Tourism In The Muslim World Tourism In The Muslim World:

Tourism in the Muslim World Noel Scott, 2010-10-28 Provides a synthesis of thought on an influential issue for tourism and a point of focus for tourism researchers managers and developers in countries such as the United Arab Emirates Jordan Egypt Maldives and Turkey as well as the Western world

Tourism in Islamic Countries Heydar Hussain, 2016-09-15 Currently tourism has become a popular global leisure activity and it is vital for many countries such as Malaysia Thailand Lebanon Egypt Spain Greece due to the large intake of money for business with their goods and services Tourism industry is always overstated by Islamic attributes especially Islamic belief for its special rules and regulations The outcomes of Islamic tourism may have a wider pertinence beyond the special circumstances of this country Muslims make up around 25 per cent of the world's population with significant numbers in practically all countries of the world Tourism is a major market in Muslim countries such as Morocco Turkey Egypt and Malaysia nevertheless less than 10% of international tourism returns goes to this market From a tourism perspective there are many significant reasons to study tourism and the Muslim world The annual religious pilgrimage the Hajj performed in Saudi Arabia is obligatory at some point in the life of every Muslim of sufficient means In many nations Islam is the foundation of society and order of law and its principles underpin considerations of tourism This industry has been increasingly embraced by developing countries as a means of economic diversification and Islamic countries seek the same end This leads to the interaction of religious beliefs and choices about the types of tourism that may be desirable resulting in its development potentially becoming a political issue Tourism and Islam is a very important issue therefore there is a need for a comprehensive research on Islamic attributes and its effect on the motivational factors and Islamic tourists' satisfaction as well as destination loyalty In terms of targeting Islamic tourists tourism industry in Islamic world should focus the Islamic attributes available for the tourists to keep them satisfied Tourism in Islamic Countries is concerned with the effects of religion on tourism development in Muslim countries Aspects of the relationship between Islam and tourism are investigated overall and issues of tourism policies management and marketing and community involvement are discussed It examines the dynamics that drive changes in the religious political landscape of the Muslim world

Women in Tourism in Asian Muslim Countries Nataša Slak Valek, Hamed Almuhrzi, 2021-03-15 This book focuses on women in tourism in Muslim countries specifically where a woman can be seen as a tourism consumer or a woman producing tourism This book discusses the role of women in the Muslim world and finds that socio-culturally Islam has a greater impact on women than men The process of identity construction and the religious values of women have also been extensively researched But little is known about the role of Muslim women in the tourism industry and this book addresses these themes in the Asian context This book explores these ideas as defined key categories Muslim women from Asia travelling to a non-Muslim country non-Muslim women travelling to Asian Muslim countries and Women working in the tourism field in Muslim countries This book highlights Asian countries as holding a complex mixture of cultures and identities

