Looking at Textiles Elena Phipps, 2011 A guide to the fundamentals of the materials and techniques used to create textiles Textiles and Fashion Jenny Udale, 2022-12-29 Textiles and Fashion explores the integration of textile design with fashion showing the many ways designers use fibre fabric construction and surface treatments within a garment and on the body It begins with a brief history of textiles in fashion showing the links with technical innovation and social developments You'll then briefly learn about the processes of textile design including ethical and environmental considerations as well as fibre production dyeing and finishing techniques before moving on to making the most of different surface treatments and the ways in which colour and trend influence fashion and textiles This 3rd edition includes updated coverage of emerging technologies including smart textiles and 3D printing and interviews with fashion designers to offer insight into how they use textiles in their work Overall this is the ideal introduction to using textiles within a fashion context

Needlework through History Catherine Amoroso Leslie, 2007-04-30 Needlework serves functional purposes such as providing warmth but has also communicated individual and social identity spiritual beliefs and aesthetic ideals throughout time and geography Needlework traditions are often associated with rituals and celebrations of life events Often overlooked by historians practicing needlework and creating needlework objects provides insights to the history of everyday life Needlework techniques traveled with merchants and explorers creating a legacy of cross cultural exchange

Some techniques are virtually universal and others are limited to a small geographical area. Settlers brought traditions which were sometimes re-invented as indigenous arts. This volume of approximately 75 entries is a comprehensive resource on techniques and cultural traditions for students, information professionals and collectors. History of World Dress and Fashion, Second Edition Daniel Delis Hill, 2022-01-13. The History of World Dress and Fashion presents a comprehensive survey of dress from around the world including China, Japan, India, Africa, the Islamic Empire and the Ancient Americas. This extensive study features descriptions and analysis of men's, women's and children's clothing, accessories and cultural styles from prehistory into the twenty-first century. Lavishly illustrated in color throughout, it features more than 1600 images and is a valuable resource for fashion designers, theater costumers, textile researchers, costume collectors and curators and anyone interested in clothing and style customs of the world.

John Robshaw Prints John Robshaw, 2014-05-20. Design enthusiasts and armchair travelers will love circling the globe with celebrated textile designer John Robshaw. From batiks in Java to ikats in Thailand and indigo printing in India, Robshaw reveals the lush inspiration behind his signature style while highlighting step-by-step block printing techniques from local artisans and masters. Robshaw provides a rare glimpse into his creative process wherein he blends traditional methods with his own painterly style for entirely unique creations and shares tips for incorporating textiles into any space. Brimming with beautiful photographs of covetable textiles, far-flung destinations and eye-catching interiors, this luxe fabric-covered book is an eclectic visual tour of the rich tradition of textile printing.

Pattern Sue Bradley, 2025-07-03. This is a book for hand knitters who love pattern, colour and inspiration and have a desire to create their own beautiful designs. The 28 knitting patterns for garments and accessories are inspired by textiles and artefacts from all over the world. The garment shapes are easy to knit, allowing the colour and pattern to take centre stage. Each chapter focuses on the culture and textile heritage of a specific country and also features a Pattern Library giving the knitter the opportunity to recreate that chapter's designs using another country's colours, motifs or patterns. With more than 250 full colour charts across the book, there will be a pattern to inspire everyone.

Crafting Sustainability in Luxury Textiles for a Zero-Waste Future Sadhna, Rajesh Kumar, E. Mokanaasri, 2025-05-31. In an era where environmental consciousness is rapidly becoming a priority, the luxury textile industry stands at a crucial crossroads. As consumers increasingly demand products that not only offer elegance and opulence but also align with sustainable values, luxury brands are facing a paradigm shift in their approach. This shift towards sustainability is not merely a trend but a fundamental reevaluation of the industry's practices, driven by a growing awareness of the environmental impact of textile manufacturing and consumption. This contributed volume explores this transformative journey, investigating how luxury and sustainability can harmoniously coexist to shape a future where opulence is synonymous with environmental stewardship. The book examines the intricate relationship between luxury textiles and sustainability, offering insights, analyses and practical solutions for crafting a zero-waste future in the high-end fashion industry. The book serves as a valuable resource for scholars, practitioners and policymakers seeking to navigate the complexities of sustainable textile production while maintaining the essence of luxury and craftsmanship Through a collaborative effort the work presented here sets the stage for a future where luxury textiles captivate the senses and inspire a profound sense of environmental responsibility paving the way toward a zero waste future in high end fashion

Texts and Textiles Diana Mary Eva Thomas,2017-03-07 This study shows how fiction that makes use of textiles as an essential element utilizes synaesthetic writing and synaesthetic metaphor to create an affective link to and response in the reader These links and responses are examined using affect theory from Silvan Tomkins and Brian Massumi and work on synaesthesia by Richard Cytowic Lawrence Marks and V S Ramachandran among others Synaesthetic writing including synaesthetic metaphors has been explored in poetry since the 1920s and more recently in fiction but these studies have been general in nature By narrowing the field of investigation to those novels that specifically employ three types of hand crafted textiles quilt making knitting and embroidery the book isolates how these textiles are used in fiction The combination of synaesthesia memory metaphor and particularly synaesthetic metaphor in fiction with textiles in the text of the case studies selected shows how these are used to create affect in readers enhancing their engagement in the story The work is framed within the context of the history of textile production and the use of textiles in fiction internationally but concentrates on Australian authors who have used textiles in their writing The decision to focus on Australian authors was taken in light of the quality and depth of the writing of textile fiction produced in Australia between 1980 and 2005 in the three categories of hand crafted textiles quilt making knitting and embroidery The texts chosen for intensive study are Kate Grenville s The Idea of Perfection 1999 quilting Marele Day s Lambs of God 1997 knitting and Anne Bartlett s Knitting 2005 knitting Jessica Anderson s Tirra Lirra by the River 1978 embroidery and Marion Halligan s Spider Cup 1990 embroidery
