

The background of the slide is a photograph of several blue evil eye charms hanging from a tree branch. The charms are of various sizes and are strung with blue and gold threads. The central focus is a large, oval-shaped blue charm with a prominent white and light blue concentric circle design in the center, featuring a black dot. Other smaller charms are visible in the background, some hanging from the same branch and others from nearby. The text is overlaid on the lower left portion of the image.
