Excerpt: WITH CHRIST 5n tffe Srijool of DEGREEs rager Thirty first Lesson Pray without ceasing Or A Life of Prayer Rejoice evermore Pray without ceasing In everything givt thanka 1 Thess T 16 17 18 OUR Lord spake the parable of the widow and the unjust judge to teach us that men ought to pray always and not faint As the widow persevered in seeking one definite thing the parable appears to have reference to persevering prayer for some one blessing when God delays or appears to refuse The words in the Epistles which speak of continuing instant in prayer continuing in prayer and watching in the same of praying always in the Spirit appear more to refer to the whole life being one of prayer As the soul is filling with the longing for the manifestation of God's glory to us and in us through us and around us and with the confidence that He hears the prayers of His children the inmost life of the soul is continually rising upward in dependence and faith in longing desire and trustful expectation At the close of our meditations it will not be difficult to say what is needed to live such a life of prayer The first thing is undoubtedly the entire sacrifice of the life to God's kingdom and glory He who seeks to pray without ceasing because he wants to be very pious and good will never attain to it It is the forgetting of self and yielding ourselves to live for God and His honour that enlarges the heart that teaches us to regard everything in the light of God and His will and that instinctively recognises in everything around us the need of God's help and blessing an opportunity for His being glorified Because everything is weighed and tested by the one thing that fills the heart the glory of God and because the soul With Christ in the School of Prayer Andrew Murray, 2018-04-19 Excerpt from With Christ in the School of Prayer Thoughts on Our Training for the Ministry of Intercession And of all the traits of a life like Christ there is none higher and more glorious than conformity to Him in the work that now engages Him without ceasing in the Father's presence His all-prevailing intercession The more we abide in Him and grow unto His likeness will His priestly life work in us mightily and our life become what His is a life that ever pleads and prevails for men Thou hast made us kings and priests unto God Both in the king and the priest the chief thing is power in unceasing blessing In the king it is the power coming downward in the priest the power rising upward prevailing with God In our blessed Priest King Jesus Christ the kingly power is founded on the priestly He is able to save to the uttermost because He ever liveth to make intercession In us About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work. They had learnt to understand something of the connection between His wondrous life in public and His secret life of prayer They had learnt to believe in Him as a Master in the art of prayer none could pray like Him And so they came to Him with the request Lord teach us to pray And in after years they would have told us that there were few things more wonderful or blessed that He taught them than His lessons on prayer And now still it comes to pass as He is praying in a certain place that disciples who see Him thus engaged feel the need of repeating the same request Lord teach us to pray As we grow in the Christian life the thought and the faith of the Beloved Master in His never failing intercession becomes ever more precious and the hope of being Like Christ in His intercession gains an attractiveness before unknown And as we see Him pray and remember that there is none who can pray like Him and none who can teach like Him we feel the petition of the disciples Lord teach us to pray is just what we need And as we think how all He is and has how He Himself is our very own how He is Himself our life we feel assured that we have but to ask and He will be delighted to take us up into closer fellowship with Himself and teach us to pray even as He prays
