William Shepard Introducing Islam Book:

Introducing Islam William E. Shepard, 2014 Just what is Islam and what does it mean to be a Muslim in the world today Since the events of 9 11 and 7 7 Islam has become one of the most controversial and misunderstood religions in the world Introducing Islam encourages students to put aside their preconceptions and explore this fascinating religion Fully revised and updated the second edition of this core textbook adds crucial material on contemporary issues such as women in Islam and democratization and human rights Islam, the Ebook William E. Shepard, 2009 A college etextbook for religion courses

Reading the Qur'an in the Twenty-First Century Abdullah Saeed, 2013-12-04 Reading the Qur'an in the Twenty First Century considers the development of Qur'anic interpretation and highlights modern debates around new approaches to interpretation It explores how Muslims from various theological legal socio political and philosophical backgrounds think about the meaning and relevance of the Qur'an and how their ideas apply in the contemporary world The book reflects on one of the most dominant approaches to interpretation in the pre modern period textualism and the reaction to that in Muslim feminist readings of the Qur'an today covers issues such as identifying the hierarchical nature of Qur'anic values the criteria for the use of hadith in interpretation fluidity of meaning and ways of ensuring a degree of stability in interpretation examines key Qur'anic passages and compares pre modern and modern interpretations to show the evolving nature of interpretation Examples discussed include the authority of men over women the death of Jesus shura and democracy and riba and interest Abdullah Saeed provides a practical guide for interpretation and presents the principal ideas of a contextualist approach which situates the original message of the Qur'an in its wider social political cultural economic and intellectual context He advocates a more flexible method of interpretation that gives due recognition to earlier interpretations of the Qur'an while also being aware of changing conditions and the need to approach the Qur'an afresh today A History of Christchurch Muslims Abdullah Drury, 2024-09-30 This book examines a significant part of New Zealand history through a critical analysis of the Muslim community in Christchurch a neglected but important aspect of wider New Zealand social and religious history Islam is one of the fastest growing religions in New Zealand and one of the least understood by the wider public However the historic reality demonstrates that the first Muslim settlers arrived within 15 years of the proclamation of the colony in 1841 and many have been living quietly in this country and contributing to society ever since Drury elucidates how New Zealand Muslims have proved it possible to integrate into a European society in the South Pacific whilst retaining an idiosyncratic sense of Islamic communal identity This book is a useful reference for scholars and educators curious to learn more about Muslims in New Zealand and about the Christchurch Mosque communities before the 2019 shootings
