Arnold A. van Ruler

Van Godsdiensten En Menschen Reisindrukken Van Een Tambaram Ganger:

The ^AChanging Face of Christianity Lamin Sanneh, Joel A. Carpenter, 2005-03-10 Over the past century Christianity's place and role in the world have changed dramatically In 1900 80 percent of the world's Christians lived in Europe and North America Today more than 60 percent of the world's Christians live outside of that region This change calls for a reexamination of the way the story of Christianity is told the methodological tools for its analysis and its modes of expression Perhaps most significant is the role of Africa as the new Christian heartland The questions and answers about Christianity and its contemporary mission now being developed in the African churches will have enormous influence in the years to come This volume offers nine new essays addressing this sea change and its importance for the future of Christianity Some contributions consider the development of non Western forms of Christianity others look at the impact of these new Christianities in the West The authors cover a wide range of topics from the integration of witchcraft and Christianity in Nigeria and the peacemaking role of churches in Mozambique to the American Baptist reception of Asian Christianity The Changing Face of Christianity shows the striking cultural differences between the new world Christianity and its western counterpart But with so many new immigrants in Europe and North America the faith's fault lines are not purely geographical The new Christianity now thrives in American and European settings and northerners need to know this faith better At stake is their ability to be good neighbors and perhaps to be good Christian citizens of the world The Early Years of a Dutch Colonial Mission Rita Smith Kipp, 1990 This fascinating story of a Dutch Reformed mission among the Karo of North Sumatra chronicles the field's first fifteen years 1889 1904 Plantation executives sponsored the mission hoping to enlist the Karo as Christian allies in a colonial war against Muslim fanatics But the Karo hated the plantations and likewise distrusted and resisted the missionaries Civil servants saw the mission as a forerunner of the government's annexation of the Sumatran highlands and in the military expedition to take the region the missionaries played a prominent role Consequently the missionaries found their credibility diminished by their links to the despised colonial apparatus Nonetheless the missionaries' motives were religious and they struggled with the compromises that made their work possible yet ultimately precluded its success Unlike other missionary studies that focus on biography or on large regions this historical ethnography concentrates on a single field and on the personalities and activities of the several men who pioneered it in its formative years It examines the missionaries' assumptions and values describe how the missionaries contrasted themselves with the government and capitalist business and explores the difficulties of translating Christianity across a great cultural gulf The Early Years of a Dutch Colonial Mission will give pause to anyone who has thought missionaries heroic or to anyone who has thought them mislead Consummation Arnold A. van Ruler, 2025-09-16 This volume complements a previous volume of translated essays by the Dutch theologian Arnold van Ruler 1908 1970 published by Wipf Stock namely This Earthly Life Matters The Promise of Arnold van Ruler for Ecotheology 2023 It offers a translation of eighteen essays on eschatology in

Arnold van Ruler s Verzameld Werk Deel 5C These essays are included in chronological order under four rubrics namely a Law and Kingdom of God b The millennium c Life and death and d Later texts on eschatology The volume includes an introduction by the Dutch editor Dirk van Keulen and an editor s afterword on the promise of Van Ruler s eschatology for contemporary ecotheology Van godsdiensten en mensen Hendrik Kraemer,1940 Cultureel Indie Koloniaal
