Trans Narratives Ana Horvat, Orly Lael Netzer, Sarah McRae, Julie Rak, 2021-09-30 Recently trans has taken on a number of important theoretical and critical meanings inside and outside the academy As a prefix trans can attach itself to other words to express or describe movement and change as it does in the terms transnational or transmedia Trans is also an adjective when it is part of a word that signifies an identity or expression Trans has worked as an adjective to destabilize established ideas about gender as it makes new senses of what gender can mean for trans people Much of the study of life writing is about the study of identity and the possibilities for lives that stories of identity make possible In that spirit Trans Narratives trans transmedia transnational represents an opportunity for critical work about life writing by trans people to be featured as it seeks to interrogate the idea of trans in multiple registers bringing a prefix to the center of the current field of life writing studies It aims to understand through life writing and its theory what trans means when we talk about identities and bodies and to understand better what the critical terms transmedia and transnational can mean for the field of life writing The Chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of a b Auto Biography Studies The Terrible We Cameron Awkward-Rich, 2022-08-08 In The Terrible We Cameron Awkward Rich thinks with the bad feelings and mad habits of thought that persist in both transphobic discourse and trans cultural production Observing that trans studies was founded on a split from and disavowal of madness illness and disability Awkward Rich argues for and models a trans criticism that works against this disavowal By tracing the coproduction of the categories of disabled and transgender in the United States at the turn of the twentieth century and analyzing transmasculine literature and theory by Eli Clare Elliott DeLine Dylan Scholinski and others Awkward Rich suggests that thinking with maladjustment might provide new perspectives on the impasses arising from the conflicted relationships among trans feminist and queer In so doing he demonstrates that rather than only impeding or confining trans life thought and creativity forms of maladjustment have also been and will continue to be central to their development Duke University Press Scholars of Color First Book Award recipient
