Totem Pole Carving Vickie Jensen, 2004 The totem pole in all its power and beauty is a distinctive and widely recognized form of traditional Northwest Coast Native art Once nearly lost this art form is alive and thriving today In this unique book Vickie Jensen collaborates with renowned Nisga a artist Norman Tait and his crew of young carvers to document the actual process of bringing a log to life The intimate text and 125 photographs capture the charged atmosphere in which the pole is carved the smell of fresh cedar chips the long days and blistered hands the camaraderie the pride in solving problems the ever present awareness of tradition the joy of creation Norman Tait teaches his apprentices that carving a pole requires more than time and labor more than artistic and emotional commitment more than a grasp of tools and techniques The process involves their cultural background and very being The apprentices must make their own carving tools design their regalia and practice traditional songs dances and drumming All these experiences culminate in the traditional ceremonies to celebrate the raising of the completed totem pole This book was originally published in hardcover as Where the People Gather Carving a Totem Pole A Broken Flute Doris Seale, Beverly Slapin, 2006-12-21 The Winona dilemma Lois Beardslee No word for goodbye Mary TallMountain About the contributors Log Home Design , 2002-02 Log Home Design is the preferred trusted partner with readers in simplifying the process of becoming a log home owner With its exclusive focus on planning and design the magazine s friendly tone practical content and targeted advertising provide the essential tools consumers need from the crucial preliminary stages through the finishing touches of their dream log home Native North American Art Janet Catherine Berlo, Ruth Bliss Phillips, 2015 This lively introductory survey of indigenous North American arts from ancient times to the present explores both the shared themes and imagery found across the continent and the distinctive traditions of each region Focusing on the richness of artwork created in the US and Canada Native North American Art Second Edition discusses 3 000 years of architecture wood and rock carvings basketry dance masks clothing and more The expanded text discusses twentieth and twenty first century arts in all media including works by James Luna Kent Monkman Nadia Myre Jaune Quick to See Smith Will Wilson and many more Authors Berlo and Phillips incorporate new research and scholarship examining such issues as art and ethics gender representation and the colonial encounter By bringing into one conversation the seemingly separate realms of the sacred and the secular the political and the domestic and the ceremonial and the commercial Native North American Art shows how visual arts not only maintain the integrity of spiritual and social systems within Native North American societies but have long been part of a cross cultural experience as well *Do All Indians Live in Tipis? The Cultural Value of Trees Jeffrey Wall, 2022-06-01 This volume focuses on the tree as a cultural and biological form and examines the concept of folk value and its implications for biocultural conservation Folk value refers to the value of the more than human living world to cultural cohesion and survival as opposed to individual well being This field of value comprising cosmological aesthetic eco erotic sentimental mnemonic value and much more serves as powerful motivation for the local performance of environmental care The motivation to maintain and conserve ecology for the purpose of cultural survival will be the central focus of this book as the conditions of the Anthropocene urgently require the identification understanding and support of enduring self perpetuating biocultural associations The geographical scope is broad with chapters discussing different tree species from the Americas and the Caribbean East Asia Eurasia and Australia and Africa By focusing on the tree one of the most reliably cross culturally valued and cross culturally recognized biological forms and one which invariably defines expansive landscapes this work illuminates how folk value binds the survival of more than human life forms with the survival of specific peoples in the era of biocultural loss the Anthropocene As such this collection of cross cultural cases of tree folk value represents a low hanging fruit for the larger project of exploring the power of cultural value of the more than human living world This book will be of great interest to students and scholars of conservation biodiversity biocultural studies and environmental anthropology Gathering of Cans Robert L. Saunders,2006-11-09 In this moving story the reader will sense an air of greedy anticipation as it reveals particular aluminum cans that 56 year old Zoie Baker gathers along the rural roads to raise the money to build a swimming pool for the children of her community During this quest the reader will find a story connected to special cans a gold Budweiser can a green Mountain Dew can a Santa Claus Coca Cola can and a NEHI can With each special can the reader will be going on another special journey with Zoie from the romantic but turbulent time of World War II through the tumultuous decade of the 1960 s and ending with Zoie gathering cans during the 1980 s There is magic not just because of the wondrous characters but also the friendships formed and the joys and the sorrows realized by each unique character Everygirl's Magazine ...
