Masys, 2023-10-09 The Russian Invasion of Ukraine and Implications for the Central Region addresses national security threats and strategic opportunities for the United States and its allies in the Middle East and Central Asia following Russia's invasion of Ukraine Recognizing that integrated deterrence is not constrained by geography or domain this book focuses on the complex threats and challenges confronting U S national security and foreign policy in a post Ukraine invasion environment That is to say what happens in Ukraine does not stay in Ukraine It affects everyone from the region to the cyberspace domain to people on the other side of the world due to changes in commodity prices Specifically this volume explores how revised analyses of Russia may alter U S and allied strategies in a shifting international system and within the framing of strategic competition Experts in this volume examine how the war in Ukraine will influence Russian strategy and foreign policy in the Middle East Central Asia and globally what effect the Ukraine invasion could have on global and regional geopolitics and geoeconomics and the United States ability to protect national interests in the Central Region The reasons for this are multiple and complex In this volume we explore many issues that have confounded security experts by asking questions such as What happens after the Russian invasion What lessons did the U S Ukraine NATO and the European Union learn about Russia What lessons did Russia learn about itself and its military after the Ukraine invasion What lessons did the U S learn in Afghanistan that apply to Ukraine Why was the initial analysis of the Russian invasion so wrong How has power shifted in the international system since the Ukraine invasion How has the security environment shifted since the Ukraine invasion For the U S to continue supporting its partners in the Middle East and Central Asia it must anticipate what new opportunities will arise from Russia s missteps in Ukraine The Russian Invasion of Ukraine and Implications for the Central Region addresses these challenges and opportunities and informs policymakers on the changing contours of the Great Power Competition

Tourism World Tourism Organization,1998 Tourism Research Douglas Pearce,Richard Butler,2010-03-31 Leading international tourism scholars from a range of disciplines analyse what progress has been made in tourism research in the last two decades and where research might go in the future Islam and Capitalism in the Making of Modern Bahrain Rajeswary Ampalavanar Brown,2023-05-01 In recent decades the culture society politics and economics of Bahrain have been transformed driving its global ambitions while retaining to a degree the rule of law and cosmopolitanism Islam and Capitalism in the Making of Modern Bahrain examines the transformation of Bahrain from the 1930s from a regional trading port and then an important oil producer into the financial hub for the Gulf and into a global centre of Islamic finance It focuses on the changes and tensions that transformation brought to Bahrain's political, legal, economic, religious and social structures. In this book, Rajeswary Brown explores the rising force of youth populism driven by the persistence of poverty and unemployment, notably among rural Shi'ite communities and unemployed middle class youth, as well as examining Bahrain's skillful reconciliation of the demands of Islamic faith expressed in the Sharia to the requirements of modern financial capitalism. In this Bahrain's experience can be set against the modern history of much of the rest of the Middle East, most strikingly with respect to the position of Islamic charities, notably in Syria, comparisons of which are fully explored here.

Understanding and Managing Tourism Impacts C. Michael Hall, Alan A. Lew, 2009-09-10 This book discusses the complexity of understanding how tourism impacts the world and how the world impacts tourism from the global scale to the local and individual scale.

Branding the Middle East Steffen Wippel, 2023-10-04 This edited volume investigates place, product and personal branding in the Middle East and North Africa, including some studies from adjacent regions and the wider Islamicate world. Going beyond simply presenting logos and slogans, it critically analyses processes of strategic communication and image building under general conditions of globalisation, neoliberalisation and postmodernisation and in a regional perspective of lasting authoritarian rule and increased endeavours for worlding. In particular, it looks at the multiple actors involved in branding activities, their interests and motives, and investigates tools, channels and forms of branding. A major interest exists in the entanglements of different spatial scales and in the inconsistencies of communication measures. Attention is paid to reconfigurations of certain images over time and to the positioning of objects of branding in time and space. Historical case studies supplement the focus on contemporary branding efforts. While branding in the Western world and many emerging economies has been meticulously analysed, this edited volume fills an important gap in the research on MENA countries.
