Approaching Silence Mark W. Dennis, Darren J. N. Middleton, 2015-02-26 Shusaku Endo is celebrated as one of Japan s great modern novelists often described as Japan s Graham Greene and Silence is considered by many Japanese and Western literary critics to be his masterpiece Approaching Silence is both a celebration of this award winning novel as well as a significant contribution to the growing body of work on literature and religion It features eminent scholars writing from Christian Buddhist literary and historical perspectives taking up for example the uneasy alliance between faith and doubt the complexities of discipleship and martyrdom the face of Christ and the bodhisattva ideal as well as the nature of suffering It also frames Silence through a wider lens comparing it to Endo s other works as well as to the fiction of other authors Approaching Silence promises to deepen academic appreciation for Endo within and beyond the West Includes an Afterword by Martin Scorsese on adapting Silence for the screen as well as the full text of Steven Dietz s play adaptation of Endo s novel      Seopyeonje Ch'ŏng-jun Yi, 2011 A disturbing and haunting novel set in Korea s southern provinces among the p ansori singers where blindness is seen to be an aid to creating pure art free of sensory distraction A Song Man causes his daughter s blindness in order to keep her from following her half brother who has run away

Wandering through Guilt Paola Di Gennaro, 2015-06-18 The first comprehensive study on the pattern of guilt and wandering in literature this book examines the relationship between the two complex concepts as they appear in twentieth century novels positing its methodological premises on archetypal criticism and both close and distant reading but also drawing on psychology anthropology mythology and religion This research deciphers a common paradigm and literary representation whose archetype within Western literature is found in the biblical figure of Cain while presenting a critical framework valid for boundary crossing comparative approaches From Graham Greene s The Power and the Glory and Malcolm Lowry s Under the Volcano to Wolfgang Koeppen s Death in Rome and Ōka Shōhei s Fires on the Plain this book is not merely a thematic study but an analysis of the literary phenomena that appear in those novels where the sense of guilt is controversially subjective or so collective as to be perceived as universal as is often the case with war and postwar literature Di Gennaro goes beyond the analysis of explicit rewritings of the story of Cain in order to uncover the monomyth through its rhetorical structures and mythical methods The wasteland with no religion the lost abandoned garden the classical and religiously corrupted city and the tropical cannibalistic island at war are the respective settings of these narratives where the issue is neither homelessness nor journeying but rather the desperate and futile movement toward self consciousness or self destruction After the Second World War much was silenced rather than left unsaid This study retraces those silent cries over history through the powerful literary marks of myths      The Encyclopedia of Christian Literature George Thomas Kurian,James D. Smith III,2010-04-16 The written word is one of the defining elements of Christian experience As vigorous in the 1st century as it is in the 21st Christian literature has had a significant function in history and teachers and students need to be reminded of this powerful literary legacy Covering 2 000 years The Encyclopedia of Christian Literature is the first encyclopedia devoted to Christian writers and books In addition to an overview of the Christian literature this two volume set also includes 40 essays on the principal genres of Christian literature and more than 400 bio bibliographical essays describing the principal writers and their works These essays examine the evolution of Christian thought as reflected in the literature of every age The companion volume also features bibliographies an index a timeline of Christian Literature and a list of the greatest Christian authors The encyclopedia will appeal not only to scholars and Christian evangelicals but students and teachers in seminaries and theological schools as well as to the growing body of Christian readers and bibliophiles      Translation Review ,1998

The Late-Career Novelist Hywel Dix,2017-08-10 The first scholarly study of the phenomenon of the late career novel this book explores the ways in which bestselling contemporary novelists look back and respond to their earlier successes in their subsequent writings Exploring the work of major novelists such as Angela Carter V S Naipaul Salman Rushdie Ian McEwan Julian Barnes A S Byatt and Graham Swift The Late Career Novelist draws for the first time on social psychology and career construction theory to examine how the dynamics of a literary career play out in the fictional worlds of our best known novelists From here Hywel Dix develops and argues for a new mode of reading contemporary writing on the contexts of current literary culture      The Wager Machado de Assis,2005 Set in Rio de Janeiro on the eve of the abolition of slavery in 1888 this tells the poignant story of an elderly diplomat captivated by a beautiful young widow Imbued with autumnal sadness it shrewdly and ironically portrays a man coming to terms with the passing of the world he knows and with his own old age and death