As Muslim communities are central in many Asian countries the tourism experience is different mainly because of cultural norms and religion Ultimately this book examines whether and how these complexities enrich both women and tourism industry within Asian context Contemporary Muslim Travel Cultures C. Michael Hall,Siamak Seyfi,S. Mostafa Rasoolimanesh,2022-07-26 This timely volume brings together various issues in Muslim consumer cultures and provides a comprehensive account of Muslim tourism and tourist behaviour Islam is a major international religion and Muslims are a majority of the population in many countries in Asia the Middle East and North Africa The growth of a substantial middle class the development of Islamic consumer cultures rising Muslim market consumption in non Muslim majority destinations and the growing significance of intra Muslim traffic and rising outbound tourism expenditure in emerging Muslim markets have all contributed to substantial interest in Muslim tourism However travel by Muslims is about far more than the Hajj and Umrah as important as they are as acts of devotion Instead although often portrayed in the West as a monolithic religion Muslim travel and leisure behaviour is very diverse with different traditions and cultures leading to a range of expressions of tourism related consumption culture and practices Drawing on a range of empirical studies undertaken in different social and economic contexts and countries this book provides a well balanced portrayal of the Muslim tourism experience and practices This book makes a substantial contribution to an improved understanding of Muslim travel culture and will be required reading for anyone interested in this fast growing market Islamic Tourism Ahmad Jamal, Kevin Griffin, Razaq Raj,2018-12-14 Islamic tourism is an increasingly important market sector This book provides practical applications models and illustrations of religious tourism and pilgrimage management from a variety of international perspectives supported by case studies The Routledge Handbook of Halal Hospitality and Islamic Tourism C. Michael Hall,Girish Prayag,2019-05-20 The Routledge Handbook of Halal Hospitality and Islamic Tourism provides a greater understanding of the current debates associated with Islamic tourism and halal hospitality in the context of businesses communities destinations and the wider socio political context It therefore sheds substantial light on one of the most significant travel and consumer markets in the world today and the important role of religion in contemporary hospitality and tourism The book examines halal hospitality and lodging Islamic markets product developments heritage certification and emerging and future trends and issues It integrates case studies from a range of countries and destinations and in doing so emphasises the significant differences that exist with respect to regulating and commodifying halal as well as stressing that the Islamic market is not monolithic Written by highly regarded international academics it offers a range of perspectives and enables a comprehensive discussion of this integral part of Islam and contemporary society This handbook will be of significant interest to upper level students researchers and academics in the various disciplines of Tourism Hospitality Food Studies Marketing Religious Studies Geography Sociology and Islamic Studies Routledge Handbook on Tourism in the Middle East and North Africa Dallen Timothy,2018-12-07 The Routledge Handbook on Tourism in the Middle East and North Africa examines the importance of tourism as a historical economic social environmental religious and political force in the Middle East and North Africa MENA It highlights the ecological and resource challenges related to water desert environments climate change and oil It provides an in depth analysis of the geopolitical conditions that have long determined the patterns of tourism demand and supply throughout the region and how these play out in the everyday lives of residents and destinations as they attempt to grow tourism or ignore it entirely While cultural heritage remains the primary tourism asset for the region as a whole many new types of tourisms are emerging especially in the Arabian Gulf region where hyper development is closely associated with the increasingly prominent role of luxury real estate and shopping retail medical tourism cruises and transit tourism The growing phenomenon of an expatriate workforce and how its segregation from the citizenry creates a dual socio economic system in several countries is unmatched by other regions of the world Many indigenous people of MENA keep themselves apart from other dominant groups in the region although these social boundaries are becoming increasingly blurred as tourism being one socio economic force for change has inspired many nomadic peoples to settle into towns and villages and rely more on tourists for their livelihoods All of these issues and more shape the foundations of this book This Handbook is the first of its kind to examine tourism from a broad regional and inclusive perspective surveying a broad range of social cultural heritage ecological and political matters in a single volume With a wide range of contributors many of whom are natives of the Middle East and North Africa this Handbook is a vital resource for students and scholars interested in Tourism Middle East Studies and Geography

