Without A Net Middle Class And Homeless With Kids In America:

Without a Net Michelle Kennedy, 2006-01-31 Michelle Kennedy had a typical middle class American childhood in Vermont She attended college interned in the U S Senate married her high school sweetheart and settled in the suburbs of D C But the comfortable life she was building quickly fell apart At age twenty four Michelle was suddenly single homeless and living out of a car with her three small children She waitressed night shifts while her kids slept out in the diner s parking lot She saved her tips in the glove compartment and set aside a few quarters every week for truck stop showers for her and the kids With startling humor and honesty Kennedy describes the frustration of never having enough money for a security deposit on an apartment but having too much to qualify for public assistance Without A Net is a story of hope Michelle Kennedy survives on her wits a little luck and a lot of courage And in the end she triumphs Without a Net Michelle Kennedy, 2005 Michelle Kennedy recounts how a few bad choices and missed chances pushed her below the poverty line and into a different life than she d ever imagined She shares each unvarnished detail of how using her wits a little luck and a lot of courage she survived disaster and finally triumphed BOOK JACKET Coping with Homelessness Marcia Amidon Lusted, 2017-12-15 In today s world of economic uncertainty homelessness is a growing problem for families everywhere Homelessness can happen with little warning and when it does occur it is vital to know what actions to take immediately and what resources are available Readers will find practical strategies to follow if they should suddenly find themselves homeless addressing issues that include how to find shelter food and medical care and how to stay in school or find a job It also includes features such as a section of 10 Great Questions to ask experts and a listing of organizations that can provide assistance 99 Jumpstarts to Research Peggy Whitley, Susan Williams Goodwin, Catherine C. Olson, 2010-08-16 This book provides research assistance for 99 current and provocative issues students can use to write a brief argumentative paper In 2030 it is projected that 65 percent of the population will be over 65 The U S Government Census Bureau reveals that over an adult s working life college graduates typically earn close to 1 million more than high school graduates About 43 percent of American families spend more than they earn each year These three factoids represent a tiny fraction of the potential research subjects contained in 99 Jumpstarts to Research Topic Guides for Finding Information on Current Issues Second Edition a completely revised follow up to the original edition Every jumpstart each focused upon a current timely issue contains ideas for narrowing the topic research keywords suggested best books and databases and Internet sites This book supports both faculty and students in identifying compelling topics effectively evaluating and selecting resources in today s information overload world and deriving enjoyment from the research and writing process Traveling Light Kath Weston, 2009-09-01 How far can you get on two tacos one Dr Pepper and a little bit of conversation What happens when you re broke and you need to get to a new job an ailing parent a powwow college or a funeral on the other side of the country And after decades of globalization what kind of America will you glimpse through the window on your way For five years Kath Weston rode the bus to find out Traveling Light is not just another book about people stuck in poverty. Rather it's a book about how people move through poverty and their insights into the sweeping economic changes that affect us all. The result is a moving meditation on living poor in the world's wealthiest nation.

Parent To Child-The Guide Natalie D'Annibale Bandlow, 2006-02 This guide provides parents with an opportunity to chronicle their own personal history and past experiences as well as the history and experiences of their child's life in a direct, loving and supportive way. Don't wait! Let Parent To Child The Guide assist you in writing the legacy you want and need to leave for your children just in case.

Gandhi Was a Libra Michelle Kennedy, 2007-07 Carrie O'Connor is a good mother. But when bipolar disorder overtakes her brain, she starts to do things that even she can't believe she is doing at the time. It's all part of the roller coaster ride, however, as her disease takes her to the brink of criminality and beyond. When she ends up in a mental institution, this formerly normal young housewife learns that the line between sane and not can sometimes be quite blurry.

The Real Story Sarah Statz Cords, Robert Burgin, 2006-03-30 Here is your road map to the vast and previously uncharted terrain of recreational nonfiction. After defining the genre and discussing its unique characteristics and appeals, the author describes more than 500 popular nonfiction titles and organizes them according to genre. Everything from true adventure, true crime and travel narratives to investigative nonfiction, environmental writing and life stories. Genres are subdivided into subgenres and popular themes such as micro histories, deep science and humorous memoirs. Focus is on the best titles published within the last decade, with key classics and benchmark titles also cited. For each title, you'll find a short list of nonfiction read-alikes and fiction read-alikes are listed for each genre.

NWSA Journal, 2005 Kidwatching in Josie's World Neva Ann Medcalf, 2008 Over twenty years of work and research with homeless children comes together in a scholarly work that puts a real face on the issue of homelessness, especially for children. Most people do not realize that children are among the thousands that are homeless and are the fastest growing segment of the homeless population. The public tends to think about the bum on the corner with the cardboard sign or those sleeping under the bridges who accost them for a handout. They do not realize that homelessness has an enormous and negative impact on growth, development and learning for children. This is an issue that affects schools, communities and society at large. Through qualitative observations in a one-room classroom in a homeless shelter and in classrooms of an elementary school located in a subsidized housing project, the development and use of language among homeless children classroom interactions between students and teachers and information regarding the effects of homelessness on children are closely examined This book re educates teachers educators and the general public in order to spur a new more accurate mindset about the reality and consequences of homelessness The work s larger purpose is to bring about compassionate implementation of the solutions necessary to eradicate this problem The Book Review Digest ,2005 American Studies ,2005 New Books on Women and Feminism ,2005 Access ,2005 An Angle of Vision Lorraine López,2009 Uncommon perspectives by prominent women writers on class money family and home Elle ,2005 The Nation ,2006 The Washington Post Index ,1989
