearbook of International Organizations 2014-2015, Volumes 1a & 1b (Set) Union of International Associations,2014-06-16 Volume 1 A and B covers international organizations throughout the world comprising their aims activities and events Survey of Economic and Social Developments in the Arab Region 2015-2016 United Nations Publications,2017-01-04 Trends can be noted for the past five years and with this in mind the 2015 16 Survey will utilize recent data in order to take stock of the impact of instability and conflict and address the foregone growth and output and destructive effects of this period Economic and Social Survey, Jamaica ,2013 Informationen zur politischen Bildung ,2015 Gender, the Environment and Sustainable Development in Asia and the Pacific United Nations,2017 The 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development strives for more balanced development by addressing the economic social and environmental dimensions holistically The momentum set forth by this agenda provides an historic opportunity for reducing inequality and closing gender gaps This publication examines the intersections between gender and the environment at the household work community and policy levels particularly in the spheres of food security and agriculture energy water fisheries and forestry with a view to providing strategic entry points for policy interventions Based on a grounded study of the reality in the Asia Pacific region this report assembles good practices and policy lessons that could be capitalized on to advance the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development Book Review Index ,2006 Every 3rd issue is a quarterly cumulation
