Tourism Pat 2014 Phase 2 Grade 11:

Science Fiction, Disruption and Tourism Ian Yeoman, Una McMahon-Beattie, Marianna Sigala, 2021-12-20 This book examines science fiction's theoretical and ontological backgrounds and how science fiction applies to the future of tourism. It recreates and invents the future of tourism in a creative and disruptive manner, reconceptualising tourism through alternative and quantum leap thinking that go beyond the normative or accepted view of tourism. The chapters focusing on areas such as disruption, sustainability and technology draw readers into the unknown future of tourism, a future that may be disruptive, dystopian or utopian. The book brings a new theoretical paradigm to the study of tourism in a post COVID 19 world and can be used to explore, frame and even form the future of tourism. It will capture the imagination and inspire readers to address tourism's challenges of tomorrow.

Walking the Way Together Kathleen E. This ethnography illustrates contemporary pilgrimage as a method of individual and relational change, the potential for shared pilgrimage to build a social consciousness and the impact of digital technologies on these efforts.

Performing New Orleans Stuart Andrews, Patrick Duggan, 2025-08-20 Performing New Orleans examines the value of arts and culture in managing complex urban challenges, offering new perspectives on how artistic and everyday performances can be pivotal modes of practicing resilience. Through an exploration of understudied forms of performance in New Orleans, Stuart Andrews and Patrick Duggan highlight the centrality of the city's arts ecosystems as a vital aspect of its ability to perform resiliency. Performing New Orleans resists conventional definitions of arts practice; instead, it uses a diverse array of case studies to illustrate what arts practices are, what they do, and how they can enhance our understanding of people, place and resilience. The case studies in this volume range from playing in the streets to painting murals, from tourist flourishes to the performative effect of infrastructure projects, from the design and leadership of arts centers to the unfolding of festivals, theater performances, art installations, and even public health messaging. The authors also review, critique and rethink resilience theory and the often problematic idea of being resilient. Andrews and Duggan bring together ideas from art and architecture, cultural geography, hazard mitigation, resilience theory, sustainability, theater and water management to explore performances of the city to radically expand our understanding of urban adaptability Performing New Orleans argues that a truly resilient city is one that recognizes arts and culture professionals as crucial critical innovators Brand Antarctica Hanne Elliot Fønss Nielsen,2023-12 Antarctica is and has always been very much for sale Whales seals and ice have all been marketed as valuable commodities but so have the stories of explorers The modern media industry developed in parallel with land based Antarctic exploration and early expedition leaders needed publicity to generate support for their endeavors Their lectures narratives photographs and films were essentially advertisements for their adventures At the same time popular media began to use the newly encountered continent to draw attention to commercial products These advertisements both trace the commercialization of Antarctica and reveal how commercial settings have shaped the dominant imaginaries of the place By contextualizing and analyzing Antarctic advertisements from the late nineteenth century to the present Brand Antarctica identifies five key framings of the South Polar continent a place for heroes a place of extremity a place of purity a place to protect and a place that transforms Demonstrating how these conceptual framings of Antarctica in turn circulate through our culture Hanne Elliot Fønss Nielsen challenges common assumptions about Antarctica's past and present encouraging readers to rethink their own relationship with the Far South Thinking Heritage Through China Andrew Scott Johnston,2024-12-30 Thinking Heritage Through China explores major themes in international heritage through the lens of heritage practice in China China is a dynamic proving ground of heritage practice where international ideas are debated fought over and realized in many forms within the context of complex economic political and reputational forces Preservation in China engages with many of the central themes of international heritage practice shedding new light on considerations of authenticity and intangible heritage politics and nationalism and tourism and development These forces lie at the heart of contemporary heritage practice not only in China but also all over the world Written by an architectural historian architect and heritage professional with experience in China this book uses an architecturally and spatially focused analysis bridging critical heritage studies and the study of the built environment as shaped through heritage practice exploring a wide range of contemporary heritage themes for a broad audience including China scholars This book will be of interest to scholars practitioners and both undergraduate and post graduate students interested in contemporary international heritage practice heritage studies theory and methods of heritage comparative heritage practice and heritage practice in China and Asia

Animating the Victorians Patrick C. Fleming,2025-02-17 Many Disney films adapt works from the Victorian period which is often called the Golden Age of children's literature Animating the Victorians Disney's Literary History explores Disney's adaptations of Victorian texts like Alice in Wonderland Oliver Twist Treasure Island Peter Pan and the tales of Hans Christian Andersen Author Patrick C Fleming traces those adaptations from initial concept to theatrical release and beyond to the sequels consumer products and theme park attractions that make up a Disney franchise During the production process which often extended over decades Disney's writers engaged not just with the texts themselves but with the contexts in which they were written their authors biographies and intervening adaptations To reveal that process Fleming draws on preproduction reports press releases and unfinished drafts including materials in the Walt Disney Company Archives some of which have not yet been discussed in print But the relationship between Disney and the Victorians goes beyond adaptations Walt Disney himself had a similar career to the Victorian author entrepreneur Charles Dickens Linking the Disney Princess franchise to Victorian ideologies shows how gender and sexuality are constantly being renegotiated Disney s animated musicals theme parks copyright practices and even marketing campaigns depend on cultural assumptions legal frameworks and media technologies that emerged in nineteenth century England Moreover Disney s adaptations influence modern students and scholars of the Victorian period By applying scholarship in Victorian studies to a global company Fleming shows how institutions mediate our understanding of the past and demonstrates the continued relevance of literary studies in a corporate media age
