moments Many of the city's most illustrious sports tales are long forgotten chapters of tribulations and tragedy of fleeting fame and enduring milestones There are forgotten firsts such as football's first pass and the invention of baseball's slider having ties to Cleveland There are overshadowed tragedies like a fatal crash involving an Indians pitcher occurring the same year two of the team's hurlers were killed in a high profile boating accident And then there are the near misses like George Steinbrenner coming within seconds of owning the Indians and a famous musician who almost became a Cleveland Brown From basketball to boxing hockey to Heisman journalist Marc Bona chronicles more than a century of unremembered tales
