Travel and Tourism in the Age of Overtourism Claudio Milano, Marina Novelli, Joseph M. Cheer, 2021-03-30 Over the last decade while many scholars have maintained their interest in the classical debate concerning the impacts of tourism some have attempted new conceptualisations while others have converged towards critical narratives promoted by a number of social movements and have become involved in subsequent discussions on overtourism and tourismphobia The terms overtourism and tourismphobia have their genesis in the rapid unfolding of unsustainable mass tourism practices and the responses that these have generated amongst academics practitioners social movements and grassroots organizations concerned with the detrimental use of urban rural and coastal spaces among others for tourism purposes The renewed interest in the study of the adverse impacts of tourism as implied in the term overtourism is related to a variety of well established causes Travel and Tourism in the Age of Overtourism builds on existing knowledge and makes a theoretical and practical contribution the overtourism debate and the system dynamics underlining it This collection suggests ways to address this from a tourism and planning perspective It offers critical reflections on the contemporary evolution of tourism development and the implication of such processes on people places and spaces The chapters in this book were originally published as a Special Issue of the journal Tourism Planning Development
