Whats Faith Got To Do With It Black Bodies Or Christian Souls:

What's Faith Got to Do with It? Black Bodies / Christian Souls Douglas, Kelly Brown, 2018-09-26 A Queering of Black Theology E. Kornegay, 2013-12-11 Kornegay's brilliant and insightful use of James Baldwin's literary genius offers a way forward that promises to overcome the divide between religion and sexuality that is of crucial importance not only for black church and theology but for socio-political religious and theological discourse generally Living Black Theology Anthony G. Reddie, 2025-05-22 Living Black Theology provides a challenging and radical critique of the present world order. It argues that the world as we experience it presently has its roots in the era of slavery and European colonialism, especially the British empire, the largest example of imperialism in human history. Written by the first Professor of Black Theology in the history of the University of Oxford, Living Black Theology offers a bold reassessment of how we can rethink the past that will challenge our contemporary ways of living. Ultimately, this text seeks to help us reimagine and remake the future one that is more equitable and just for all peoples. This is a landmark book Black Theology, Slavery and Contemporary Christianity Anthony G. Reddie, 2016-04-15 Black Theology Slavery and Contemporary Christianity explores the legacy of slavery in Black theological terms. Challenging the dominant approaches to the history and legacy of slavery in the British Empire, the contributors show that although the 1807 act abolished the slave trade, it did not end racism, notions of White supremacy, or the demonization of Blackness. Black people and Africa. This interdisciplinary study draws on biblical studies, history, missiology, and Black theological reflection, exploring the strengths and limitations of faith as the framework for abolitionist rhetoric and action. This Black theological approach to the phenomenon of the trans-Atlantic slave trade and the institution of slavery draws on contributions from Africa, the Caribbean, North America, and Europe Doing Theology in the New Normal Jione Havea, 2021-07-30 Responses to the recent pandemic have been driven by fear, with social distancing and locking down of communities and borders as the most effective tactics. Out of fear and strategies that separate and isolate, emerges what has been described as the new normal, which seems to mutate daily. Truly global in scope, with contributors from across the world, this collection revisits four old responses to crises: assure, protest, trick, amend. To explore if how those might still be relevant and effective, and/or how they might be mutated during and after a global pandemic. Together, they paint a grounded, earthy context, focused picture of what it means to do theology in the new normal.

Sensing Sacred Jennifer Baldwin, 2016-08-30 Sensing Sacred is an edited volume that explores the critical intersection of religion and body through the religious lens of practical theology, with an emphasis on sensation as the embodied means in which human beings know themselves, others, and the divine in the world. The manuscript argues that all human interaction and practice, including religious praxis, engages body through at least one of the human senses: touch, smell, hearing, taste, sight, kinestics, proprioception. Unfortunately, body and more specifically, and ironically, sensation is eclipsed in contemporary academic scholarship that is inherently bent toward the realm of theory and ideas. This is unfortunate because it neglects bodies physical or communal as the repository and generator of culturally conditioned ideas and theory It is ironic because all knowledge transmission minimally requires several senses including sight touch and hearing Sensing Sacred is organized into two parts The first section devotes a chapter to each human sense as an avenue of accessing religious experience while the second section explores religious practices as they specifically focus on one or more senses The overarching aim of the volume is to explicitly highlight each sense and utilize the theoretical lenses of practical theology to bring to vivid life the connections between essential sensation and religious thinking and practice

T&T Clark Handbook of Theological Anthropology Mary Ann Hinsdale, Stephen Okey, 2021-01-28 Including classical modern and postmodern approaches to theological anthropology this volume covers the entire spectrum of thought on the doctrines of creation the human person as imago Dei sin and grace The editors have gathered an exceptionally diverse range of voices ensuring ecumenical balance Protestant Roman Catholic and Orthodox and the inclusion of previously neglected perspectives women African American Asian Latinx and LGBTQ The contributors revisit authors from the Great Tradition early church medieval and modern and discuss them alongside critical and liberationist approaches ranging from feminist decolonial and intersectional theory to critical race theory and queer performance theory This is a much needed overview of a rapidly evolving field

Another World is Possible Dwight N. Hopkins, Marjorie Lewis, 2014-12-18 Another World is Possible examines the many peoples who have mobilized religion and spirituality to forge identity Some claim direct links to indigenous spiritual practices others have appropriated externally introduced religions modifying these with indigenous perspectives and practices The voices of Black people from around the world are presented in essays ranging from the Indian subcontinent Japan and Australia to Africa the UK and the USA From creation narratives to trickster heroes from the role of spirituality in HIV positive South Africa to its place in mental health and among the poor spirituality is shown to be essential to the survival of individuals and communities

Witnessing Whiteness Kristopher Norris, 2020-05-13 In Witnessing Whiteness Kristopher Norris explores the challenges that lie at the intersection of race church and politics in America and argues for a new ethics of responsibility to confront white supremacy Norris provides in depth analysis of the ways whiteness as a process of social identity formation is fueling racial division within American Christianity and the inadequacy of efforts at racial reconciliation to fully address the challenges posed by white supremacy poses Seeking deeper theological reasons for racial injustice he focuses on two of the most important thinkers in American religion of the past half century Stanley Hauerwas and James Cone Examining the current manifestations of racism in American churches exploring the theological roots of white supremacy and reflecting on the ways whiteness impacts even well meaning progressive white theologians this book diagnoses the ways in which all of white theology and white Christian practice are implicated in white supremacy By identifying the roots of white supremacy within the Christian church s theology and practice it argues that the white church has a particular and fundamental responsibility to address it Witnessing Whiteness uncovers this responsibility ethic at the convergence of two prominent streams in theological ethics traditionalist witness theology and black liberationist theology Employing their shared resources and attending to the criticisms liberation theology directs at traditionalism it proposes concrete practices to challenge the white church s and white theology s complicity in white supremacy Liberation Theologies in the United States Stacey M Floyd-Thomas,Anthony B Pinn,2010-03-01 Liberation Theologies in the United States reveals how the critical use of religion can be utilized to challenge and combat oppression in America In the nascent United States religion often functioned as a justifier of oppression Yet while religious discourse buttressed such oppressive activities as slavery and the destruction of native populations oppressed communities have also made use of religion to critique and challenge this abuse As Liberation Theologies in the United States demonstrates this critical use of religion has often taken the form of liberation theologies which use primarily Christian principles to address questions of social justice including racism poverty and other types of oppression Stacey M Floyd Thomas and Anthony B Pinn have brought together a stellar group of liberation theology scholars to provide a synthetic introduction to the historical development context theory and goals of a range of U S born liberation theologies Black Theology Anthony B Pinn Womanist Theology Stacey M Floyd Thomas Latina Theology Nancy Pineda Madrid Hispanic Latino a Theology Benjam n Valent n Asian American Theology Andrew Sung Park Asian American Feminist Theology Grace Ji Sun Kim Native Feminist Theology Andrea Smith Native American Theology George Tink Tinker Gay and Lesbian Theology Robert E Shore Goss Feminist Theology Mary McClintock Fulkerson An extraordinary resource for understanding the vitality of liberation theologies and their relation to social transformation in the changing U S context Written in an accessible and engaged way this powerful and informative text will inspire beginners and scholars alike I highly recommend it Kwok Pui lan author of Postcolonial Imagination and Feminist Theology A delight to read and an exemplary account of the genre of liberation theologies Religious Studies Review
