Maine Photography Libby Bischof, Susan Danly, Earle G. Shettleworth, 2023-11-22 Maine has always played a rich and varied role in the art of photography For hundreds of years photographers like other artists have made their way to Maine to capture the natural beauty and human culture of the state So too have many photographers come from Maine and many contributions by Mainers have been made to the medium Maine in Photography is the first comprehensive overview of the history of photography in the state Providing basic knowledge of the most important people and institutions to have promoted photography this volume also studies the ways in which photography has informed the understanding of the social and cultural history of Maine Beginning with the earliest daguerreotype portraits of the 1840s this history traces the growth of the medium emphasizing key contributions such as the Stanley brothers invention of the dry plate process through to the present Key topics addressed throughout the book include the importance of photography in documenting labor and economic life the close relationship between photography and the growth of tourism and the role of Maine photographers in advancing the medium as a fine art form Published in conjunction with the Maine Photo Project this is a unique and timely addition to the body of work on the importance of Maine to American art

Female Cultural Production in Modern Italy Sharon Hecker, Catherine Ramsey-Portolano, 2023-04-13 This book is the first critical interdisciplinary examination in English of Italian women s contributions to intellectual artistic and cultural production in modern Italy Examining commonalities and diversities from the country s Unification to today the volume provides insight into the challenges that Italian women engaged in cultural production have faced and the strategies they have deployed in order to achieve their objectives The essays address a range of issues from women s self identification and public ownership of their professional roles as laborers in the intellectual and cultural realm to questions about motherhood and financial remuneration to the role of creative foreign women in Italy Through critical analysis and direct testimony from new and typically marginalized voices including an Arab Italian writer an Italian Dominican filmmaker and a transgender activist new forms of ongoing struggle emerge that redefine the culturally diverse landscape of female intellectual and creative production in Italy today The volume rethinks a solely national Made in Italy reading of the subject of female intellectual labor demonstrating instead the wide network of influences and relationships that have existed for Italian women in their professional aspirations

Constructions of Media Authorship

Christiane Heibach, Angela Krewani, Irene Schütze, 2020-11-23 The author is dead long live the author This paradox has shaped discussions on authorship since at least the 1960s when the dominant notion of the individual author genius was first critically questioned The ongoing discussion has mainly focused on literature and the arts but has ignored nearly any artistic practice beyond these two fields Constructions of Media Authorship aims to fill this gap the volume s interdisciplinary contributions reflect historical and current artistic practices within various media and attempt to grasp them from different perspectives The first part sheds a new light on different artistic and design practices and questions the still dominant view on the individual identifiable author The second part discusses creative practices in literature emphasizing the interrelation of aesthetic discourses and media practices The third part investigates authoring in audiovisual media especially film and TV while the final part turns to electronic and digital media and their collective creativity and hybrid mediality The volume is also an attempt to develop new methodological approaches focusing on the interplay between various human and non human actors in different media constellations
