The Universe Next Door James W. Sire, 2006 The second edition was updated and expanded to include sections on

Marxism and secular humanism as well as a completely reworked chapter on what is now widely known as New Age philosophy rather than new consciousness And the third edition offered further updating and revisions including a thoroughly revised chapter on New Age philosophy and perhaps most importantly a new chapter on postmodernism Now the fourth edition refines the definition of worldview itself incorporating Sire s thinking and teaching during the past decade and it will continue to aid anyone who wants to understand the variety of worldviews that compete with Christianity for the allegiance of our minds and hearts

The Ethics of Superintelligent Design Paul Golata,2018-03-07 Artificial intelligence AI permeates Google searches the personal assistants in our smartphones and is all over our newsfeeds Watson s machine learning has already started to revolutionize many important industries including oncology law finance and entertainment The idea that man is about to increase his immediate surroundings with exponential gains in the level of intelligence over the coming generations is based upon a technological revolution and the potential for artificial superintelligence ASI It is within this context that there is a prevailing need for a discussion of its ethical implications As a Christian ethicist Paul Golata believes that the need for this conversation to be informed by Christian principles is imperative ASI is a move toward the proper handling of information However how a society interprets and applies this information is actually more pertinent than the raw amount of information it possesses This important ethical conversation is being led by humanistic thinkers who assume that all of reality is just matter in motion and that mind is nothing more than electrochemical activity in the wetware of human brains The Ethics of Superintelligent Design critically examines and challenges some of the most important trajectories of ASI while upholding the authority and inerrancy of the Bible the supernatural creation account a realistic view of the state of humanity and biblical ethics

Cultural Engagement Timothy Keller,2013-09-03 Fruitful ministry in the century must embrace the unavoidable reality of the city A Center Church theological vision affirms that center cities are wonderful strategic and underserved places for gospel ministry and recognizes that virtually all ministry contexts are increasingly shared by urban and global forces Regardless of your particular cultural or geographical context you will need to consider the city when forming a theological vision that engages the people you are trying to reach This eBook contains the fifth part of Center Church Cultural Engagement In it Keller discusses four models for engaging urban culture acknowledging that each model has strengths and weaknesses ways in which it reflects a particular biblical emphasis and other ways in which it reflects an unbiblical imbalance or idol The Center church model for cultural engagement blends the key insights of each model in a way that we believe is more biblically faithful and also fruitful for reaching urban culture

Nursing as Ministry Kristen L. Mauk,Mary Hobus,2019-10-01 Designed to be a student friendly textbook for faith based schools this first edition text focuses on nursing as ministry not just spiritual care Impress Them on Your Children Charleton D. King,2023-12-19 It was a slow realization over many years that I had been living a divided life as a Christian teaching in the public school system I had no problem teaching at a public school myself but I simultaneously refused to send my children to the same school because I didn't want them exposed to what was taught there. The inconsistency was clear in the minds of others when they found out that I homeschooled my children, but it took years for it to become clear to me. After a decade in teaching, I felt convicted to resign. This book recounts the several moments and realizations that led up to my decision to leave public education. Imagination Redeemed Gene Edward Veith Jr., Matthew P. Ristuccia, 2014-11-30. Your imagination matters. Contrary to popular perception, it's not just for kids, artists, or fans of science fiction. Rather, the imagination is what bridges our thinking and feeling, allowing us to do everything from planning a weekend getaway to remembering what we ate for breakfast. In Imagination Redeemed, Gene Veith and Matthew Ristuccia uncover the imagination's importance for Christians, helping us understand who God is, what his Word teaches, and how we should live in the world today. Here is a call to embrace this forgotten part of the mind as a gift from God, designed to bolster faith, hope, and love in his people. Exiles on Mission Paul S. Williams, 2020-03-17. Many Christians in the West sense that traditional Christian teaching is losing traction in the public square. What does faithful Christian witness look like in a post-Christian culture? Paul Williams, the CEO of one of the world's largest and oldest Bible societies, interprets the dissonance Christians often experience while trying to live out their faith in the 21st century. He provides constructive tools to help readers understand culture in myriad contexts and offer a missional response. Williams calls for a truly missional understanding of post-Christendom Christianity, whereby local churches are reimagined as embassies of the kingdom of God, and Christians serve as ambassadors in all spheres of life and work. This book invites readers to embrace the language of exile and imagine a hopeful mission of the scattered and gathered church in the post-Christian West. It shows a clear pathway for fruitful missional engagement for the whole people of God, helping Christians make sense of the world in which they live, more authentically integrate faith with everyday life, and orient all of their efforts within God's missional purpose for the world.