Islamic Tourism Heydar Hussain, 2016-04 Tourism is a complicated concept that covers a wide range of social behavioural economic political cultural and environmental considerations The concept of tourism consists of a set of activities services and benefits which all give tourists particular experiences Islam is considered a major tourism market globally however special values of Muslims who have particular needs in their system of beliefs have not been well defined in the tourism market Islamic tourism is all marketing and product development efforts that are directed at Muslims even without completely religious motivations Efforts that emphasize the significance of Muslim and non Muslim tourists as new markets and destinations for tourism In other words such efforts try to promote tourism among Muslims develop new tourism destinations and strengthen inter organization and inter government cooperation in the Islamic World The religious conservative concept for Islamic tourism has not yet been theoretically articulated But various opinions and remarks in the discussions on the future of tourism in the Arab and Islam worlds as well as some practices of hotels managements indicate that articulations and implementations are just a matter of time The whole idea is based on the conservative interpretation and understanding of Islam Merging elements of the extremely conservative Islamic lifestyle with the modern tourism industry could indeed present new tourism options spaces and spheres Excluding the fundamental isolationistic views which reject practically any tourism activities beyond pilgrimage the religious conservative concepts may be described as community tourism Islamic resorts and hotels as well as Islamic destinations and programs are shaping some tourist activities Islamic resorts funded and owned by Islamic nance institutions alcohol free accommodations no in door disco nightlife hotels gendersegregated tness and sport facilities conservative in door dress codex availability of prayerrooms on site women oors and Islamic entertainment programs Many elements of this concept are indeed implemented in the domestic tourism in Saudi Arabia and Iran Halal tourism is a subcategory of tourism which is geared towards Muslim families who abide by rules of Islam The hotels in such destinations do not serve alcohol and have separate swimming pools and spa facilities for men and women Malaysia Turkey and many more countries are trying to attract Muslim tourists from all over the world o ering facilities in accordance with the religious beliefs of Muslim tourists The Halal tourism industry also provides ights where no alcohol or pork products are served prayer timings are announced and religious programs are broadcast as part of entertainment o ered on board The cultural concept for Islamic tourism includes visions and ideas that outline the inclusion of Islamic religiouscultural sites in tourism programs with pedagogical and self con dence building elements It tries to encourage a re orientation inside the tourist destinations towards less consumption and western culture loaded sites towards more Islamic historical religious and cultural sites The economic concept for Islamic tourism is an extension and expansion oriented concept which focuses on the importance of intra Muslim and intra Arab tourism in terms of inclusion of new tourist markets and tourist destinations The economic concept is the most wide spread and widely discussed in the Arab and Muslim worlds at di erent levels It considers the Muslim countries as one of the emerging tourist markets of the future with huge economic demographic and destination potential This book Islamic Tourism focuses on such issues as engagement by Muslims places Islamic destinations products residential places foods and beverage dimensions economic cultural religious etc and managing service processes marketing and ethical issues

Special Interest Tourism
 Sheela Agarwal,Graham Busby,Rong Huang,2018-01-24 Special interest tourism is growing rapidly due to a discerning and heterogeneous travel market and the demand for more focused activity or interest based tourism experiences This book approaches the topic from the perspective of both supply and demand and addresses the complexities now inherent in this area of tourism It presents a contextualised overview of contemporary academic research concepts principles and industry based practice insights and also considers the future of special interest tourism in light of the emergence of ethical consumerism Sometimes referred to as niche or contemporary tourism this book provides a complete introduction to the study of special interest tourism for students

Balancing Development and Sustainability in Tourism Destinations Akhmad Saufi,Imanuella R. Andilolo,Norain Othman,Alan A. Lew,2016-09-26 This book contains 35 papers from the Tourism Outlook Conference held in Lombok Indonesia in July 2015 The book presents comprehensive discussions on sustainability in the tourism industry It includes research on various constituents of the tourism sector and analyses of each of them from a sustainability standpoint Case studies that are global in nature are presented to show how sustainable applications can be used and how concerns can be addressed The book is a response to rapid change in contemporary tourism trends brought about by global economic and social forces such as development pressures population growth major resource extraction industrial fishing global climate change and steadily rising sea levels Balancing Development and Sustainability in Tourism Destinations serves as a platform for students and educators government agency employees hospitality and tourism industry practitioners public and private land managers community development workers and others interested in identifying practical solutions charting new directions and creating opportunities for sustainable tourism development

Tourism in Iran Siamak Seyfi,C. Michael Hall,2018-10-11 Iran has long been regarded as an international pariah state in some parts of the international community However its negative image in many countries disguises its history of tourism and rich cultural and natural heritage Following the July 2015 nuclear deal and the reduction in sanctions Iran is focusing on international tourism as a means to generate economic growth in addition to its substantial domestic tourism market Given the significance of tourism in the Middle East and in international politics as well as restrictions on international mobility this volume brings together the first contemporary collection of research on tourism in Iran Written by experts based both within and outside of Iran the chapters engage with a number of crucial issues including the importance of religion the role of women in society sustaining Iran s cultural heritage Iran s image and the resistive economy to provide a benchmark assessment of tourism and its potential future in a troubled political environment The book will undoubtedly be of interest not only to those readers who focus specifically on Iran but also those who seek a wider understanding of Iran s role in the region and how tourism is utilised as part of national and regional economic development policies
