Worlds Of Irving Howe The Critical Legacy:

The Worlds of Irving Howe John Rodden, 2004 Worlds of Irving Howe John Rodden, 2015-12-03 The Worlds of Irving Howe The Critical Legacy is a wide ranging anthology of criticism devoted to the literary cultural and political work of the writer Irving Howe The book offers a broad cross section of critical and biographical writings about Howe Collected here are assessments of Howe s work written by some of the most prominent intellectuals of the twentieth century among them Lionel Trilling Alfred Kazin C Vann Woodward Robert Coles Daniel Bell Malcolm Cowley and Arthur Schlesinger The critical estimates of Howe s major books collected here and framed by a major biographical introduction by John Rodden constitute a sharply focused lens through which readers can re evaluate the legacy of one of American s leading intellectuals and thereby understand the main issues of twentieth century Anglo American cultural history Contributors Lionel Trilling Alfred Kazin C Vann Woodward Newton Arvin Charles Angoff Edward Dahlberg Isaac Rosenfeld Richard Chase H D Lasswell Dennis Wrong Michael Harrington Christopher Lasch Robert Coles Daniel Bell Malcolm Cowley Arthur Schlesinger Theodore Solotaroff Clive James Norman Podhoretz Irving Kristol and William Phillips among others The Rise and Fall of Jewish American Literature Benjamin Schreier, 2020-09-18 Benjamin Schreier argues that Jewish American literature s dominant cliché of breakthrough that is the irruption into the heart of the American cultural scene during the 1950s of Jewish American writers like Bernard Malamud Philip Roth Saul Bellow and Grace Paley must also be seen as the critically originary moment of Jewish American literary study According to Schreier this is the primal scene of the Jewish American literary field the point that the field cannot avoid repeating and replaying in instantiating itself as the more or less formalized academic study of Jewish American literature More than sixty years later the field s legibility the very condition of its possibility remains overwhelmingly grounded in a reliance on this single ethnological narrative In a polemic against what he sees as the unexamined foundations and stagnant state of the field Schreier interrogates a series of professionally powerful assumptions about Jewish American literary history how they came into being and how they hardened into cliché He offers a critical genealogy of breakthrough and other narratives through which Jewish Studies has asserted its compelling self evidence not simply under the banner of the historical realities Jewish Studies claims to represent but more fundamentally for the intellectual and institutional structures through which it produces these representations He shows how a historicist scholarly narrative quickly consolidated and became hegemonic in part because of its double articulation of a particular American subject and of a transnational historiography that categorically identified that subject as Jewish The ethnological grounding of the Jewish American literary field is no longer tenable Schreier asserts in an argument with broad implications for the reconceptualization of Jewish and other identity based ethnic studies A Mirror in the Roadway Morris Dickstein, 2021-08-10 In a famous passage in The Red and the Black the French writer Stendhal described the novel as a mirror being carried along a roadway In the twentieth century this was derided as a naïve notion of realism Instead modern writers experimented with creative forms of invention and dislocation Deconstructive theorists went even further questioning whether literature had any real reference to a world outside its own language while traditional historians challenged whether novels gave a trustworthy representation of history and society In this book Morris Dickstein reinterprets Stendhal's metaphor and tracks the different worlds of a wide array of twentieth century writers from realists like Theodore Dreiser Sinclair Lewis Edith Wharton and Willa Cather through modernists like Franz Kafka and Samuel Beckett to wildly inventive postwar writers like Saul Bellow Günter Grass Mary McCarthy George Orwell Philip Roth and Gabriel García Márquez Dickstein argues that fiction will always yield rich insight into its subject and that literature can also be a form of historical understanding Writers refract the world through their forms and sensibilities He shows how the work of these writers recaptures yet also transforms the life around them the world inside them and the universe of language and feeling they share with their readers Through lively and incisive essays directed to general readers as well as students of literature Dickstein redefines the literary landscape a landscape in which reading has for decades been devalued by society and distorted by theory Having begun with a reconsideration of realism the book concludes with several essays probing the strengths and limitations of a historical approach to literature and criticism The Unexamined Orwell John

