Worshipping Siva And Buddha The Temple Art Of East Java:

Worshipping Siva and Buddha Ann R. Kinney, Marijke J. Klokke, Lydia Kieven, 2003-01-01 The Temple Art of East Java a study of the temples created in East Java between the tenth and sixteenth centuries fills an important scholarly lacuna The arts of Central Java home of the great Buddhist monument Borobudur and Hindu Prambanan have been given thorough scholarly attention The architectural and sculptural treasures of the East Javanese kingdoms of Kadiri Singasari and Majapahit are little known in comparison yet beautiful and significant in Indonesian history The author presents the major sites of these three historical periods and discusses their architecture and sculpture The many narrative reliefs illustrating sacred and secular literature have been painstakingly identified The reader is thus able to follow their stories and understand where why and how they fit into the visual program planned for each temple and their relation to historical events and the wayang theater These descriptions are augmented by extensive site summaries Superb color photography supports the text throughout and is a major contribution in itself The book contains a wealth of information that is not available all together in any other publication Not only are the descriptions of the monuments valuable but the author identifies numerous sculptures in collections around the world that were once associated with the East Javanese temples discussed The attempted reconstruction of sculptural programs at the sites is extremely important To understand an ancient Javanese stone sculpture knowledge of its original cultural context is required rather than its current location on a stand in some museum Today with the number of fakes appearing on the art market such associations are invaluable for dating and authenticating stone sculpture said to come from unidentified East Javanese sites The Temple Art of East Java is a welcome and significant addition not only to Javanese studies but also to architecture art history comparative religion Buddhist Hindu and Southeast Asian studies generally

The Multivalence of an Epic: Retelling the Ramayana in South India and Southeast Asia Parul Pandya Dhar, 2021-07-01 The Ramayana traditions of South India and Southeast Asia are examined at multiple levels in this volume The research presented here offers in depth investigations of chosen moments in the development of the epic tradition together with broader trends that help in understanding the epic's multivalence The journey and localization of the Ramayana is explored in its manifold expressions from classical to folk from temples and palaces to theatres and by lanes in cities and villages and from ancient to modern times Regional Ramayanas from different parts of South India and Southeast Asia are placed in deliberate juxtaposition to enable a historically informed discussion of their connected pasts across land and seas The three parts of this volume organized as visual literary and performance cultures discuss the sculpted painted inscribed written recited and performed Ramayana As a related emphasis is on the way boundaries of medium and genre have been crossed in the visual literary and performed representations of the Ramayana These are rewarding directions of research that have thus far received little attention Bringing together 19 well known scholars in Ramayana studies from Cambodia Canada France India Indonesia Malaysia Singapore Thailand UK and USA this thought provoking and elegantly illustrated

Tambunan, 2023-05-27 This is an open access book According to Castells power now rests in networks the logic of the network is more powerful than the powers of the network quoted in Weber 2002 p 104 it is whether nation states or local communities are deeply affected especially by inclusion in and exclusion from the global networks that structure a various sectors in society at any level Thus it is also crucial look closely at exclusion from and inclusion in different kinds of social structures where connectivity and access to networks are essential being aware that people at the bottom are those who with nothing to offer the network are excluded Castells arguments shows us how the new forms of network society offer challenges in a way that despite the disappearance of conventional ties exploitation marginalization exclusion and differentiation remain In what follows scholarships are invited to build an academic discussion on characterizing the structure and dynamics of societies in the world of the twenty first century Thus scholar may come to look at the meaning of being in a network society by examining the role of network society within the complexity of socio cultural political and economic circumstances in strengthening the role of science in overcoming local national regional and global problems But scientific research is also required to identify a wide variety of solutions to societal problems enhanced by the network society which no longer relate solely to a particular discipline but are multi and trans disciplinary In addition recent research has changed the traditional role of academia demanding more collaboration in the production of science not only among universities but also among researchers social practitioners and policymakers Considering these issues the fourth Asia Pacific Research in Social Sciences and Humanities APRiSH will be hosted by the Faculty of Social and Political Sciences Universitas Indonesia FISIP UI in 2019 under the theme The Network Society Continuity and Change Scientific inputs from all parts of the world are welcome academically and practically Various perspectives based on mono disciplinary multi disciplinary or trans disciplinary research are expected to examine the problems and contribute to solutions Producing

