Voyage De Lexotisme Aux Non Lieux:

Ground Sea Hilde Van Gelder, 2021-09-15 Imagine a world in which each individual has a fundamental right to be reborn This idle dream haunts Hilde Van Gelder's associative travelogue that takes Allan Sekula's sequence Deep Six Passer au bleu 1996 1998 as a touchstone for a dialogue with more recent artworks zooming in on the borderscape near the Channel Tunnel such as those by Sylvain George and Bruno Serralongue Combining ethnography visual materials political philosophy cultural geography and critical analysis Ground Sea proceeds through an innovative methodological approach Inspired by the meandering writings of W G Sebald Javier Marías and Roland Barthes Van Gelder develops a style both interdisciplinary and personal Resolutely opting for an aquatic perspective Ground Sea offers a powerful meditation on the indifference of an increasingly divided European Union with regard to considerable numbers of persons on the move who find themselves stranded close to Calais The contested Strait of Dover becomes a microcosm where our present global challenges of migration climate change human rights and neoliberal surveillance technology converge Read more on the book's dedicated website www.groundsea.be

Flight Patterns Cornelia H. Butler, Weng Choy Lee, Francis Pound, Museum of Contemporary Art (Los Angeles, Calif.), 2000 Flight Patterns highlights contemporary artists primarily working in the Pacific Basin Southern California Canada New Zealand and Australia whose work addresses the specific topographical conditions and experience of living in this geographically and geopolitically dynamic region As its conceptual foundation Flight Patterns rethinks topographical practices of photography since the 1970s looking at current manifestations of the topographical impulse in landscape oriented work The exhibition and its accompanying catalogue include new projects recent work from the 1990s and historically significant works of photography film video and painting by 23 artists including Doug Aitken Rodney Graham Anthony Hernandez Tracey Moffatt Paul Outerbridge Allan Sekula Miles Coolidge and Simon Leung Flight

Patterns introduces the work of West Coast American artists as well as those artists working in regions where there is a parallel history of landscapes and their representation and where similar postcolonial issues are at stake A landmark artistic social and geographical document Flight Patterns highlights a diversity of artistic approaches both formalist and conceptual to one of the most fascinating and complex areas of the planet

Dismal Science Allan Sekula, 1999 On the surface our society looks much different than it did when Allan Sekula began writing criticism and making photographic works In the late 1960s and early 1970s there was an identifiable counterculture struggling for example to end the war in Vietnam By contrast today's social fabric seems both less tattered and more opaque We can no longer identify a specific enemy as a tangible force that can be grasped or pictured and perhaps it is even harder now to recognize our own complicity

L'exotisme Louis Cario, Charles Régismanset, 1911

Travel in Twentieth-Century French and Francophone Cultures Charles Forsdick, 2005-05-19 This book is one of the first studies of twentieth century travel literature in French tracking the form from the colonial past to the postcolonial present Whereas most recent explorations of travel literature have addressed English language material Forsdick's study complements these by presenting a body of material that has previously attracted little attention ranging from conventional travel writing to other cultural phenomena such as the Colonial Exposition of 1931 in which changing attitudes to travel are apparent Travel in Twentieth Century French and Francophone Cultures explores the evolution of attitudes to cultural diversity explaining how each generation seems simultaneously to foretell the collapse and reinvention of elsewhere It also follows the progressive renegotiation of understandings of travel and travel literature across the twentieth century focusing in particular on the emergence of travel narratives from France's former colonies The book suggests that an exclusive colonial understanding of travel as a practice defined along the lines of class gender and ethnicity has slowly been transformed so that travel has become an enabling figure encapsulated in notions such as James Clifford's traveling cultures central to analyses of contemporary global culture Engaging initially with Victor Segalen's early twentieth century reflection on travel and exoticism and Albert Kahn's Archives de la Plan te Forsdick goes on to examine a series of interrelated texts and phenomena early African travel narratives inter war ethnography post war accounts of Citro n 2CV journeys the travel stories of immigrant workers the work of Nicholas Bouvier and the Pour une litt rature voyageuse movement narratives of recent walking journeys and contemporary Polynesian literature In delineating a francophone space stretching far beyond metropolitan France itself the book contributes to new understandings of French and Francophone Studies and will also be of interest to those interested in issues of comparatism as well as colonial and postcolonial culture and identity
