England is among the UK's most dramatic and unspoilt regions boasting long sandy beaches upland moors and forests. Its history is rich too with Celtic, Viking and Roman sites in this battleground for successive border wars between the English and Scots. Majestic castles such as Bamburgh stand guard along its windswept coastline while Holy Island's Lindisfarne Castle once provided a haven to Christianity's earliest missionaries and Alnwick Castle served as Hogwarts School in two Harry Potter films. Today the region is becoming increasingly popular for cyclists, particularly off-road mountain biking, but is still a sleeping giant for its potential. Collectively totalling 355 miles, rides range from 9.26 miles and are typically suitable for half-day outings. Most are aimed at beginners and leisure cyclists with several longer or more adventurous routes including mountain bike trails for those craving greater challenge. Many are loop circuits making travel hassle-free. Several follow established cycle routes including the Cathedrals Cycle Route, Coast Castles, Hadrian's Cycleway which broadly follows Hadrian's Wall and Pennine Cycleway and can be linked for longer excursions. So whether you fancy exploring Northumberland National Park via six loop routes, bouncing around roller coaster tracks in Kielder Forest, freewheeling from Antony Gormley's Angel of the North statue to Newcastle's rejuvenated riverfront or enjoying wildlife by bike, Northumbria is a superb cycling destination with something for everyone, making Bradt's Cycling in Northumbria brim with inspiration for cyclists of all ages and energy levels.

He's learning how to rule the Scott family territory hanging out more with his shapeshifting friend Suzume Hollis and has actually found a decent roommate for once. Until he finds his roommate's dead body. The Scott family cover-up machine swings into gear but Fort is the only person trying to figure out who or what actually killed his friend.
