Re-Enchantment of the West, Vol 2 Christopher Partridge, 2006-06-20 Challenging some assessments of religion in the West this study argues that although much organized religion particularly Christianity is in numerical decline in actual fact we are witnessing an alternative spiritual re enchantment of society and culture Little Green Men, Meowing Nuns and Head-Hunting Panics Robert E. Bartholomew, 2001-06-06 For a two week period in 1956 residents in the vicinity of Taipei Taiwan lived in fear that they would be the next victims of a crazed villain who was prowling the streets and slashing people at random with a razor or similar weapon At least 21 victims were reported during this period mostly women and children of low income and education A thorough investigation revealed however that five slashings were innocent false reports seven were self inflicted cuts eight were due to cuts rather than razors and one was complete fantasy This is one example of many cases of what has traditionally been called mass hysteria that are examined in this comprehensive study of human beings fear of the unknown Beginning with a concise history of mass hysteria and social delusions the author differentiates between the two and investigates mass hysteria in closed settings such as work and school and mass hysteria in communities with incidents such as gassings Pokemon illnesses in Japan and medieval dance crazes Also examined are collective delusions with information on five major types immediate threat symbolic scare mass wish fulfillment urban legends and mass panics The book ends with a discussion of major issues in the area of mass hysteria and a look toward the future of this intriguing subject A Culture of Conspiracy Michael Barkun, 2003 Unravelling the genealogies and permutations of conspiracist worldviews this work shows how this web of urban legends has spread among sub cultures on the Internet and through mass media and how this phenomenon relates to larger changes in American culture Library Journal ,1996 Includes beginning Sept 15 1954 and on the 15th of each month Sept May a special section School library journal ISSN 0000 0035 called Junior libraries 1954 May 1961 Also issued separately Outbreak! Hilary Evans, Robert E. Bartholomew, 2009 From fads crazes and manias to collective delusions scares panics and mass hysterias history is replete with examples of remarkable social behavior Many are fueled by fear and uncertainty others are driven by hope and expectation For others still the causes are more obscure This massive collection of extraordinary social behaviors spans more than two millennia and attempts to place many of the episodes within their greater historical and cultural context Perhaps the most well known example of unusual collective behavior occurred in 1938 when a million or more Americans were frightened or panicked after listening to a realistic radio drama about a Martian invasion of New Jersey based on an adaptation of the H G Wells novel War of the Worlds Less known but equally remarkable scares based on Wells book occurred in Chile in 1944 when Army units were mobilized in Ecuador in 1949 when riots broke out leaving more than a dozen dead as well as in Buffalo in 1968 Rhode Island in 1974 and Europe in 1988 and 1998 The modern civilized world is by no means immune to such peculiar episodes In the late 20th century scores of people in the U S and Europe were wrongly incarcerated following claims of Satanic ritual abuse by authorities untutored in False Memory Syndrome This episode recalls the European witch terror of the late Middle
