standards and children's fast progress to literacy proficiency. The combination of Marie Clay's research and theory with the authors' understanding of these principles in today's classroom is what sets this book apart. Lisa Lenhart, director, Center for Literacy Curricular Instructional Studies, The University of Akron; Gibson and Moss provide a resource for classroom teachers to support the continued learning of all their students, especially those who need an aware and skilled teacher to keep them on track across the primary grades. Robert M. Schwartz, professor, Oakland University and trainer of teacher leaders, Reading Recovery Center for Michigan: This comprehensive and well-designed book will be an excellent professional development resource for classroom teachers, Reading Recovery teachers, literacy coaches, specialists, and site administrators. Kathleen Brown, Reading Recovery teacher leader, Long Beach Unified School District, CA: I am eager to use this book with my colleagues as we work to transform early literacy learning in our primary classrooms. Terry MacIntyre, Reading Recovery teacher leader, Boulder Valley School District, CO: Word by Word: A Journey Through Language Learning. Griff King, Language isn't learned all at once. It's learned word by word. In Word by Word, Griff King invites you on a deeply personal and practical journey through the ups, downs, and quiet triumphs of learning a new language. Blending expert advice with honest reflections, this book explores what it really means to go from blank slate to fluent speaker, one step at a time. With warmth, wit, and wisdom, Word by Word is the perfect companion for learners who want more than tips and tricks. It's a guide for those who want to enjoy the process, embrace the mistakes, and find meaning in every phrase along the way. Because every word you learn is a small victory. And every victory gets you closer to fluency.