Indonesia Eric Tagliacozzo, 2014-02-26 The 26 scholars contributing to this volume have helped shape the field of Indonesian studies over the last three decades They represent a broad geographic background Indonesia the Netherlands the United Kingdom Australia the United States Canada and have studied in a wide array of key disciplines anthropology history linguistics and literature government and politics art history and ethnomusicology Together they reflect on the arc of our field the development of Indonesian studies over recent tumultuous decades They consider what has been achieved and what still needs to be accomplished as they interpret the groundbreaking works of their predecessors and colleagues This volume is the product of a lively conference sponsored by Cornell University with contributions revised following those interactions Not everyone sees the development of Indonesian studies in the same way Yet one senses and this collection confirms that disagreements among its practitioners have fostered a vibrant resilient intellectual community Contributors discuss photography and the creation of identity the power of ethnic pop music cross border influences on Indonesian contemporary art violence in the margins and the shadows inherent in Indonesian literature These various perspectives illuminate a diverse nation in flux and provide direction for its future exploration Architecturalized Asia Vimalin Rujivacharakul,H. Hazel Hahn,Ken Tadashi Oshima,Peter Christensen,2013-11-01 How did terms like Asia Eurasia Indochina Pacific Rim or Australasia originate and evolve and what are their connections to the built environment In addressing this question Architecturalized Asia bridges the fields of history and architecture by taking Asia as a discursive structure and cultural construct whose spatial and ideological formation can be examined through the lenses of cartography built environments and visual narratives The first section on the study of architecture in Asia from the medieval through early modern periods examines icons and symbols in maps as well as textual descriptions produced in Europe and Asia The second section explores the establishment of the field of Asian architecture as well as the political and cultural imagining of Asia during the long nineteenth century when Asia and its regions were redefined in the making of modern world maps mainly produced in Europe The third section examines tangible structures produced in the twentieth century as legible documents of these notional constructions of Asia In exploring the ways in which Asia has been drawn and framed both within and without the continent this volume offers cutting edge scholarship on architectural history world history and the history of empires Written by architectural historians and historians specializing in Asia and European empires this unique volume addresses the connection between Asia and the world through the lenses of built environments and spatial conceptualizations Architecturalized Asia will appeal to readers who are interested in Asian architecture world architecture Asian history history of empires and world history Asian Heritage Management Kapila D. Silva,Neel Kamal Chapagain,2013 The prevalent global heritage discourse has been primarily Euro centric in its origin premise and praxis Diverse cultural historical and geographical contexts such as that of Asia call for more context specific approaches to heritage management This book explores this complexity of managing the cultural heritage in Asia Case studies include sites of Angkor Himeji Castle Kathmandu Valley Luang Prabang Lumbini and Malacca and the book uses these to explore the religious worldviews heritage policies intangible heritage dimensions traditional preservation practices cultural tourism and the notion of cultural landscape that are crucial in understanding the cultural heritage in Asia It critiques the contemporary regulatory frameworks in operation and focuses on the issues of global impact on the local cultures in the region The book goes on to emphasize the need for integrated heritage management approaches that encompass the plurality of heritage conservation concerns in Asian countries Themes are discussed from the vantage point of heritage scholars and practitioners in the South Southeast and East Asia This book thus presents a distinctive Asian perspective which is a valuable source for students and practitioners of heritage within and beyond the Asian context ANTIQUITY Martin Carver,2004 Newsletter, East Asian

Art & Archaeology ,2003 Adoration and Glory Emma C. Bunker,Douglas Latchford,2004 Adoration and Glory is a celebration of centuries of artistic achievements of the Khmer peoples a civilization nearly forgotten The Khmer empire created one of the world s most glorious traditions of sculpture and architecture inspired and influenced by the spiritual and in particular the Tantric Hindu and Buddhist cultures and religions of India The domains of the Khmer grew from a collection of small kingdoms to an empire that encompassed much of present day Cambodia Thailand Laos and Vietnam Due to Cambodia s more recent historic past decades of political turbulence and isolation the public hardly got a chance to admire the magnificent artistic creations of this nearly forgotten culture For the first time now this book offers a comprehensive overview of the outstanding capabilities and craftsmanship of ancient Khmer artists Many important pieces in stone bronze silver and gold are published here for the very first time As the book brings together the wealth of the Khmer culture the authors were able to gain access to private as well as public collections worldwide to give unparalleled access to more than 150 objects With the inclusion of Tantric Hindu and Buddhist images never seen in public and new technical research into manufacturing techniques by leading museum scientist Dr Pieter Meyers the publication suggests many fresh interpretations of Khmer art and culture particularly at a time when the authenticity of newly excavated material is often in question From the beginning the book gained the support of HRH Princess Norodom Buppha Devi Minister of Culture and Fine Arts Kingdom of Cambodia as well as the Directors and teams at the National Museum of Cambodia Both accessible and scholarly this book represents an important resource for connoisseurs and aficionados of art art historians collectors and all those interested in the cultures of South East Asia It contributes to a new and deeper understanding of Khmer art and encourages further research and worldwide interest in helping Cambodia to protect and celebrate its rich artistic past Description by Crunruh Books Antiquity ,2004 Includes section Reviews Tricycle ,2003 Anthropologica ,2007 Includes reports of meetings of the institute The Journal of the Walters Art Museum Walters Art Museum (Baltimore, Md.),2006 The New Interpreter's Study Bible Walter J.
