Anne Curzan, 2024-03-26 A kinder funner usage guide to the ever changing English language and a useful tool for both the grammar stickler and the more colloquial user of English from linguist and veteran professor Anne Curzan I was bowled over page after page by the author's fine ear for our language and her openhearted erudition I learned a lot and I couldn't have enjoyed myself more Benjamin Dreyer New York Times bestselling author of Dreyer's English Our use of language naturally evolves and is a living breathing thing that reflects who we are Says Who offers clear nuanced guidance that goes beyond right and wrong to empower us to make informed language choices Never snooty or scoldy yes that's a real word this book explains where the grammar rules we learned in school actually come from and reveals the forces that drive dictionary editors to label certain words as slang or unacceptable Linguist and veteran English professor Anne Curzan equips readers with the tools they need to adeptly manage a split infinitive You betcha formal and informal writing and speaking After all we don't want to be caught wearing our linguistic pajamas to a job interview any more than we want to show up for a backyard barbecue in a verbal tux asking To whom shall I pass the ketchup Curzan helps us use our new knowledge about the developing nature of language and grammar rules to become caretakers of language rather than gatekeepers of it Applying entertaining examples from literature newspapers television and more Curzan welcomes usage novices and encourages the language police to lower their pens showing us how we can care about language precision clarity and inclusion all at the same time With lively humor and humanity Says Who is a pragmatic and accessible key that reveals how our choices about language usage can be a powerful force for equity and personal expression For proud grammar sticklers and self conscious writers alike Curzan makes nerding out about language fun

The Painted Word Phil Cousineau, Gregg Chadwick, 2012-09-18 WORDCATCHER Phil Cousineau illuminates the history and mystery of weird and wonderful word stories To untangle the knot of interlocking meanings of these painted words logophile and mythologist Phil Cousineau begins each fascinating word entry with his own brief definition He then fills it in with a tint of etymology and a smattering of quotes that show how the word is used ending with a list of companion words The words themselves range from commonplace like biscuit a twice baked cake for Roman soldiers to loanwords including chaparral from the Basque shepherds who came to the American West words from myths such as hector metamorphosis words like silly which evolved holy to goofy in a mere thousand years and words well worthy of revival such as carrytale a wandering storyteller Whether old fangled or brand new all the words included in The Painted Word possess an ineffable quality that makes them luminous
