The Intern Installment: An Alpha Billionaire Romance Michelle Love, 2020-04-06 Enjoy this bad boy book by Best selling billionaire romance author Michelle Love Damon I ran one of the most successful Architecture companies in the world well known to everyone in the business I was involved in every aspect of the daily activities though one of my least favorite parts was interviewing for interns every year It was something that came along with the company and a great learning tool for the students so I kept it as something we did I just typically left it to my managers who were more hands on with the teams to figure out who to hire out of all of the faces that we saw I started caring the moment that Elisa walked in the door She was everything that I didn't look for in a woman sweetness innocence and inexperience She was guarded and intelligent and I fought to keep her out of my company against the wishes of everyone else at that interview

Mediated Intimacy Meg-John Barker, Rosalind Gill, Laura Harvey, 2018-02-27 Mediated Intimacy looks at contemporary sex and relationship advice exploring how our intimate lives are shaped through different media from manuals and magazines to television and Twitter By exploring how intimacy is constructed through different media texts the authors consider which ideas and practices these changing forms of sexpertise open up and which they close down The book reveals the intimate operation of power in mediated advice how words and images stories and sound can work to shore up social injustice It critically engages with the ideas of choice and responsibility in sex self help arguing that these can obscure and or justify oppression even if they're sometimes experienced as empowering and or pleasurable This bold and incisive book provides a radical challenge to the assumptions underlying the sex advice industry and presents a critical collaborative and consensual vision for sex advice of the future

Adaptation in the Age of Media Convergence Johannes Fehrle, Werner Schäfke-Zell, 2025-10-01 This collection considers new phenomena emerging in a convergence environment from the perspective of adaptation studies The contributions take the most prominent methods within the field to offer reconsiderations of theoretical concepts and practices in participatory culture transmedia franchises and new media adaptations The authors discuss phenomena ranging from mash ups of novels and YouTube cover songs to negotiations of authorial control and interpretative authority between media producers and fan communities to perspectives on the fictional and legal framework of brands and franchises In this fashion the collection expands the horizons of both adaptation and transmedia studies and provides reassessments of frequently discussed BBC's Sherlock or the LEGO franchise and previously largely ignored phenomena self censorship in transnational franchises mash up novels or YouTube cover videos

The Case for Fanfiction Ashley J. Barner, 2017-08-07 Challenging readers to rethink what they read and why the author questions the aesthetic assumptions that have led to the devaluing of fanfiction a genre criticized as both tasteless and derivative and other guilty pleasure reading and writing including romance and fantasy The complicated relationship between fanfic and intellectual property rights is discussed in light of the millennia old tradition of derivative literature before modern copyright law established originality as the hallmark of great fiction Absorbed reading the practice of immersing oneself in the narrative versus critically reading from a distance is a strong motive for the appropriation by fanfiction of canon characters and worlds

The Routledge Companion to Literary Media Astrid Ensslin, Julia Round, Bronwen Thomas, 2023-08-30 The Routledge Companion to Literary Media examines the fast moving present and future of a media ecosystem in which the literary continues to play a vital role The term literary media challenges the tendency to hold the two terms distinct and broadens accepted usage of the literary to include popular cultural forms emerging technologies and taste cultures genres and platforms as well as traditions and audiences all too often excluded from literary histories and canons Featuring contributions from leading international scholars and practitioners the Companion provides a comprehensive guide to existing terms and theories that address the alignment of literature and a variety of media forms It situates the concept in relation to existing theories and historiographies considers emerging genres and forms such as locative narratives and autofiction and expands discussion beyond the boundaries by which literary authorship is conventionally defined Contributors also examine specific production and publishing contexts to provide in depth analysis of the promotion of literary media materials The volume further considers reading and other aspects of situated audience engagement such as Indigenous and oral storytelling prize and review cultures book clubs children and young adults This authoritative collection is an invaluable resource for scholars and students working at the intersection of literary and media studies

Fundamentals of Collection Development and Management Peggy Johnson,2014-03-21 In this sweeping revision of a text that has become an authoritative standard expert instructor and librarian Peggy Johnson addresses the art of controlling and updating library collections whether located locally or accessed remotely The Death of the Artist William Deresiewicz,2020-07-28 A deeply researched warning about how the digital economy threatens artists lives and work the music writing and visual art that sustain our souls and societies from an award winning essayist and critic There are two stories you hear about earning a living as an artist in the digital age One comes from Silicon Valley There s never been a better time to be an artist it goes If you ve got a laptop you ve got a recording studio If you ve got an iPhone you ve got a movie camera And if production is cheap distribution is free it s called the Internet Everyone s an artist just tap your creativity and put your stuff out there The other comes from artists themselves Sure it goes you can put your stuff out there but who s going to pay you for it Everyone is not an artist Making art takes years of dedication and that requires a means of support If things don t change a lot of art will cease to be sustainable So which account is true Since people are still making a living as artists today how are they managing to do it William Deresiewicz a leading critic of the arts and of contemporary culture set out to answer those questions Based on interviews with artists of all kinds The Death of the Artist argues that we are in the midst of an epochal transformation If artists were artisans in the Renaissance bohemians in the nineteenth century and professionals in the twentieth a new paradigm is emerging in the digital age one that is changing our fundamental ideas about the nature of art and the role of the artist in society
