Worlding Identity Media And Imagination In A Digital Age:

Worlding David Trend, 2015-11-17 Worlding brings ideas about virtual places and societies together with perceptions about the real world in an era of mounting global uncertainty As mass media and the Internet consume ever increasing portions of our lives are we becoming disengaged from face to face human interaction and real world concerns Or is the virtual world actually bringing people closer together and making them more involved with social issues Worlding argues that the virtual and the real are profoundly interconnected often in ways we don't fully appreciate Drawing on sociology cultural studies philosophy media analysis and technology studies Worlding makes the argument that virtual experience and social networking can be vital links to utopian visions and an appreciation of the world's diversity

Geo-Spatiality in Asian and Oceanic Literature and Culture Shiuhhuah Serena Chou, Soyoung Kim, Rob Sean Wilson, 2022-08-04 This collection opens the geospatiality of Asia into an environmental framework called Oceania and pushes this complex regional multiplicity towards modes of trans local solidarity planetary consciousness multi sited decentering and world belonging At the transdisciplinary core of this worlding process lies the multiple spatial and temporal dynamics of an environmental eco poetics articulated via thinking and creating both with and beyond the Pacific and Asia imaginary

The Age of Neoliberal Absolutism Fabio Armao, 2024-06-17 The fall of communist regimes and the end of the Cold War marked the start of a new regressive phase of the modernization process This book explains the genesis and the spread of this veritable new form of government termed oikocracy It is characterised by transnational clan networks being the dominant social structures and the primacy of private economic interests over public political interests As such it supersedes traditional forms of government Having originated in the most highly industrialised countries this Neoliberal Absolutism no longer requires sophisticated ideologies or institutional propaganda rather relying on the dynamics of a globalised world that facilitate an easy mobilization of the masses and thereby expanding to the rest of the world This book suggests that in response we have to develop new principles of government antagonistic to the existing ones and avoid solutions proposed by an increasing number of Western leaders

Postdigital Storytelling Spencer Jordan, 2019-10-16 Postdigital Storytelling offers a groundbreaking re evaluation of one of the most dynamic and innovative areas of creativity today digital storytelling Central to this reassessment is the emergence of metamodernism as our dominant cultural condition This volume argues that metamodernism has brought with it a new kind of creative modality in which the divide between the digital and non digital is no longer binary and oppositional Jordan explores the emerging poetics of this inherently transmedial and hybridic postdigital condition through a detailed analysis of hypertextual locative mobile and collaborative storytelling With a focus on twenty first century storytelling including print based and nondigital art forms the book ultimately widens our understanding of the modes and forms of metamodernist creativity Postdigital Storytelling is of value to anyone engaged in creative writing within the arts and humanities This includes scholars students and practitioners of both physical and digital texts as well as those engaged in interdisciplinary practice based research in which storytelling remains a primary approach More Than Meets the Eye Robert John Rehak, 2018-03-13 Introduction Seeing past the state of the art That which survives design networks and blueprint culture between fandom and franchise Used universes and immaculate realities appropriation and authorship in the age of previz Chains of evidence augmented performance before and after the digital Microgenres in migration special effects and transmedia travel Conclusion The effects of special effects Young People's Civic Identity in the Digital Age Julianne K. Viola, 2020-03-10 This book explores young people's civic experiences in contemporary American society and how they navigate the political world in an era defined by digital media Drawing on the experiences of young people before they have reached voting age the book provides vital perspectives on citizenship and civic engagement of a part of the population that is often overlooked The author engages with the tensions young people encounter in their everyday personal and civic lives particularly in their understanding and experience of civic identity in ways that are shaped by society's misperceptions of youth The book introduces a new framework of civic identity that has been directly informed by the lived civic experiences of young people themselves The findings will be of great interest to researchers and students working in political science sociology youth studies education studies and media studies as well as policy makers practitioners and parents of young people The West and the Word Steffen Wöll, 2020-10-12 Western expansion in North America has mainly been described as either a linear sequence energized by nineteenth century nation building processes at a moving frontier or as the practice of settler colonialism and its exploitation of resources and displacement of nonwhite peoples This book suggests that shifting the focus from this binary pattern towards spatial imaginations and spatialization processes a new theoretical framework developed at SFB 1199 provides novel insights into the placemaking dynamics of the American West It brings to light a discursive diversity that often contradicts unidirectional interpretive patterns It becomes clear that while some discourses solidified into spatial metanarratives like the character shaping clash of civilizations at the frontier or manifest destiny alternative spatial imaginations exist juxtaposed to or obfuscated by canonical interpretations Making use of a variety of sources including works of literature poetry newspapers paintings and speeches to access spatialization processes on several sociocultural scales the book presents a careful exploration of the parameters that informed the creation affirmation and subversion of spatial imagination of the American West throughout the nineteenth century from the perspective of American Studies Oceanic Becoming Rob Wilson, 2025-02-14 From disappearing coral reefs and ocean acidification to floating great garbage patches the Pacific Ocean is an ever present reminder of the Anthropocene In Oceanic Becoming Rob Wilson demonstrates that in the midst of the planetary crises the Pacific now faces it must be understood as interconnected to the other oceans Wilson frames this interconnection as Oceania reconceiving the world oceans as tied to sites of urban dwelling and life sustenance from Boston to Brisbane that are increasingly threatened by late capitalism Confronting these threats Wilson argues requires a project he theorizes as worlding a process of world making and world remaking across Oceania that would create new forms of belonging and connection at local regional and transnational levels Wilson shows how Oceania is not just a site of peril but one charged with emergent literary and social formations that can provide the basis for new solidarities futures and ecologies multiplatform storytelling has come to define these megahit franchises More Than Meets the Eye explores the larger history of how physical and optical effects in postwar Hollywood laid the foundation for modern transmedia franchises and argues that special effects are not simply an adjunct to blockbuster filmmaking but central agents of an entire mode of production

