From Lived Experience to the Written Word Pamela H. Smith, 2022-09-30 How and why early modern European artisans began to record their knowledge In From Lived Experience to the Written Word Pamela H Smith considers how and why beginning in 1400 CE European craftspeople began to write down their making practices Rather than simply passing along knowledge in the workshop these literate artisans chose to publish handbooks guides treatises tip sheets graphs and recipe books sparking early technical writing and laying the groundwork for how we think about scientific knowledge today Focusing on metalworking from 1400 1800 CE Smith looks at the nature of craft knowledge and skill studying present day and historical practices objects recipes and artisanal manuals From these sources she considers how we can reconstruct centuries of largely lost knowledge In doing so she aims not only to unearth the techniques material processes and embodied experience of the past but also to gain insight into the lifeworld of artisans and their understandings of matter The Stuff of Spectatorship Caetlin Benson-Allott, 2021-04-06 Film and television create worlds but they are also of a world a world that is made up of stuff to which humans attach meaning Think of the last time you watched a movie the chair you sat in the snacks you ate the people around you maybe the beer or joint you consumed to help you unwind all this stuff shaped your experience of media and its influence on you The material culture around film and television changes how we make sense of their content not to mention the very concepts of the mediums Focusing on material cultures of film and television reception The Stuff of Spectatorship argues that the things we share space with and consume as we consume television and film influence the meaning we gather from them This book examines the roles that six different material cultures have played in film and television culture since the 1970s including video marketing branded merchandise drugs and alcohol and even gun violence and shows how objects considered peripheral to film and television culture are in fact central to its past and future

We Are All Astronauts Marc Blancher, Marc Bonner, Colleen Boyle, Martin Butler, Jörg Hartmann, Alexander Hauk, Sophia Hauk, Thomas Hensel, Matthew H. Hersch, Ansgar Oswald, Nils Daniel Peiler, Umberto Rossi, 2019-06-21 We are all astronauts the American architect and thinker Richard Buckminster Fuller wrote in 1968 in his book Operating Manual for Spaceship Earth where he compared Earth to a spaceship provided only with exhaustible resources while flying through space These words show the presence the phenomenon of the astronaut and the cosmonaut had in the public mind from the second half of the twentieth century on Buckminster Fuller was able to drive his point home by asking his audience to identify with one of the most prominent figures in the public sphere then the space traveler At the same time Buckminster Fuller s words themselves seem to have played a significant role in further shaping the space exploring human as a symbol and an image of humankind in general The twelve contributions in this book by authors from the fields of literature music politics history the visual arts film computer games comics social sciences and media theory track the development changes and dynamics of this symbol by analyzing the various images of the astronaut and the cosmonaut as constructed throughout the different
