Woodside Pear Tree Grove Po:

Woodside, Pear Tree Grove P.O. Erna Brodber, 2004 Clear Word and Third Sight examines the strands of a collective African diasporic consciousness represented in the work of a number of Black Caribbean writers Catherine A John shows how a shared consciousness or third sight is rooted in both pre and postcolonial cultural practices and disseminated through a rich oral tradition This consciousness has served diasporic communities by creating an alternate philosophical worldsense linking those of African descent across space and time Contesting popular discourses about what constitutes culture and maintaining that neglected strains in negritude discourse provide a crucial philosophical perspective on the connections between folk practices cultural memory and collective consciousness John examines the diasporic principles in the work of the negritude writers Leon Damas Aime Cesaire and Leopold Senghor She traces the manifestations and reworkings of their ideas in Afro Caribbean writing from the eastern and French Caribbean as well as the Caribbean diaspora in the United States The authors she discusses include Jamaica Kincaid Earl Lovelace Simone Schwarz Bart Audre Lorde Paule Marshall and Edouard Glissant amon Woodside, Pear Tree Grove PO. Erna Brodber, 2004 Annotation The author provides a lucid and literary social history of the village of Woodside in St Mary Jamaica from slavery to 1944 The work is beautifully and sensitively informed by a variety of official sources community meetings and oral histories The range of the sources interpreted deftly makes this a path breaking book in the social history of Jamaica Brodber s work is a pioneering contribution to the study of the ordinary people of Jamaica and can be used to stimulate and inform community development The book will appeal to historians and anthropologists Africans of the diaspora and general readers Erna Brodber and Velma Pollard Violet Harrington Bryan, 2021-11-15 Erna Brodber and Velma Pollard two sister writers born and raised in Jamaica re create imagined and lived homelands in their literature by commemorating the history culture and religion of the Caribbean Velma Pollard was born in St Catherine Jamaica By the time she was three her parents had moved to Woodside St Mary in northeast Jamaica where her sister Erna was born Even though they both travel widely and often the sisters both still live in Jamaica The sisters write about their homeland as a series of memories and stories in their many works of fiction nonfiction and poetry They center on their home village of Woodside in St Mary Parish Jamaica occasionally moving the settings of their fiction and poetry to other regions of Jamaica and various Caribbean islands as well as other parts of the diaspora in the United States Canada and England The role of women in the patriarchal society of Jamaica and much of the Caribbean is also a subject of the sisters writing Growing up in what Brodber calls the kumbla the protective but restrictive environment of many women in the Anglo Caribbean is an important theme in their fiction In her fiction Pollard discusses the gender gaps in employment and the demands of marriage and the special contributions of women to family and community Many scholars have also explored the significance of spirit in Brodber s work including the topics of spirit theft spirit possession and spirits existing through time from Africa to the present Brodber s narratives also show communication between the living and the dead from Jane and Louisa 1980 to Nothing's Mat 2014 Yet few scholars have examined Brodber's work on par with her sister's writing Drawing upon interviews with the authors this is the first book to give Brodber and Pollard their due and study the sisters' important contributions The Routledge Companion to Anglophone Caribbean Literature Michael A. Bucknor, Alison Donnell, 2011-06-14 This Companion is divided into six sections that provide an introduction to and critical history of the field discussions of key texts and a critical debate on major topics such as the nation race gender and migration In the final section contributors examine the material dissemination of Caribbean literature and point towards the new directions that Caribbean literature and criticism are taking Dreams of Archives Unfolded Jocelyn Fenton Stitt, 2021-06-18 The first book on pan Caribbean life writing Dreams of Archives Unfolded reveals the innovative formal practices used to write about historical absences within contemporary personal narratives Although the premier genres of writing postcoloniality in the Caribbean have been understood to be fiction and poetry established figures such as Erna Brodber Maryse Condé Lorna Goodison Edwidge Danticat Saidiya Hartmann Ruth Behar and Dionne Brand and emerging writers such as Yvonne Shorter Brown and Gaiutra Bahadur use life writing to question the relationship between the past and the present Stitt theorizes that the remarkable flowering of life writing by Caribbean women since 2000 is not an imitation of the memoir boom in North America and Europe instead it marks a different use of the genre born out of encountering gendered absences in archives and ancestral memory that cannot be filled with more research Dreams of Archives makes a significant contribution to studies of Caribbean literature by demonstrating that women's autobiographical narratives published in the past twenty years are feminist epistemological projects that rework Caribbean studies longstanding commitment to creating counter archives The Handbook of Jamaica for ..., 1924 Encyclopedia of the African Diaspora Carole Boyce Davies, 2008-07-29 The authoritative source for information on the people places and events of the African Diaspora spanning five continents and five centuries The field of African Diaspora studies is rapidly growing Until now there was no single authoritative source for information on this broad complex discipline Drawing on the work of over 300 scholars this encyclopedia fills that void Now the researcher from high school level up can go to a single reference for information on the historical political economic and cultural relations between people of African descent and the rest of the world community Five hundred years of relocation and dislocation of assimilation and separation have produced a rich tapestry of history and culture into which are woven people places and events This authoritative accessible work picks out the strands of the tapestry telling the story of diverse peoples separated by time and distance but retaining a commonality of origin and experience Organized in A-Z sections covering global topics country of origin and destination country the work is designed for easy use by all Immaterial Archives Jenny Sharpe, 2020-03-15 In this innovative study Jenny Sharpe moves beyond the idea of art and literature as an alternative archive to the historical records of slavery and its aftermath Immaterial Archives explores instead the intangible phenomena of affects spirits and dreams that Caribbean artists and writers introduce into existing archives Through the works of Frantz Z phirin Edouard Duval Carri M NourbeSe Philip Erna Brodber and Kamau Brathwaite Immaterial Archives examines silences as black female spaces Afro Creole sacred worlds as diasporic cartographies and the imaginative conjoining of spirits with industrial technologies as disruptions of enlightened modernity
