

When Sickness Heals: The Place Of Religious Belief In Healthcare - Siroj Sorajjakool

DOWNLOAD HERE

In When Sickness Heals, Dr. Siroj Sorajjakool draws on more than ten years of studies on health benefits in relation to spirituality, especially focusing on the function of meaning. He expounds on his theory that healing is primarily the function of meaning, and meaning transcends sickness and even death itself. He concludes that what people ultimately seek in life is the healing of their souls. Sorajjakool brings many Eastern and Western resources to his conversation on health, meaning, and healing. He incorporates the perspectives of theologians and philosophers like Paul Tillich, Carl Jung, Sren Kierkegaard, Raimundo Panikkar, Dietrich Bonhoeffer, and John Macquarrie; as well as references to religious texts, including yin and yang, and alchemy. A clear, distinct understanding of spirituality in clinical contexts is presented, with an argument for the role of meaning in the healing process, based on evidence that there may be healing even in the face of death. Sorajjakool identifies the transitional processes people may go through as they seek to make sense of their experiences during a health crisis. He suggests an alternative approach to spiritual assessment and provides methods of spiritual care that speak to the soul. Author: Sorajjakool, anthropology and continue to distinguish it among the social sciences A third feature is the in depth knowledge of culture produced by anthropological methods such as participant observation involving long term presence in and research among a study population The first part of the book explores healing systems in different cultures the second and third provide a strong grounding in evolutionary and culture oriented analysis making clear the connections between biology and culture as they affect health the final part emphasizes case studies that apply the theoretical principles presented earlier to particular health topics For medical anthropology medical sociology public health nursing and medical training professionals
