Black Lives and Digi-Culturalism Kehbama Langmia, 2021-06-14 Black Lives and Digi Culturalism An Afrocentric Perspective uses several lenses to examine the role of African Americans and Africans in the production and consumption of information in digital spaces. This book explores topics such as Black confluence of digital and in person spaces, cyberculture and Black identity, cyberfeminists and Black gendered voices, digi culture and racism, capitalism and digital colonization, digital activism and politics, minorities and artificial intelligence among other topics. Scholars of African and Black Diaspora studies, digital media culture and communication will find this book particularly interesting.

AfroSwedish Places of Belonging Nana Osei-Kofi, 2024-06-15 This is a work of cultural studies rooted in critical feminist thought that grapples with AfroSwedishness in relation to processes and experiences of racialization, imagination of self and notions of belonging, agency and kinship. Nana Osei Kofi focuses on the function of diverse forms of critical cultural expressions, paying particular attention to their liberatory public pedagogical potential. Drawing from biographical narratives, documentary film, digital Black feminism and queer organizing, Osei Kofi offers insights into the embodied affective and experiential processes through which the formation of an emergent AfroSwedish coalitional identity is made possible Through self reflexive structural and community based forms of exploration that resist binary oppositions AfroSwedish Places of Belonging asks what the nomenclature of AfroSwede AfroSwedish and AfroSwedishness brings into being what it makes possible and what this means for Swedish society from both a historical and a contemporary perspective This work brings together two identity categories that have historically been constructed as not only mutually exclusive but oppositional to detail the emergence of AfroSwedishness as a counterhegemonic and coalitional act AfroSwedishness Osei Kofi argues must be understood as a coalitional identity one made legible through kinship based community
