

Working Memory

Women and Work in World War II

A black and white photograph showing a row of women in uniform working as telephone operators. They are seated at a long console with multiple rotary phone handsets. The woman in the foreground is wearing a headset and has a focused expression. Her uniform features a 'CANADA' patch with a maple leaf emblem. The background is slightly blurred, showing other operators in the same setting.

Working Memory Women And Work In World War II Life Writing:

Working Memory Marlene Kadar, Jeanne Perreault, 2015-07-31 Working Memory Women and Work in World War II speaks to the work women did during the war the labour of survival resistance and collaboration and the labour of recording representing and memorializing these wartime experiences The contributors follow their subjects tracks and deepen our understanding of the experiences from the imprints left behind These efforts are a part of the making of history and when the process is as personal as many of our contributors research has been it is also the working of memory The implication here is that memory is intimate and that the layering of narrative fragments that recovery involves brings us in touching distance to ourselves These are not the stories of the brave little woman at home they are stories of the woman who calculated the main chance and took up with the Nazi soldier or who eagerly dropped the apron at the door and picked up a paintbrush or who brazenly bargained for her life and her mother's with the most feared of tyrants These are stories of courage and sometimes of compromise not the courage of bravado and hype and big guns but rather the courage of hard choices and sacrifices that make sense of the life given even when that life seems only madness Working Memory brings scholarly attention to the roles of women in World War II that have been hidden masked undervalued or forgotten Life Writing Outside the Lines Eva C. Karpinski, Ricia Chansky, 2020-06-04 Designed as a contribution to the field of transnational comparative American studies this book focuses on gender in life writing that exceeds the boundaries of traditional genres The contributors engage with authors who bend genres to speak gender as it manifests in multiple shapes in different geographic locations across the Americas and especially as it intersects with race and migration war and colonialism illness and ageing In addition to supplying new insights into the established sites of auto biographical production such as memoir archive and oral history the book explores experimental mixed forms such as selfies auto theory auto bio comics and autobiogeography By combining this multi genre and multi media perspective with a multi generational approach to life writing the book showcases a spectrum of established and emerging critical voices many of whom have been influenced by the work of Marlene Kadar the Canadian life writing scholar whose interventions have expanded the feminist and interdisciplinary methods of life writing studies Tracing the intergenerational relay of ideas this collection fosters dialogue across the western hemisphere and will be useful to those studying life writing exchanges between North America Latin America and the Caribbean This book was originally published as a special issue of Auto Biography Studies

Just the Usual Work Michael Boudreau, Bonnie Huskins, 2021-02-19 Born in 1907 Ida Martin spent most of her life in Saint John New Brunswick She married a longshoreman named Allan Robert Martin in 1932 and they had one daughter In the years that followed Ida had a busy and varied life full of work caring for her family and living her faith Through it all Ida found time to keep a daily diary from 1945 to 1992 Bonnie Huskins is Ida Martin's granddaughter In Just the Usual Work she and Michael Boudreau draw on Ida's diaries family memories and the history of Atlantic Canada to shed light on the everyday life of a working class housewife during a period of significant social and political change They examine Ida's observations about the struggles of making ends meet on a longshoreman's salary the labour confrontations at the Port of Saint John the role of automobiles in the family economy the importance of family faith and political engagement and her experience of widowhood and growing old Ida Martin's diaries were often read by members of her family to reconstruct and relive their shared histories By sharing the pages of her diaries with a wider audience Just the Usual Work keeps Ida's memory alive while continuing her abiding commitment to documenting the past and finding meaning in the rhythms of everyday life Women's Experiences of the Second World War Mark J.

Crowley, Sandra Trudgen Dawson, 2021 Using a very wide range of detailed sources the book surveys the many different experiences of women during the Second World War Dead Woman Pickney Yvonne Shorter Brown, 2022-04-01 Dead Woman Pickney chronicles Yvonne Shorter Brown's life growing up in Jamaica between 1943 and 1965 and teaching in Canada from 1969 Told with stridency and humour the stories include both personal experience and history Taking up the haunting memories of childhood along with persistent racial marginalization of Black people both globally and in Canada the author sets out to construct a narrative that at once explains her own origins in the former slave society of Jamaica and traces the outsider status of Africa and its peoples The author's quest to understand the absence of her mother and her mother's people from her life is at the heart of the narrative The author struggles through life to discover the identity of her mother in the face of silence from her father's brutal family In this updated edition she adds a coda finding mother constructed from archives genealogy letters and journals Initially published in 2010 this second edition includes expanded text and a foreword by Sonja Boon author of What the Oceans Remember Scratching River Michelle Porter, 2022-04-15 Scratching River braids the voices of mother brother sister ancestor and river to create a story about environmental personal and collective healing This memoir revolves around a search for home for the author's older brother who is both autistic and schizophrenic and an unexpected emotional journey that led to acceptance understanding and ultimately reconciliation Michelle Porter brings together the oral history of a Métis ancestor studies of river morphology and news clippings about abuse her older brother endured at a rural Alberta group home to tell a tale about love survival and hope This book is a voice in your ear urging you to explore your own braided histories and relationships Human/Animal Amie Souza Reilly, 2025-04-29 Amie Souza Reilly bought an old house in the suburbs She had just gotten remarried and was looking forward to a new start with her new husband and her six year old son But immediately after moving in the next door neighbors began a crusade to push them out The two brothers followed her peered in her windows stood in her yard trapped her inside her car As they broke boundary after suburban boundary she found herself implicated in their violence Human Animal merges personal narrative and cultural criticism to unleash the complicated relationship between instinct and action violence and regret This bestiary in essays wrestles American colonialism horror films feminism and gender studies to confront the intrusive neighbors the author could not Ultimately this book asks larger questions about proximity care and the line between human and animal Illustrated with the author's own sketches Human Animal A Bestiary in Essays grapples not only with Reilly's place in her neighborhood but with America's past and current political climate Wait Time Kenneth Sherman,2015-12-16 When poet and essayist Kenneth Sherman was diagnosed with cancer he began keeping a notebook of observations that blossomed into this powerful memoir With incisive and evocative language Sherman presents a clear-eyed view of what the cancer patient feels and thinks His narrative voice is personal but not confessional practical but not cold thoughtful and searching but not self-pitying or self-absorbed The author's wait time for surgery on a malignant tumour was exceptionally long and riddled with bureaucratic bumbling thus he asks our health care providers and administrators if our system cannot be made efficient and more humane While he is honest about what is good and bad in our system he is not stridently political or given to directing blame His narrative is interwoven with engaging ruminations on the meaning of illness in society and is peppered with references to other writers thoughts on the subject A widely published poet Sherman helps the reader understand the deep connection between disease and creativity the ways in which we write out of our suffering Wait Time will be of special interest to anyone facing a serious illness as well as to health care providers social workers and psychologists working in the field Its thoughtful observations on health life priorities time and mortality will make it of interest to all readers Encyclopedia of Social Work ,1965 Encyclopedia of Life Writing Margaretta Jolly,2013-12-04 First published in 2001 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company
