Women Knowledge And Reality Explorations In Feminist Philosophy Place:

Women, Knowledge, and Reality Ann Garry, Marilyn Pearsall, 1996 First Published in 1997 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company      Women, Knowledge, and Reality Ann Garry, 1989 This second edition of Women Knowledge and Reality continues to exhibit the ways in which feminist philosophers enrich and challenge philosophy Essays by twenty five feminist philosophers seventeen of them new to the second edition address fundamental issues in philosophical and feminist methods metaphysics epistemology and the philosophies of science language religion and mind body This second edition expands the perspectives of women of color of postmodernism and French feminism and focuses on the most recent controversies in feminist theory and philosophy The chapters are organized by traditional fields of philosophy and include introductions which contrast the ideas of feminist thinkers with traditional philosophers The collected essays illustrate both the depth and breadth of feminist critiques and the range of contemporary feminist theoretical perspectives

Wendy R. Kohli, Nicholas C. Burbules, 2012-07-01 The latest book in the Philosophy Theory and Educational Research series introduces the main philosophical and theoretical ideas of recent western feminisms as it applies to educational research Unlike other books that focus on these topics the authors present a balanced overview of the issues instead of pushing a particular perspective      Virtue in Dialogue Mara Brecht, 2014-03-05 Religious diversity is a persistent theological predicament for Christian thinkers Historically theologians have wrestled with the relationship between believing Christians and religious others The clash between the Christian doctrine of salvation and non Christian belief systems often comes down to the question can non Christians be saved In a pluralist world a second question arises can believers of divergent traditions reconcile their theological differences Is the logical answer that one believer abandon her faith convictions and promote a relativistic mindset This book draws upon original research documenting conversations by women in an interreligious dialogue group to show that when believers converse in honesty empathy and patience in short when engaged in virtuous dialogue they can bridge the gap left by theory When believers from different faiths come together in open conversation it need not lead to relativism but instead can lead to strengthened belief Sharing convictions with people who believe differently sincere believers find they often come to hold their own core beliefs with newfound strength      Women's

Studies Linda Krikos, Cindy Ingold, 2004-08-30 This truly monumental work maps the literature of women s studies covering thousands of titles and Web sites in 19 subject areas published between 1985 and 1999 Intended as a reference and collection development tool this bibliography provides a guide for women s studies information for each title along with a detailed often evaluative review The annotations summarize each work s content its importance or contribution to women s studies and its relationship to other titles on the subject Core titles and titles that are out of print are noted and reviews indicate which titles are appropriate as texts or supplemental texts This definitive guide to the literature of women s studies is a must purchase for academic libraries that support women s studies programs and it is a useful addition to any academic or public library that endeavors to represent the field A team of subject specialists has taken on the immense task of documenting publications in the area of women s studies in the last decades of the 20th century The result is this truly monumental work which maps the field covering thousands of titles and Web sites in 19 subject areas published between 1985 and 1999 Intended as a reference and collection development tool this bibliography provides a guide for women s studies information for each title along with a detailed often evaluative review The annotations summarize each work s content its importance or contribution to women s studies and its relationship to other titles on the subject Most reviews cite and describe similar and contrasting titles substantially extending the coverage Core titles and titles that are out of print are noted and reviews indicate which titles are appropriate as texts or supplemental texts Taking up where the previous volume by Loeb Searing and Stineman left off this is the definitive guide to the literature of women s studies It is a must purchase for academic libraries that support women s studies programs and a welcome addition to any academic or public library that endeavors to represent the field

The Political Economy of Affect and Emotion in East Asia Jie Yang,2014-05-09 When thinking about the culture and economy of East Asia many attribute to the region a range of dispositions including a preference for consensus and social harmony loyalty and respect towards superiors and government family values collectivism and communitarianism Affect is central to these concepts and yet the role of affect and its animated or imagined potentialities in the political economy of East Asia has not been systematically studied The book examines the affective dimensions of power and economy in East Asia It illuminates the dynamics of contemporary governance and ways of overcoming common Western assumptions about East Asian societies Here affect is defined as felt quality that gives meaning and imagination to social political and economic processes and as this book demonstrates it can provide an analytical tool for a nuanced and enriched analysis of social political and economic transformations in East Asia Through ethnographic and media analyses this book provides a framework for analyzing emerging phenomena in East Asia such as happiness promotion therapeutic governance the psychologization of social issues the rise of self help genres transnational labor migration new ideologies of gender and the family and mass mediated affective communities Through the lens of affect theory the contributors explore changing political configurations economic engagements modes of belonging and forms of subjectivity in East Asia and use ethnographic research and discourse analysis to illustrate the affective dimensions of state and economic power and the way affect informs and inspires action This interdisciplinary book will be of great interest to students and scholars of Asian studies anthropology sociology media studies history cultural studies and gender and women s studies
