Collaboration is king

The biggest new feature in Word 2016 is that it lets people perform real-time collaboration and work on documents together from anywhere in the world with an Internet connection. This is a feature that Google Docs has long had, and Word users should be pleased to see it in Word 2016. There's only one requirement: the document must be stored in OneDrive, OneDrive for Business, or SharePoint Online.

Preston Gralla

To collaborate on a document, first open it, then click the Share icon in the upper-right part of the screen. That opens the Share pane on the right-hand side of the screen, which is command central for collaboration. At the top of the pane, type in the addresses of people with whom you want to collaborate on the document. As you type, Word looks through the addresses in Windows Mail. (If
