Water Wars Privatization Pollution And Profit:

Water Wars Vandana Shiva, 2016-07-26 Acclaimed author and award winning scientist and activist Vandana Shiva lucidly details the severity of the global water shortage calling the water crisis the most pervasive most severe and most invisible dimension of the ecological devastation of the earth She sheds light on the activists who are fighting corporate maneuvers to convert the life sustaining resource of water into more gold for the elites and uses her knowledge of science and society to outline the emergence of corporate culture and the historical erosion of communal water rights Using the international water trade and industrial activities such as damming mining and aquafarming as her lens Shiva exposes the destruction of the earth and the disenfranchisement of the world's poor as they are stripped of rights to a precious common good Revealing how many of the most important conflicts of our time most often camouflaged as ethnic wars or religious wars are in fact conflicts over scarce but vital natural resources she calls for a movement to preserve water access for all and offers a blueprint for global resistance based on examples of successful campaigns Featuring a new introduction by the author this edition of Water Wars celebrates the spiritual and traditional role water has played in communities throughout history and warns that water privatization threatens cultures and livelihoods worldwide Water Wars Vandana Shiva,

BRICS and the New American Imperialism Vishwas Satgar, Ferriar Adam, Samir Amin, Patrick Bond, William K Carroll, Christopher Chase-Dunn, Alexander Gallas, Ana Garcia, Karina Kato, Nivedita Majumdar, Keamogetswe Seipato, 2020-03-01 Challenges the mainstream understanding of BRICS and US dominance to situate the new global rivalries engulfing capitalism BRICS is a grouping of the five major emerging economies of Brazil Russia India China and South Africa Volume five in the Democratic Marxism series BRICS and the New American Imperialism challenges the mainstream understanding of BRICS and US dominance to situate the new global rivalries engulfing capitalism It offers novel analyses of BRICS in the context of increasing US induced imperial chaos deepening environmental crisis tendencies such as climate change and water scarcity contradictory dynamics inside BRICS countries and growing subaltern resistance The authors revisit contemporary thinking on imperialism and anti imperialism drawing on the work of Rosa Luxemburg one of the leading theorists after Marx who attempted to understand the expansionary nature of capitalism from the heartlands to the peripheries The richness of Luxemburg's pioneering work inspires most of the volume's contributors in their analyses of the dangerous contradictions of the contemporary world as well as forms of democratic agency advancing resistance While various forms of resistance are highlighted among them water protests mass worker strikes anti corporate campaigning and forms of cultural critique this volume grapples with the challenge of renewing anti imperialism beyond the NGO driven World Social Forum and considers the prospects of a new horizontal political vessel to build global convergence It also explores the prospects of a Fifth International of Peoples and Workers Gender and International Security Laura Sjoberg, 2009-10-16 This book defines the relationship between gender and international security analyzing and critiquing

international security theory and practice from a gendered perspective Gender issues have an important place in the international security landscape but have been neglected both in the theory and practice of international security The passage and implementation of UN Security Council Resolution 1325 on Security Council operations the integration of gender concerns into peacekeeping the management of refugees post conflict disarmament and reintegration and protection for non combatants in times of war shows the increasing importance of gender sensitivity for actors on all fronts in global security This book aims to improve the quality and quantity of conversations between feminist security studies and security studies more generally in order to demonstrate the importance of gender analysis to the study of international security and to expand the feminist research program in Security Studies The chapters included in this book not only challenge the assumed irrelevance of gender they argue that gender is not a subsection of security studies to be compartmentalized or briefly considered as a side issue Rather the contributors argue that gender is conceptually empirically and normatively essential to studying international security They do so by critiquing and reconstructing key concepts of and theories in international security by looking for the increasingly complex roles women play as security actors and by looking at various contemporary security issues through gendered lenses Together these chapters make the case that accurate rigorous and ethical scholarship of international security cannot be produced without taking account of women s presence in or the gendering of world politics This book will be of interest to all students of critical security studies gender studies and International Relations in general Laura Sjoberg is Assistant Professor of Political Science at the University of Florida She has a Phd in International Relations and Gender Studies from the University of Southern California and is the author of Gender Justice and the Wars in Iraq 2006 and with Caron Gentry Mothers Monsters Whores Women s Violence in Global Politics 2007

Privatization Becky Mansfield, 2008-04-28 This groundbreaking collection offers the first systematic analysis of neo liberal privatization Rich case studies reveal both the pivotal role that privatization plays in neoliberalism and innovative opportunities for challenging neo liberal dominance Leading scholars in the field shed new light on how property is created justified questioned and contested Investigating the disciplinary regulatory dimensions of privatization the authors cover topics as diverse as land reform fishing rights and product labels The anthology questions the dominant view of property as ownership by demonstrating various ways that it is practiced and the surprising outcomes contained in this diversity Contemporary privatization is remaking nature society as property Privatization innovates and proliferates new forms of property such as patents for genetic information markets for water and tradable credits for polluting In so doing privatization transforms the relationships we have with ourselves each other and the natural world Water Communication Celine Herve-Bazin, 2014-04-14 Water Communication aims at setting a first general outlook at what communication on water means who communicates and on what topics Through different examples and based on different research and contributions this book presents an original first overview of water communication It sets its academic value as one distinct scientific domain and provides tips and practical tools to professionals The book contributes to avoid mixing messages targets and discourses when setting communication related to water issues The book facilitates coordination within the water sector and its organizations as water is a wide field of applications where inadequate words and language understanding between its stakeholders is one of the main obstacles today Water Communication provides and describes a general outlook and retrospective of the history of the water sector in terms of communication the landscape of organizations communicating on water and classification of topics the differences between communication information mediation raising awareness examples of communication campaigns on water Water Communication is a vital resource for communication managers utility managers policy makers involved in water management and students in water sciences and environment Colour figures from the book are available to view on the WaterWiki at <http://www.iwaterwiki.org/xwiki/bin/view/Articles/WaterCommunicationAnalysisofStrategiesandCampaignsfromtheWaterSector> Editor Celine Herve Bazin Celsa Sorbonne University Paris France

The World-Literary System and the Atlantic Sorcha Gunne, Neil Lazarus, 2020-12-30 The World Literary System and the Atlantic grapples with key questions about how American studies and the Atlantic region in general engages with new considerations of literary comparativism international literary space and the world literary system The edited collection furthers these discussions by placing them into a relationship with the theory of combined and uneven development a theory that has a long pedigree in Marxist sociology and political economy and that continues to stimulate debate across the social sciences but whose implications for culture have received less attention Drawing on the comparative modes concepts and methods being developed in the new world literary studies the essays cover a diverse range of topics such as the periodization of world literature racism and the world system singular modernity critical realism commodity frontiers semi peripherality and world ecology The chapters in this book were originally published in the journal Atlantic Studies

Cultural Critique and the Global Corporation Purnima Bose, Laura E. Lyons, 2010-03-30 This book examines the stories that corporations tell about themselves and explores the powerful influence of corporations in the transformation of cultural and social life Six case studies draw on CEO memoirs annual reports management manuals advertising campaigns and other sources to analyze the self representations and rhetorical maneuvers that corporations use to obscure the full extent of their power Images of corporate character and responsibility are intertwined with the changes in local economy politics and culture wrought by globalization and neoliberalism The contributors to this volume describe the effects of specific corporate practices on individuals and communities and how activists and academics are responding to labor and environmental abuses
