Pornocracy Jo Bartosch, Robert Jessel, 2025-10-21 They say everybody uses porn They re wrong People don t use pornography it uses us And you don t have to watch it to be one of its victims In this thought provoking and timely book Jo Bartosch and Robert Jessel expose how the multi billion dollar pornography industry has humanity gripped in a chokehold From rewiring our brains and normalising sexual violence to shaping new protest movements the pornographic revolution has achieved a stunning and near total victory The triumph of the pornocrats is made more sinister by society s widespread acceptance that all men watch porn the denial of its devastating harms and a lack of political will to curb the power of the global pornography business The authors answer the questions that politicians and policymakers are too scared to ask Why despite over half a century of feminist gains and lessons in schools on consent do today s school children display more sexist attitudes than their parents and grandparents Do women really want to be choked and humiliated in bed How can we fight back and reclaim sex love and relationships Drawing on the latest research Pornocracy charts how the neurological shifts caused by porn use reverberate through society The book also warns of a dystopian future where AI powered porn and sextech threaten to reduce us all to masturbating meat puppets on an algorithmic production line Provocative and powerful Pornocracy tells the story of how pornography fundamentally changed perhaps forever what it is to be human Sex Work Today Angela Jones, Barbara G. Brents, Bernadette Barton, 2024-11-19 Sex Work Now presents data driven stories written by academics sex working academics and sex workers documenting critical shifts and changes in modern sex industries
