The Unheard Truth Poverty And Human Rights:

The Unheard Truth Irene Khan, David Petrasek, 2009 The secretary general of Amnesty International puts forth a powerful argument that poverty is not just an economic problem but a global human rights violation

The Unheard Truth Irene Khan, 2010-01-01 Despite economic growth in almost every corner of the world over the last decade billions of people still live in poverty Amnesty International Secretary General Irene Khan claims that economic analyses do not provide a full picture and economic solutions alone cannot end the problems of poverty In a bracing argument enriched with her personal experiences and case studies from around the world Khan sees poverty as the world's worst human rights crisis because it traps people in a vicious cycle of deprivation insecurity exclusion and voicelessness She argues that the foremost challenge is the empowerment of poor people and makes a passionate and urgent plea for action to uphold human rights in the fight to end poverty

Research Handbook on Human Rights and Poverty Martha F. Davis, Morten Kjaerum, Amanda Lyons, 2021-03-26 This important Research Handbook explores the nexus between human rights poverty and inequality as a critical lens for understanding and addressing key challenges of the coming decades including the objectives set out in the Sustainable Development Goals The Research Handbook starts from the premise that poverty is not solely an issue of minimum income and explores the profound ways that deprivation and distributive inequality of power and capability relate to economic social cultural civil and political rights

Human Rights Michael Freeman, 2011-04-11 Introducing readers to the theory and practice of human rights this text emphasises how the experiences of the victims of human rights violations are related to legal philosophical and social scientific approaches to human rights

The World Bank Legal Review, Volume 7 Financing and Implementing the Post-2015 Development Agenda Frank Fariello, Laurence Boisson de Chazournes, Kevin E. Davis, 2016-09-06 The newly adopted post 2015 development agenda is centered on 17 sustainable development goals to be reached by 2030 This volume of the World Bank Legal Review looks at how law and justice systems can support the financing and implementation of these goals including the role of the rule of law and economic and social rights The contributors including legal scholars development practitioners and financial experts analyze the goals explore ways in which they can be achieved and examine ways that recent relevant law and justice programs have worked A wide array of topics are covered from the legal aspects of collecting and monitoring vital data to improving legal identity programs to creating innovative health care regulation to legal and judicial reform to providing private sector financing of public education projects to the provision of global public goods Additionally a special section on Europe looks at financial crisis management enforcement of court decisions and the workings of the European Court of Justice The opportunities and challenges of the 2030 agenda are many This volume looks at both from multiple perspectives demonstrating how sustainable development can go forward in a way in which everyone benefits

Tunstall,2012-09-06 The keywords of the Enlightenment freedom tolerance rights equality are today heard everywhere and they are used to endorse a wide range of positions some of which are in perfect contradiction While Orwell s 1984 claims that there is one phrase in the English language that resists translation into Newspeak namely the opening lines of that key Enlightenment text the Declaration of Independence We hold these truths to be self evident that all men are created equal we also find the Wall Street Journal saying of the Iraq War that the US was fighting for the very notion of the Enlightenment It seems we are no longer sure whether these truths are self evident nor quite what they might mean today Based on the critically acclaimed Oxford Amnesty Lectures series this book brings together a number of major international figures to debate the history of freedom tolerance equality and to explore the complex legacy of the Enlightenment for human rights The lectures are published here with responses from other leading figures in the field Human Rights and Economic Inequalities Gillian MacNaughton,Diane Frey,Catherine Porter,2021-09-02 Economic inequalities are among the greatest human rights challenges the world faces today due to the past four decades of neoliberal policy dominance Globally there are now over 2 000 billionaires while 3 4 billion people live below the poverty line of US 5 50 per day Many human rights scholars and practitioners read these statistics with alarm asking what impact such extreme inequalities have on realizing human rights and what role if any should human rights have in challenging them This edited volume examines these questions from multiple disciplinary perspectives seeking to uncover the relationships between human rights and economic inequalities and the barriers and pathways to greater economic equality and full enjoyment of human rights for all The volume is a unique contribution to the emerging literature on human rights and economic inequality as it is interdisciplinary global in reach and extends to several under researched areas in the field Measuring Global Poverty S. Wisor,2011-12-01 The author examines the moral methodological and practical problems that arise from poverty measurement He establishes a methodological framework for analyzing poverty conceptions and measures and concludes with concrete recommendations regarding both the procedures for and substance of future global poverty measurement Human Rights in the United States Shareen Hertel,Kathryn Libal,2011-04-18 This book brings to light emerging evidence of a shift toward a fuller engagement with international human rights norms and their application to domestic policy dilemmas in the United States

