

The background of the text is a dramatic, historical-style painting depicting the destruction of Jerusalem. The scene is set at dusk or dawn, with a fiery orange and yellow sky. In the foreground, the Temple Mount is visible, with its walls and structures in various states of ruin. A large, dark, rectangular structure, possibly the Temple itself, is on fire, with bright flames and smoke rising from it. In the middle ground, a large crowd of people, including soldiers and civilians, is gathered on the city's walls and in the streets. Some are fighting, while others appear to be fleeing or seeking refuge. The city in the background is also on fire, with many buildings reduced to rubble. The overall atmosphere is one of chaos and destruction.

Listeners receive a rousing eyewitness account of Roman arms in action as Vespasian presses relentlessly onward to Jerusalem As the Roman war machine closes in on Jerusalem the fanatic zealots inside the city are involved in tearing each other apart and savaging the citizens trapped inside With doom approaching from afar and civil war convulsing the city from within the once grand metropolis of Jerusalem begins to disintegrate Vespasian is proclaimed emperor upon Nero's death and turns over command of the army to his brilliant son Titus who encircles Jerusalem and places it under siege Unable to escape the city and preyed upon by the enraged fanatics from within the pitiful citizens can only watch helplessly as the horrible specter of famine begins to envelope Jerusalem and spread into every household The horrors of siege warfare are driven home as we hear some of the most impassioned descriptions of man's folly ever put on paper Learn how the magnificent Great Temple was burned and obliterated and discover the fate of Jerusalem itself And finally hear the account of the incredible siege of Masada one of the last major events of the war The Jewish War is one of the most important histories to survive from ancient times dealing as it does with a subject of which there are very few sources This is an engaging and heart felt chronicle by The Jewish War Josephus,1981-09-17 Josephus account of a war marked by treachery and atrocity is a superbly detailed and evocative record of the Jewish rebellion against Rome between AD 66 and 70 Originally a rebel leader Josephus changed sides after he was captured to become a Rome appointed negotiator and so was uniquely placed to observe these turbulent events from the siege of Jerusalem to the final heroic resistance and mass suicides at Masada His account provides much of what we know about the history of the Jews under Roman rule with vivid portraits of such key figures as the Emperor Vespasian and Herod the Great Often self justifying and divided in its loyalties The Jewish War nevertheless remains one of the most immediate accounts of war its heroism and its horrors ever written The Wars of the Jews Flavius Josephus,1839 *The Wars of the Jews: Tr. by Sir R.
