

The background of the slide is a close-up photograph of a water droplet falling into a pool of water. The droplet is captured mid-fall, just above the point of impact, creating a series of concentric ripples that spread outwards. The water is a light blue color, and the lighting is soft, highlighting the droplet and the ripples.

The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 2004

Curriculum Evelyn J. Sowell, 2005 For undergraduate and graduate courses in Curriculum

Development and or Curriculum Planning Defining curriculum broadly as what is taught in schools this practical text arranges content around two major themes 1 curriculum processes involve decision making by people who are guided by their beliefs and values about what students should learn and 2 curricular change occurs only after individuals have made internal transitions Unlike its competition this text painstakingly bridges curriculum theory to practice exploring ways to develop curriculum implement a curriculum plan and assess a school s curriculum by applying chapter content to sample curriculum projects Through accessible jargon free language and student friendly pedagogy the author shows both how practice informs theory and how use of theory helps educators engage in curriculum tasks appropriately New Age ,2001
