Used And Rare Travels In The Book World:

Used and Rare Lawrence Goldstone, Nancy Goldstone, 2010-04-01 Journey into the world of book collecting with the Goldstones rediscover the joy of reading laugh and fall in love with books all over again The idea that books had stories associated with them that had nothing to do with the stories inside them was new to us We had always valued the history the world of ideas contained between the covers of a book or as in the case of The Night Visitor some special personal significance Now for the first time we began to appreciate that there was a history and a world of ideas embodied by the books themselves Part travel story part love story and part memoir Lawrence and Nancy Goldstone's Used and Rare provides a delightful love letter to book lovers everywhere Selling Used Books Online Stephen Windwalker, 2002

Birdmen Lawrence Goldstone, 2015-04-21 From acclaimed historian Lawrence Goldstone comes a thrilling narrative of courage determination and competition the story of the intense rivalry that fueled the rise of American aviation The feud between this nation's great air pioneers the Wright brothers and Glenn Curtiss was a collision of unyielding and profoundly American personalities On one side a pair of tenacious siblings who together had solved the centuries old riddle of powered heavier than air flight On the other an audacious motorcycle racer whose innovative aircraft became synonymous in the public mind with death defying stunts For more than a decade they battled each other in court at air shows and in the newspapers The outcome of this contest of wills would shape the course of aviation history and take a fearsome toll on the men involved Birdmen sets the engrossing story of the Wrights war with Curtiss against the thrilling backdrop of the early years of manned flight and is rich with period detail and larger than life personalities Thomas Scott Baldwin or Cap t Tom as he styled himself who invented the parachute and almost convinced the world that balloons were the future of aviation John Moisant the dapper daredevil who took to the skies after three failed attempts to overthrow the government of El Salvador

then quickly emerged as a celebrity flyer and Harriet Quimby the statuesque silent film beauty who became the first woman to fly across the English Channel And then there is Lincoln Beachey perhaps the greatest aviator who ever lived who dazzled crowds with an array of trademark twists and dives and best embodied the romance with death that fueled so many of aviation s earliest heroes A dramatic story of unimaginable bravery in the air and brutal competition on the ground Birdmen is at once a thrill ride through flight s wild early years and a surprising look at the personal clash that fueled America s race to the skies Praise for Birdmen A meticulously researched account of the first few hectic tangled years of aviation and the curious characters who pursued it a worthy companion to Richard Holmes s marvelous history of ballooning Falling Upwards Time The daredevil scientists and engineers who forged the field of aeronautics spring vividly to life in Lawrence Goldstone s history Nature The history of the development of an integral part of the modern world and a fascinating portrayal of how a group of men and women achieved a dream that had captivated humanity for centuries The Christian Science Monitor Captivating and wonderfully presented a fine book about these rival pioneers The Wall Street Journal A vivid story of invention vendettas derring do media hype and patent fights with modern resonance Financial Times A powerful story that contrasts soaring hopes with the anchors of ego and courtroom Kirkus Reviews A riveting narrative about the pioneering era of aeronautics in America and beyond Goldstone raises questions of enduring importance regarding innovation and the indefinite exertion of control over ideas that go public Publishers Weekly starred review A Passion for Books Harold Rabinowitz,Rob Kaplan,2007-12-18 A collection of sixty classic and contemporary essays stories lists poems quotations and cartoons that celebrates the joys of reading the feeling of spending hours browsing through a bookstore and the people for whom buying books is a necessity Booklovers will find themselves in good company within the pages of A Passion for Books beginning with science fiction great Ray Bradbury s foreword and throughout contributions like Umberto Eco s How to Justify a Private Library dealing with the question everyone with a sizable library is inevitably asked Have you read all these books Gustave Flaubert s Bibliomania the tale of a book collector so obsessed with owning a book that he is willing to kill to possess it and Anna Quindlen s How Reading Changed My Life in which she shares her optimistic view on the role of reading and the future of books in the computer age Interspersed throughout are entertaining lists Ten Bestselling Books Rejected by Publishers Twenty Times or More Norman Mailer s Ten Favorite American Novels and many more plus select writings on bookstores book clubs cartoons about books and a specially prepared bibliobibliography of books about books Whether you consider yourself a bibliomaniac or just someone who enjoys reading A Passion for Books will provide you with a lifetime s worth of entertaining informative and pleasurable reading on your favorite subject the love of books Everyday eBay Ken Hillis,Michael Petit,Nathan Scott Epley,2012-12-06 Everyday eBay is the first scholarly analysis of the internet marketplace that has become a global social cultural and economic phenomenon The eighteen new and classic essays gathered here examine eBay from a wide variety of perspectives as a bellwether of taste and material culture as a rich site of cultural racial and sexual discourse and practice as an emergent media form and as a facilitator of global consumerism From old toys steeped in nostalgia to rare limited edition shoes the contributors demonstrate that value on eBay is never simply about price On any given day more than two million items are listed for sale on eBay from everyday objects to kitsch and collectibles to the truly bizarre Since its debut ten years ago eBay has quickly become a central destination for millions of web browsers According to eBay itself up to 165 000 Americans now make their living by selling through the website and other business analysts project that hundreds of thousands of individuals worldwide now make their living through eBay