Faith, Life, and Learning Online Brant M. Himes, John W. Washatka, 2022-04-08. Faith, Life, and Learning Online is an invitation for faith-based institutions to take bold steps toward integrating a holistic mission of spiritual formation into the online learning environment. For Christian higher education, faith integration is a matter of mission, not modality. Regardless of whether learning happens in the traditional classroom, through hybrid models, or exclusively online, Christian universities have a missional mandate to continue their long legacy of forming students of competence and character. While traditional campuses continue to provide unique and meaningful opportunities for students to grow in their faith, online learning has opened new avenues for engagement and development of spiritual formation. As such, all Christian higher education institutions are now called to take advantage of this unique technological moment to continue to offer transformative opportunities for the holistic integration of faith, life, and learning in the online environment. Is Reality Secular? Mary Poplin, 2014-01-02. What is the nature of reality? What does it mean to be human? And how do we account for ethics and morality? Mary Poplin examines naturalism, humanism, pantheism, and Judeo-Christian theism and explores the fundamental assumptions and limitations of each perspective Emerging Voices Barry L. Saylor, 2020-11-30 Recent research has demonstrated a loss of verbalization or grasp of the Christian language in the emerging generations of Western Christianity As contemporary culture rejects Christian identity more and more subsequent generations are losing the ability to proclaim their faith well This is particularly troubling for those on the theological campus seeking to train and disciple today's emerging adults as the next generation of ministers Emerging Voices attempts to identify factors behind this phenomenon and to map out a better way forward particularly for the theological campus As contemporary issues such as the elimination of faith from public discourse and the ubiquitous influence of technology shape students in the years before college what can be done to reclaim the Christian language for students tasked with preaching the gospel This project combines a deep dive into some of the leading research regarding religion and spirituality in youth and emerging adulthood alongside of a focused study group In uniting these approaches Emerging Voices attempts to give expression to those who most need to be heard in the coming decades of the Christian church in Western culture The Birth of Natural Rights Dennis Alwine, 2021-08-13 Where do our rights come from If you've ever pondered this question The Birth of Natural Rights is probably for you If you've never wondered where they come from this book is definitely for you The author traces the origins of rights as exquisitely expressed in America's Declaration of Independence to their logical source how they could only have come as expressions of the character of a loving living God Grand Central Question Abdu H. Murray, 2014-03-04 All religions and worldviews seek to answer the fundamental questions of human existence But the main worldviews each tend to stress a different issue Abdu Murray a lawyer and former Muslim digs deeply into secular humanism pantheism and theism specifically in the form of Islam comparing each to the central message of Jesus The Philippine Council of Evangelical Churches Raymundo Go, 2019-04-30 In this historical account Dr Raymundo Go presents the arrival and growth of evangelicalism in the Philippines from 1898 to 2000 looking in particular at the formation of the Philippine Council of Evangelical Churches PCEC and the motivating factors of the founding members Weaving together a narrative almost forgotten in the Philippines Dr Go also brings unique insights on the impact that North American events and theological debates had on the nascent Philippine church Through detailed explanation of the interaction and influence of the modernist liberal fundamental and evangelical movements in shaping Philippine Christian history this study addresses the historical reason for a lack of unity in the Philippine church Dr Go applies Paul Hiebert's theory of bounded and centred sets to the divisions between key organizations and churches in the Philippines to analyze and understand the behaviours of the influential groups involved in shaping Protestantism in the Philippines today This important work is not only needed to draw attention to the history of the church in the Philippines but it is vital in showing the need to learn from a divided past when considering the potential for future reconciliation and unity in the body of Christ Humble Confidence Benno van den Toren, Kang-San Tan, 2022-12-20 Benno van den Toren and Kang San Tan provide a global intercultural model of apologetics as crosscultural dialogue and accountable witness Filled with Scriptural examples and real world experiences this is a conversational patient holistic and embodied guide to creating true dialogue in our multicultural multifaith world Getting a Life Douglas B.

Miller,2023-11-28 Getting a Life Living Your Call is about finding meaning and purpose Writing from a Christian perspective but also addressing readers who embrace other worldviews it uses stories and examples to help readers examine their gifts experience and motivations as clues to God s direction for their lives Chapters are devoted to faith as an everyday experience identity how to be confident in what we know the importance of community moral health central issues of Christian faith and various worldview options as key elements on the way to understanding one s job and vocation Excellent for individual group or classroom use it serves as a primer for epistemology soteriology ecclesiology ethics and apologetics as well as worldview and culture studies while keeping its focus on practical questions of life engagement and the choice of profession The book offers help for developing a personal mission statement and encouragement for life giving disciplines
