Tourism And Sustainability New Tourism In The Third World:

Tourism and Sustainability Martin Mowforth, Ian Munt, 2003 Drawing on a wealth of examples this work traces the inception of sustainability within environmentalism and its extension into the realism of socio cultural and economic thinking policy and practice This second edition has been extensively updated to firmly re situate it in the development literature There are also major new sections on Third world development and tourism the emergence of pro poor tourism the UN International Year for Ecotourism and a new case study on a small scale ecotourism program in Nicaragua Tourism and Sustainability Martin Mowforth, Ian Munt, 1998 Introduces students to the key concepts and challenges in this topical area by exploring and challenging the notion of sustainability and its relationship to contemporary tourism in the developing world

Tourism and Sustainability Marti Mowforth, 2008 Tourism and Sustainability Martin Mowforth, Ian Munt, 2015-12-22 By January 2015 the world s richest 80 people had as much wealth as the poorest 50 per cent of the world s population It is a global unevenness through which the barriers to in migration of Third World migrants to wealthy First World nations go ever higher while the barriers to travel in the reverse direction are all but extinct So how exactly does tourism contribute to narrowing this glaring inequality between the rich and poor Are ever expanding tourism markets a smoke free socioculturally sensitive form of human industrialisation Is alternative tourism really a credible lever for reducing global inequality and eliminating poverty Tourism and Sustainability critically explores the most significant universal geopolitical norms of the last half century development globalisation and sustainability and through the lens of new forms of tourism demonstrates how we can better get to grips with the rapidly changing new global order The fourth edition has been extensively revised and updated and benefits from the addition of new material on climate change and tourism Drawing on a range of examples from across the Third World Mowforth and Munt expertly illustrate the social economic and environmental conditions that continue to affect the tourism industry With the first edition hailed by Geoffrey Wall as one of the most significant books produced on tourism since the turn of the millennium Tourism and Sustainability remains the essential resource for students of human geography environmental sciences and studies politics development studies anthropology and business studies as well as tourism itself Tourism and Sustainability: New Tourism in the Third World M.

Mowforth, 2007 Tourism and Responsibility Martin Mowforth, Clive Charlton, Ian Munt, 2008 This book discusses the responsibility or otherwise of tourism activities in Latin America and the Caribbean It considers issues such as the reduction of poverty through tourism and the conflict between increasing volumes of air travel spent in our continuing search for pleasure and the resulting contribution to global warming The authors believe that tourism can only be adequately assessed through a consideration of how it fits into the structure of power It is also argued that tourism cannot be analyzed without a consideration of its impacts on and links with development This relationship between tourism responsibility power and development is explored in chapters covering both the macro and the micro level of responsibility The authors look at methods of practising tourism responsibly or irresponsibly at the personal company national and international levels The questions and dilemmas of placing responsibility in the tourism industry are examined throughout Widely illustrating all these themes and issues with examples and case studies from throughout the sub continent this book will be of importance to students and academics and to the work of practitioners of development and tourism related projects run by both governmental and non governmental aid and development agencies

The SAGE Handbook of Tourism Studies Tazim Jamal, Mike Robinson, 2009-07-01 The strongest overview I have encountered of the scope and the current state of research across all the fields involved in advancing our understanding of tourism For its range of topics depth of analyses and distinction of its contributors nothing is comparable Professor Dean MacCannell University of California Davis The breadth of vision and sweep of accounts is remarkable and range of topics laudable a rare combination of the authoritative the challenging and stimulating Professor Mike Crang Durham University Tourism studies developed as a sub branch of older disciplines in the social sciences such as anthropology sociology and economics and newer applied fields of study in hospitality management civil rights and transport studies This Handbook is a sign of the maturity of the field It provides an essential resource for teachers and students to determine the roots key issues and agenda of tourism studies exploring The evolution and position of tourism studies The relationship of tourism to culture The ecology and economics of tourism Special events and destination management Methodologies of study Tourism and transport Tourism and heritage Tourism and postcolonialism Global tourist business operations Ranging from local to global issues and from questions of management to the ethical dilemmas of tourism this is a comprehensive critically informed constructively organized overview of the field It draws together an inter disciplinary group of contributors who are among the most celebrated names in the field and will be quickly recognized as a landmark in the new and expanding field of tourism studies
