Towards Commemoration Ireland In War And Revolution 1912 1923:

Towards Commemoration John Horne,Edward Madigan,2014 Towards Commemoration John Horne,Edward Madigan,2013 This book arrives on foot of a decade of commemorations Contemporary Ireland was founded during the fractious years of 1912 1923 This volume features essays by leading historians journalists civic activists and folklorists The outstanding body of scholarship offers a complexity of new views in the debate how to commemorate a divided past

Defying the IRA? Brian Hughes,2016-10-18 This book explores the community experience of the Irish Revolution

Ireland and the Great War Niamh Gallagher,2019-11-28 On 4 August 1914 following the outbreak of European hostilities large sections of Irish Protestants and Catholics rallied to support the British and Allied war efforts Yet less than two years later the Easter Rising of 1916 allegedly put a stop to the Catholic commitment in exchange for a re emphasis on the national question In Ireland and the Great War Niamh Gallagher draws upon a formidable array of original research to offer a radical new reading of Irish involvement in the world s first total war Exploring the home front and Irish diasporic communities in Canada Australia and Britain Gallagher reveals that substantial support for the Allied war effort continued largely unabated not only until November 1918 but afterwards as well Rich in social texture and with fascinating new case studies of Irish participation in the conflict this book has the makings of a major rethinking of Ireland s twentieth century

Revolutionary Times Mike Cronin,Mark Duncan,2024-11-14 Ireland during the period 1913 1923 was a nation in constant flux Spanning a pivotal era marked by the Dublin Lockout the Easter Rising the War of Independence and the birth of the Irish Free State Revolutionary Times captures the full complexity of this transformative decade through contemporary style reportage timelines of key events and insightful essays Emanating from the acclaimed RT project Century Ireland and distilling its essence into a captivating print form Revolutionary Times is meticulously researched yet accessibly written and beautifully presented Alongside the political upheaval the book also delves into the everyday realities of Irish life during this volatile chapter from sports and fashion to housing debates and extreme weather Offering a rich nuanced portrait of a nation on the brink of a new dawn this is a must read for anyone seeking to understand the tumultuous forces that shaped modern Ireland

Women and the Decade of Commemorations Oona Frawley,2021-01-26 When women are erased from history what are we left with Between 1912 and 1922 Ireland experienced sweeping social and political change including the Easter Rising World War I the Irish Civil War the fight for Irish women s suffrage the founding of the Abbey Theatre and the passage of the Home Rule Bill In preparation for the centennial of this epic decade the Irish government formed a group of experts to oversee the ways in which the country would remember this monumental time Unfortunately the group was formed with no attempt at gender balance Women and the Decade of Commemorations edited by Oona Frawley highlights not only the responsibilities of Irish women past and present but it also privileges women s scholarship in an attempt to redress what has been a long standing imbalance For example contributors note the role of the Waking the Feminists movement which was ignited when in 2016 the Abbey Theater released its male dominated centenary program They also discuss the importance of addressing missing history and curating memory to correct the historical record when it comes to remembering revolution Together the essays in Women and the Decade of Commemorations consider the impact of women's unseen unsung work which has been critically important in shaping Ireland a country that continues to struggle with honoring the full role of women today Unionists and Great War Commemoration in the North of Ireland 1914-1918 Catherine

Switzer,2007 The book is also relevant to the personal histories of many families in Northern Ireland The inclusion of several individual stories within the text not only provides human interest but also underlines the extent to which the story of commemoration is often a very personal one Historical Studies Neal Garnham,Keith Jeffery,2005 Vol 1 made up of papers read at 2d conference Trinity in War and Revolution 1912-1923 Tomás Irish,2015 A Walk Through Rebel Dublin,

1916 Mick O'Farrell,1999 A Walk Through Rebel Dublin 1916is a comprehensively illustrated guide to the Rising of Easter Week 1916 based on the significant locations of the rebellion Dealing separately with thirty buildings and sites throughout the city including the GPO Liberty Hall Trinity College the Four Courts and Dublin Castle the author provides a brief fascinating history of the events and personalities that dominated these locations during Easter Week A contemporary photograph of each location is juxtaposed with a photograph of the building or streetscape as it looks today While some dramatic changes have taken place in the architecture of Dublin over the course of the twentieth century there is much that has remained unaltered as these images will testify A Walk Through Rebel Dublin 1916 can be read and enjoyed without visiting the locations featured but the reader is encouraged to walk the streets of Dublin book in hand to get a vivid sense of some of the most dramatic episodes in Ireland's history The Americana ,1923 County Louth and the Irish Revolution Donal Hall,Maguire Martin,2017-04-10 County Louth and the Irish Revolution 1912 1923 explores the local activism of the IRA and how revolution was experienced by rural and urban labourers RIC men republican women cultural activists and Big House families Events were increasingly shaped for all these groups by the developing reality of partition transforming a marginal county into a borderland and creating a zone of new violence and banditry The expert contributors to the first ever local history of the county during this period bring to light a wealth of fascinating stories that will appeal to the general public and historians alike Critically these stories reveal new findings about the early military skirmishes in County Louth by republican figures such as Seán MacEntee and Frank Aiken the controversial sectarian massacre at Altnaveigh and how the Civil War made a fiery battlefield of Dundalk and Drogheda County Louth and the Irish Revolution 1912 1923 documents the complexity of the local experience as the national revolution merged with long established antagonisms and traditions the effects of which have shaped the county ever since The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record ,1924
