Cultivating Empathy: Inspiring Health Professionals to Communicate More Effectively (Revised Edition) Kathleen Stephany, 2022-01-04 Research demonstrates that even if empathy the capacity to perceive or share emotions with other beings or objects is not part of a person s communication skill set it can be taught Empathy can therefore be viewed as an acquired communication skill Cultivating and practicing the skill of empathy among health care providers enhances the quality of care experienced by their patients which in turn can even improve work satisfaction for health care providers Many communication textbooks or manuals for care giving professions primarily focus on specific communication skills and techniques Cultivating Empathy takes a different approach the book sets empathy as the foundation of all therapeutic interactions and teaches the reader to learn the art of empathy by using constructive approaches and research findings from social sciences and neuroscience

Cultivating Empathy is perfect for any student or practicing health care professional who has felt that there was an absence of rapport when interacting with clients or patients and their families Real case narratives dynamic interactive exercises and simulation techniques are also provided in this text to assist helpers to learn how to be more empathetic Readers will gain awareness about human and emotional aspects of patient care which will hopefully make a positive contribution to their professional practice

The Empathic God Frank Woggon, 2024-05-07 What if Jesus did not come to die for our sins What if instead Jesus s life and death was intended to provide a way out of our shame While traditional Christian teachings about the atonement emphasize sin as guilt and transgression against God s will and commandments Frank Woggon points out that clinical spiritual care reveals that the human condition is predominantly marked by shame rather than guilt In The Empathic God Woggon examines myopic readings of the Jesus event that in turn have embedded distortions into traditional paradigms of the atonement In contrast Woggon mines narratives of the human condition to engage in a critical examination of the Jesus story As a clinician and ordained Baptist minister Woggon presents the Jesus event as God s empathic initiative toward humanity and convincingly argues that salvation comes through empathy rather than forgiveness Woggon s work constructs a clinical theology of atonement from the perspective of clinical spiritual care The Empathic God calls for a practical response of caring participation in God s ongoing work of salvation through an empathic praxis of spiritual care Most importantly The Empathic God takes seriously that lived human experience is the starting point for theological exploration rather than doctrine This book will help practitioners and students of spiritual care in the Christian tradition to reflect more critically on the intersection of spiritual care practice and theology The book also will challenge pastors ministers of pastoral care chaplains pastoral counselors spiritually oriented therapists to interrogate and re interpret traumatic shame filled Christian teachings about the atonement so that they too can join in God s ongoing and liberating work of salvation Somatic Methods for Affect Regulation

Kimberley L. Shilson,2019-04-05 Somatic Methods for Affect Regulation is a unique resource that presents a variety of approaches for working somatically with youth Chapters provide an overview of the relevant neuroscience research with a specific focus on affect regulation The somatic techniques showcased in the book are evidence based and illustrated with case studies showing their impact Importantly the chapters are also chock full of practical information including strategies for working with dysregulated youth information for collaborative and cooperative care and an appendix with checklists and worksheets to help clinicians plan guide and assess their work Transgender and Gender Diverse Health Care: The

The Trauma Survivor's Guide to Healing Travis Jessop, 2020-05-14 I understand the magnitude of damage left behind in the aftermath of trauma Not only through my years of coaching trauma survivors but because I too am a survivor of unimaginable trauma A few years ago I watched my 3 year old son die in an auto accident just days after losing my Dad to cancer Shortly after losing my son I found myself homeless and beyond broke I desperately needed help from somebody who not only understood trauma but had survived and HEALED after experiencing trauma I needed help and I didn't know where else to turn So I began weekly therapy sessions After thousands of dollars and many years of meeting with different counselors I was diagnosed with PTSD The diagnosis was great at least now I had a name for the beast in my head but I was still not feeling the peace I was desperately seeking So I began my quest to heal from PTSD on my own so I could get control over my mind and emotions and create a new life for myself my life after trauma I know from personal experience that trauma can destroy everything you value It can leave you broke mentally financially and spiritually It destroys friendships and relationships The very things you once placed so much value on no longer matter After years of studying trauma and PTSD I began to coach other trauma survivors and I discovered that we all seem to have a common theme in the way our brains and bodies react when they try to process the trauma and damage that has taken place I made a promise to myself that when I had healed from trauma that I would help others heal from their traumas so I created a simple step by step guide in the pages of this short book called The Trauma Survivor's Guide To Healing The Trauma Recovery Group Michaela Mendelsohn, Judith Lewis Herman, Emily Schatzow, Melissa Coco, Diya Kallivayalil, Jocelyn Levitan, 2011-06-14 Rich with expert practical guidance for therapists this book presents a time limited group treatment approach for survivors of interpersonal trauma The Trauma Recovery Group is a Stage 2 approach within Judith Herman's influential stage model of treatment It is designed for clients who have achieved basic safety and stability in present day life and who are ready to work on processing and integrating traumatic memories Vivid case examples and transcripts illustrate the process of screening selecting and orienting group members and helping them craft and work toward individualized goals while optimizing the healing power of group interactions In a convenient large size format the book includes reproducible handouts worksheets and flyers See also Group Trauma Treatment in Early Recovery by Judith Lewis Herman and Diya Kallivayalil which presents a Stage 1 approach that focuses on establishing safety stability and self care
