Women In Leadership And Work Family Integration:

Women in Leadership and Work-Family Integration Volume Two Kerri Cissna-Heath, Margaret J. Weber, 2016-08-17

Today women are assuming greater roles within the workplace and men are assuming greater roles within the home Both spheres have to be seen as a place where males and females are competent Gersick suggests that women have to let go of the traditional identities related to social role family and work Both men and women have to step into new identities and develop new roles Will the home look different and the workplace be a different environment Absolutely men will do their work in their way within the family and home while women will clarify their identity within the workplace Helgessen and Johnson 2010 describe the female vision which views the world differently than men Women also bring a unique perspective to the workplace This book encourages us to explore embrace and celebrate these new identities within the workplace and the family

Women in Leadership and Work-Family Integration Margaret J. Weber, 2015-09-18 The majority of university students in the US and around the world are women Economist 2006 This recent increase in the education of women has allowed their employment rate to inflate leading to an influx of issues surrounding the work life balance The era surrounding World War II led to an amplified presence of women seeking opportunities for a career which in turn led to tensions at home and in the workplace as women try to balance the roles of family with a career Many women have joined men in the provider role and the dual earner family has now become the norm Gornick and Myers 2003 Traditional roles have shifted as women and men are both parents and workers The picture of the career woman and mother is divided and multi faceted in existing research findings and opinions Commonly assessed issues include the social implications of the dual roles of females cultural norms workplace policies with attention to female specific hurdles and marital satisfaction in gender roles Various research studies suggest that marital relationships have become more egalitarian Bielenski and Wagner 2004 while others find that a large number of well educated women have left careers for full time motherhood Belkin 2003 Warner 2005 In 2009 a research group was formed at Pepperdine University s Graduate School of Education and Psychology to explore the competing narratives of women s lives as they balance their work activities with the demands of marriage and motherhood The ultimate goal of this project was to understand the work life balance issues of women in the workforce This work is now known as the Digital Women s Project Weber 2011 and has collected over 400 interviews of women to explore themes around work life balance This phenomenological analysis utilizes a narrative life course framework created by Giele 2008 to explore identity relational style drive and motivation and adaptive style in order to understand the work life balance of women

Women in Leadership and Work Family Integration brings together the findings of this research group