Elsewhere in America David Trend, 2016-04-28 Americans think of their country as a welcoming place where everyone has equal opportunity Yet historical baggage and anxious times can restrain these possibilities Newcomers often find that civic belonging comes with strings attached riddled with limitations or legally punitive rites of passage For those already here new challenges to civic belonging emerge on the basis of belief behavior or heritage This book uses the term elsewhere in describing conditions that exile so many citizens to some other place through prejudice competition or discordant belief Yet in another way elsewhere evokes an undefined not yet ripe with potential In the face of America's daunting challenges can elsewhere point to optimism hope and common purpose Through 12 detailed chapters the book applies critical theory in the humanities and social sciences to examine recurring crises of social inclusion in the U S After two centuries of incremental progress in securing human dignity today the U S finds itself torn by new conflicts over reproductive rights immigration health care religious extremism sexual orientation mental illness and fear of terrorists Is there a way of explaining this recurring tendency of Americans to turn against each other Elsewhere in America engages these questions charting the ever changing faces of difference manifest in contested landscapes of sex and race to such areas as disability and mental health their spectral and intersectional character recent discourses on performativity normativity and queer theory and the grounds on which categories are manifest in ideation and movement politics metapolitics cosmopolitanism dismodernism

BLOCKCHAIN AND DIGITAL IDENTITY: PRIVACY, SECURITY, AND TRUST IN THE DIGITAL AGE

Dr. Pramod Kumar, Mr. Gunawan Widjaja, Dr. Raja Varma Pamba, Muhammad Nur Afiat, 2023-06-06 An identity of a person or organization can be represented by a set of qualities associated with the entity such as the person s or organization s name address and other relevant information Maintaining the data required for identifying a person and controlling their access is a component of identity management The three most important actors in the identity management system are called a Holder an Issuer and a Verifier Personal credentials can be issued to an identity holder a legal individual or business by the identity issuer which is a third party that can be trusted and is often a local government The identity issuer verifies the accuracy of the user s personal information included in the credential before releasing the user s data to that user For instance the surname as well as the month and year of birth These credentials can be saved by the holder of the identity in his or her personality identification wallet and the holder of the identity can use them at a later time to verify assertions about his or her identity to a third party who is the validator of the identity data A credential is a collection of several different identity attributes such as a person s name age and date of birth An identity attribute is a piece of information that describes an identity The holder of a credential can make a verifiable claim which must include certain facts about the holder that must be testified to by the issuer and digitally signed by the issuer Credentials are given out by independent organizations that attest for the truthfulness of the information that is contained inside the credential The validity and dependability of a certificate are directly proportional to the credibility and reputation of the organization that issued it The fact in a credential could be the holder s identification data like their date of birth for example or it might be another form of factual data like their grade point average for example After developing a trustworthy connection with the issuer anybody such as an employer has the potential to act in the capacity of claim verifier The verifier makes a request for a particular credential such as a person s birth certificate for instance and then uses the issuer s

signature to validate the legitimacy of the credential Identity management can be difficult if the holders do not have complete control over their own identity data This is because identity data are typically stored at the websites of third party issuers such as government institutes banks and credit agencies
