The Algerian War in Film Fifty Years Later, 2004-2012 Anne Donadey,2020-10-07 The Algerian War in Film Fifty Years Later 2004 2012 examines the cultural political and aesthetic significance of narrative films made during the fiftieth anniversary period of the war between 2004 and 2012 This period was a fruitful one in which film became a central medium generating varied representations of the war and Anne Donadey argues that the fiftieth anniversary film production contributed to France s move from a period of the return of the repressed to one of difficult anamnesis Donadey provides a close analysis of twenty narrative films made during this period on both side of the Mediterranean observing that while some films continue to center on the point of view of only one stake holding group a number of films open up new opportunities for multicultural French audiences to envision the war through the eyes of Algerian characters on screen and other films bring memories from various groups together in thoughtful articulations that represent the complexity of the situation Donadey takes this analysis a step further to analyze what types of gendered representations emerge in these films given the important participation of Algerian women in the revolutionary war Scholars of Francophone studies film women s studies and history will find this book particularly useful

Monuments Decolonized Susan Slyomovics,2024-07-23

Statuomania overtook Algeria beginning in the nineteenth century as the French affinity for monuments placed thousands of war memorials across the French colony. But following Algeria's hard fought independence in 1962 these monuments took on different meaning and some were repatriated to France legally or clandestinely. Today in both Algeria and France people are moving and removing, vandalizing and preserving this contested yet shared monumental heritage. Susan Slyomovics follows the afterlives of French built war memorials in Algeria and those taken to France. Drawing on extensive fieldwork in both countries and interviews with French and Algerian heritage actors and artists she analyzes the colonial nostalgia, dissonant heritage and ongoing decolonization and iconoclasm of these works of art. Monuments emerge here as objects with a soul offering visual records of the colonized Algerian native, the European settler colonizer and the contemporary efforts to engage with a dark colonial past. Richly illustrated with more than 100 color images, Monuments Decolonized offers a fresh aesthetic take on the increasingly global move to fell monuments that celebrate settler colonial histories. The Oxford Handbook of Arab Novelistic Traditions Wail S. Hassan, 2017. The Oxford Handbook of Arab Novelistic Traditions encompasses the genesis of the Arabic novel in the second half of the nineteenth century and its development to the present in every Arab country as well as Arab immigrant writing in many languages around the world. What the Day Owes the Night by Yasmina Khadra (Book Analysis) Bright Summaries, 2017-09-22.