Drive! Lawrence Goldstone, 2016-05-17 From the acclaimed author of Birdmen comes a revelatory new history of the birth of the automobile an illuminating and entertaining true tale of invention competition and the visionaries hustlers and swindlers who came together to transform the world In 1900 the Automobile Club of America sponsored the nation s first car show in New York s Madison Square Garden The event was a spectacular success attracting seventy exhibitors and nearly fifty thousand visitors Among the spectators was an obscure would be automaker named Henry Ford who walked the floor speaking with designers and engineers trying to gauge public enthusiasm for what was then a revolutionary invention His conclusion the automobile was going to be a fixture in American society both in the city and on the farm and would make some people very rich None he decided more than he Drive is the most complete account to date of the wild early days of the auto age Lawrence Goldstone tells the fascinating story of how the internal combustion engine a theory looking for an application evolved into an innovation that would change history Debunking many long held myths along the way Drive shows that the creation of the automobile was not the work of one man but very much a global effort Long before anyone had heard of Henry Ford men with names like Benz Peugeot Renault and Daimler were building and marketing the world s first cars Goldstone breathes life into an extraordinary cast of characters the inventors and engineers who crafted engines small enough to use on a horseless carriage the financiers who risked everything for their visions the first racers daredevils who pushed rickety untested vehicles to their limits and such visionary lawyers as George Selden who fought for and won the first patent for the gasoline powered automobile Lurking around every corner is Henry Ford a brilliant innovator and an even better marketer a tireless promoter of his products and of himself With a narrative as propulsive as its subject Drive plunges us headlong into a time unlike any in history when near manic innovation competition and consumerist zeal coalesced to change the way the world moved Praise for Drive A marvelously told story The author provides a terrific backdrop to the Chitty Chitty Bang Bang era in which his story takes place On display are lucky scoundrels and unlucky geniuses hustlers hacks and daredevils galore Goldstone has written a book that beautifully captures the intertwined fates of these two ingenious pioneers The Wall Street Journal A wonderful story filled saga of the early days of the auto age Readers will be swept up in his vivid re creation of a bygone era Horse Is Doomed read one headline in 1895 This highly readable popular history tells why Kirkus Reviews starred reviews A splendid dissection of the Selden Ford patent face off and its place in automotive historiography this work will be enjoyed by business legal transportation social and intellectual historians general readers and all libraries Library Journal starred review This book contains the great names in automotive history the Dodge brothers Barney Oldfield all the French they seemed until Ford to lead the Americans in development of the vehicle and it is fascinating An engaging new take on the history of technological innovation Booklist Slightly Chipped Lawrence
