Women's Activism and Globalization Nancy A. Naples, Manisha Desai, 2004-04-16 Women's Activism and Globalization is a broad and comprehensive collection that shows how women activists across the globe are responding to the forces of the new world order in their communities. The first person accounts and regional case studies provide a truly global view of women working in their communities for change. The essays examine women in urban, rural, and suburban locations around the world to provide a rich understanding of the common themes as well as significant divergences among women activists in different parts of the world.

Gender Inequality in Our Changing World Lori Kenschaft, Roger Clark, Desiree Ciambrone, 2015-07-24. Gender Inequality in Our Changing World: A Comparative Approach focuses on the contemporary United States but places it in historical and global context. Written for sociology of gender courses, this textbook identifies conditions that encourage greater or lesser gender inequality, explains how gender and gender inequality change over time, and explores how gender intersects with other hierarchies, especially those related to race social class and sexual identity The authors integrate historical and international materials as they help students think both theoretically and empirically about the causes and consequences of gender inequality both in their own lives and in the lives of others worldwide The Oxford Handbook of Feminist Theory Lisa Disch, Mary Hawkesworth, 2018-02-01 The Oxford Handbook of Feminist Theory provides a rich overview of the analytical frameworks and theoretical concepts that feminist theorists have developed to analyze the known world Featuring leading feminist theorists from diverse regions of the globe this collection delves into forty nine subject areas demonstrating the complexity of feminist challenges to established knowledge while also engaging areas of contestation within feminist theory Demonstrating the interdisciplinary nature of feminist theory the chapters offer innovative analyses of topics central to social and political science cultural studies and humanities discourses associated with medicine and science and issues in contemporary critical theory that have been transformed through feminist theorization The handbook identifies limitations of key epistemic assumptions that inform traditional scholarship and shows how theorizing from women s and men s lives has profound effects on the conceptualization of central categories whether the field of analysis is aesthetics biology cultural studies development economics film studies health history literature politics religion science studies sexualities violence or war The Space of the Transnational Shirin E. Edwin, 2021-12-01 This book examines Muslim women s creative strategies of deploying religious concepts such as ummah or community to solve problems of domestic and communal violence polygamous abuse sterility and heteronormativity By closely reading and examining examples of ummah building strategies in interfaith dialogues exchanges and encounters between Muslim and non Muslim women in a selection of African and Southeast Asian fictions and essays this book highlights women s assertive activisms to redefine transnationalism understood as relationships across national boundaries as transgeography Ummah building strategies shift the space of or respatialize transnational relationships focusing on connections between communities groups and affiliations within the same nation Such a respatialization also enables a more equitable and inclusive remediation of the citizenship of gendered and religious citizens to the nation state and the transnational sphere of relationships The Many Lives of Transnational Law Peer Zumbansen, 2020-04-02 Sixty years after Jessup s Transnational Law Lectures this collection traces the field s development and significance to the present day Gender and Crisis in Global Politics Laura Sjoberg, 2018-02-02 The global political arena is again in a time of crisis Different sources pay attention to different crises the Global Financial Crisis the Debt Crisis the Crisis of ISIL Daesh in Iraq and Syria the Crisis of Israel and Palestine and the Iran Nuclear Crisis have gotten significant attention in media coverage of global politics But those are not the only crises that scholars and practitioners discuss Environmentalists warn of ecological crisis health scholars warn of disease crises cyber security experts suggest a coming information crisis and migration experts warn of population crises Feminist work on global politics has addressed many of these crises historical and contemporary in crisis language and without it as well as a number of the non crises that looking for women and gender in the international arena draws into focus That work however had generally not explicitly theorized the conceptualization of crisis its gendered dimensions and or gender based crises as such Across this book feminist conversations about crisis in global politics suggests that a single feminist approach to definition of or politics of crisis is impossible to find That same variety of work though makes a strong case that paying attention to crises in the world and to the manufacture of crisis rhetoric alongside events in global politics is not only generally important but an important place for feminist scholarship feminist political activism and direct attention This book was previously published as a special issue of the International Feminist Journal of Politics
