The Bookman, 1919 The Art of Retreat Laurel V. Hankins, 2025-05-13 The political and cultural fantasy of home as a retreat from the pressures of the world first emerged in the U S alongside two major nineteenth century literary movements Romanticism and domestic fiction Upending accepted gendered narratives from this period The Art of Retreat posits that these movements originated from a domestic culture already in transition in which home was frequently a more complicated site of self interested pleasure coerced labor creole social reproduction homosocial intimacy bachelor whimsy petty tyranny racial abuse and transgender capacity The early national periodicals sketches and novels examined here lend themselves to this interpretation Hankins argues that the literary tradition emerging from these decades one that aligned creative genius with domestic retreat reminds us that a politics that appeals to private feeling must reckon with new interpretations of labor kinship and reform in exchange for the promise of consensual citizenship Published by Bucknell University Press Distributed worldwide by Rutgers University Press