The volume offers a rich history spanning close to three centuries of the marginalization of human rights discourse in the United States Contributors analyze cases of US human rights advocacy aimed at addressing persistent inequalities within the United States itself including advocacy on the rights of persons with disabilities indigenous peoples lone mother headed families incarcerated persons lesbian gay bisexual and transgendered people and those displaced by natural disasters It also explores key arenas in which legal scholars policy practitioners and grassroots activists are challenging multiple divides between public and private spheres for example in connection with children s rights and domestic violence and between public and private sectors specifically in relation to healthcare and business and human rights

Mobilising International Law for 'Global Justice' Jeff Handmaker, Karin Arts, 2019 Critically explores how international law is mobilised by global and local actors to achieve or block global justice efforts

Children's Lived Experience of Poverty and Vulnerability in Kenya Elizabeth Ngutuku, 2025-01-29 Drawing from ethnographic research this book presents children s lived experience of poverty and vulnerability in Kenya By taking the case of Siaya Kenya which has some of the lowest indicators of child well being the book presents children s complex lived experience from three interlinked everyday spaces of the home the school and support programmes It argues that children s experience is formed at the interstices of material lack historically as well as politically located factors and the complex context of social relations The book is anchored in an innovative methodology of listening softly to children s voice Aimed at fully capturing children s experience listening softly focusses on the different ways that children s voice happen The book challenges scholarship to go beyond multi dimensionality and re imagine children s experience as complex and entangled use methods that are attuned to capturing children s messy experience of poverty and be widely awake in each intervention context to capture the emergent fluid experience of children Presenting a non linear contextual entangled and complex experience of poverty and vulnerability this book will be of interest to scholars and students in the field of Poverty Studies Development Studies Childhood Studies Social Policy Critical studies Human and Child Rights and African Studies

State Food Crimes Rhoda E. Howard-Hassmann, 2016-08-30 Some states deny their own citizens one of the most fundamental human rights the right to food Rhoda E Howard Hassmann a leading scholar of human rights discusses state food crimes demonstrating how governments have introduced policies that cause malnutrition or starvation among their citizens and others for whom they are responsible The book introduces the right to food and discusses historical cases communist famines in Ukraine China and Cambodia and neglect of starvation by democratic states in Ireland Germany and Canada It then moves to a detailed discussion of four contemporary cases starvation in North Korea and malnutrition in Zimbabwe Venezuela and the West Bank and Gaza These cases are then used to analyse international human rights law sanctions and food aid and civil and political rights as they pertain to the right to food The book concludes by considering the need for a new international treaty on the right to food

Climate Change, Forced Migration, and International Law

Jane McAdam, 2012-02-23 This is a key study into whether climate change refugees are protected by international law It examines the reasons why people do or do not move how far climate change is a trigger for movement and whether traditional international responses such as creating new treaties and new institutions are appropriate solutions in this context

From Intercountry Adoption to Global Surrogacy Karen Smith Rotabi, Nicole F. Bromfield, 2016-12-12 Intercountry adoption has undergone a radical decline since 2004 when it reached a peak of approximately 45 000 children adopted globally Its practice had been linked to conflict poverty gender inequality and claims of human trafficking ultimately leading to the establishment of the Hague Convention on Intercountry Adoption HCIA This international private law along with the Convention on the Rights of the Child affirm the best interests of the child as paramount in making decisions on behalf of children and families with obligations specifically oriented to safeguards in adoption practices In 2004 as intercountry adoption peaked and then began a dramatic decline commercial global surrogacy contracts began to take off in India Global surrogacy gained in popularity owing in part to improved assisted reproductive technology methods the ease with which people can make global surrogacy arrangements and same sex couples seeking the option to have their own genetically related children Yet regulation remains an issue so much so that the Hague Conference on Private International Law has undertaken research and assessed the many dilemmas as an expert group considers drafting a new law with some similarities to the HCIA and a strong emphasis on parentage This ground breaking book presents a detailed history and applies policy and human rights issues with an emphasis on the best interests of the child within intercountry adoption and the new conceptions of protection necessary in global surrogacy To meet this end voices of surrogate mothers in the US and India ground discourse as authors consider the human rights concerns and policy implications For both intercountry adoption and global surrogacy the complexity of the social context anchors the discourse inclusive of the intersections of poverty and privilege This examination of the inevitable problems is presented at a time in which the pathways to global surrogacy appear to be shifting as the Supreme Court of India weighs in on the future of the industry there while Thailand Cambodia and other countries have banned the practice all together There is speculation that countries in Africa and possibly Central
