Searching for Yellowstone Norman K Denzin, 2016-09-17 Yellowstone Sacagawea Lewis Clark Transcontinental railroad Indians as college mascots All are iconic figures symbols of the West in the Anglo American imagination Well known cultural critic Norman Denzin interrogates each of these icons for their cultural meaning in this finely woven work Part autoethnography part historical narrative part art criticism part cultural theory Denzin creates a postmodern bricolage of images staged dramas quotations reminiscences and stories that strike to the essence of the American dream and the shattered dreams of the peoples it subjugated

National Parks , 2005 The flagship publication of the National Parks Conservation Association National Parks Magazine circ 340 000 fosters an appreciation of the natural and historic treasures found in the national parks educates readers about the need to preserve those resources and illustrates how member contributions drive our organization s park protection efforts National Parks Magazine uses images and language to convey our country s history and natural landscapes from Acadia to Zion from Denali to the Everglades and the 387 other park units in between Cartographic Expeditions and Visual Culture in the Nineteenth-Century Americas Ernesto Capello, Julia B. Rosenbaum, 2020-11-16 During the nineteenth century gridding graphing and surveying proliferated as never before as nations and empires expanded into hitherto unknown territories Though nominally geared toward justifying territorial claims and collecting scientific data expeditions also produced vast troves of visual and artistic material This book considers the explosion of expeditionary mapping and its links to visual culture across the Americas arguing that acts of measurement are also aesthetic acts Such visual interventions intersect with new technologies with sociopolitical power and conflict and with shifting public tastes and consumption practices Several key questions shape this examination What kinds of nineteenth century visual practices and technologies of seeing do these materials engage How does scientific knowledge get translated into the visual and disseminated to the public What are the commonalities and distinctions in mapping strategies between North and South America How does the constitution of expeditionary lines reorder space and the natural landscape itself The volume represents the first transnational and hemispheric analysis of nineteenth century cartographic aesthetics and features the multi disciplinary perspective of historians geographers and art historians