Rodden, 2012-08-17 A reflection on Orwell as idea that outlines some of the misconceptions and misuses of the Orwell name Modern Fiction Studies The year 1984 is just a memory but the catchwords of George Orwell's novel Nineteen Eighty Four still routinely pepper public discussions of topics ranging from government surveillance and privacy invasion to language corruption and bureaucratese Orwell's work pervades the cultural imagination while others of his literary generation are long forgotten Exploring this astonishing afterlife has become the scholarly vocation of John Rodden who is now the leading authority on the reception impact and reinvention of George Orwell the man and writer as well as of Orwell the cultural icon and historical talisman In The Unexamined Orwell Rodden delves into dimensions of Orwell's life and legacy that have escaped the critical glare He discusses how several leading American intellectuals have earned the title of Orwell's successor including Lionel Trilling Dwight Macdonald Irving Howe Christopher Hitchens and John Lukacs He then turns to Germany and focuses on the role and relevance of Nineteen Eighty Four in the now defunct communist nation of East Germany Rodden also addresses myths that have grown up around Orwell's life including his more than half legendary encounter with Ernest Hemingway in liberated Paris in March 1945 and analyzes literary issues such as his utopian sensibility and his prose style Finally Rodden poses the endlessly debated question What would George Orwell do and speculates about how the prophet of Nineteen Eighty Four would have reacted to world events In so doing Rodden shows how our responses to this question reveal much about our culture's ongoing need to reappropriate Orwell The New York Public Intellectuals and Beyond Ethan Goffman, Daniel Morris, 2009 Here a variety of distinguished scholars revisit and rethink the legacy of the New York intellectuals showing how this small predominantly Jewish group moved from communist and socialist roots to become a primary voice of liberal humanism and in the case of a few to launch a new conservative movement The Intellectual Species John Rodden, 2022-01-17 This book explores the prospects for survival of what we have come to know as the intellectual in the post Gutenberg age It addresses the contemporary history of this species spawned in the print age meditating on the precarious future of international intellectual life in the digital era of nanosecond soundbites fake news smart phones and clicks and scrolls in lieu of reading The book ponders these issues as it addresses the examples of a diverse group of British American French and German intellectuals of the post World War II era These case histories showcase concretely the state of the culture in the context of particular lives offering diverse intellectual portraiture featuring a wide range of writers across the ideological spectrum The key family resemblance of these figures is that most of them are contrarians regardless of whether they were freelance writers or academic intellectuals American or British or European and chiefly imaginative writers or non fiction writers and scholars Among the intellectuals discussed are George Orwell Dwight Macdonald Irving Howe Camille Paglia Albert Camus Robert Havemann and others Regardless of which intellectual domains occupied their energies the histories of all of them yield insight into the transformation of cultural life in recent decades and the contrasting challenges faced by intellectuals of earlier eras versus our own These issues are of paramount significance for all those who care about the life of the mind and the future of homo sapiens The Common Review ,2006 Dissent ,2006 The Writers Directory ,2013 The Kenyon Review John Crowe Ransom, 2004 Editor winter 1939 autumn 1941 J C Ransom Book Review Index ,2006 Every 3rd issue is a quarterly cumulation American Book Publishing Record ,2005 William Faulkner, the Yoknapatawpha World and Black Being Erskine Peters, 1983 Peter brings modern critical tools to his task as well as a thorough knowledge of the canon of Faulkner criticism dealing with stock images in literature Among the topics discussed are the cultural legacy and the influence of light and dark imagery on him his early characterizations of black existence the historical context for black existence in the Yoknapatawpha world the racism in this world which is a scheme of larceny designed to strip the blacks of their soul the dilemmas of miscegenation and mulatto crises Diley Gibson s obsession with time the heroism of Lucas Beauchamp in Intruder in the Dust and Nancy Mannigoe in Requiem for a Nun highlighting the comic end of life and Faulkner s struggle with racial chaos and national destiny Also includes a glossary of black characters in Faulkner s novels ISBN 0 8482 5675 1 25 00 Partisan Review ,1993 Critical Essays on W.E.B.
