Index-catalogue of Medical and Veterinary Zoology ,1981 Types of Social Structure in Eastern Indonesia Franciscus Antonius Evert Wouden,2013-03-09 BY G W LOCHER Some years ago in a discussion of the modern concept of structure Levi Strauss contended that the extraordinarily widespread employment of the term structure since 1930 reflected a rediscovery of the concept and the term rather than the continuation of a prior usage This assertion may be correct in general but it does not apply to the Netherlands at least not so far as the concept of structure is concerned The transmission of the concept in that country can in fact be quite easily traced It began in 1917 with the publication by van Ossenbruggen of a study of the Javanese notion of montja pat a paper which was influenced to a high degree by the famous monograph by Durkheim and Mauss De quelques formes primitives de classification which had been published at the beginning of the century 2 An even clearer structural approach is to be found in the extensive Leiden thesis of 3 W H Rassers De Pandji Roman This dissertation itself refers with particular emphasis to van Ossenbruggen's paper and to the monograph by Durkheim and Mauss as well as to various other publications by them The studies later made by Rassers were also of such a kind that when a collection of them was published in English in 1959 under the title Panji The Culture Hero 4 they were aptly subtitled A Structural Study of Religion in Java National Geographic Family Reference Atlas of the World National Geographic Society (U.S.),2006 This family atlas contains many diverse world thematic topics with maps graphs charts photographs and text All maps are completely updated to reflect the latest changes of our world Indonesia's Doctors, Midwives and Nurses ,2009

The Law of Reputation and Brands in the Asia Pacific Andrew T. Kenyon,Wee Loon Ng-Loy,Megan Richardson,2012-03-08 Considers current pressures to expand legal protection given to reputation and brands in the Asia Pacific region and the associated controversies Index-catalogue of medical and veterinary zoology. 1980 suppl. 22 pt. 4 ,1953

Index-catalogue of Medical and Veterinary Zoology. Supplement 1- United States. Bureau of Animal Industry. Zoological Division,1953 Optional Choice of Court Agreements in Private International Law Mary Keyes,2019-10-18 This book highlights the importance of optional choice of court agreements and the need for future research and legal development in this area The law relating to choice of court agreements has developed significantly in recent years reflecting their increased use in practice However most recent legal developments concern exclusive choice of court agreements In comparison optional choice of court agreements also called permissive forum selection clauses and non exclusive jurisdiction clauses have attracted little attention from lawmakers or commentators This collection is comprised of 19 National Reports providing a critical analysis of the legal treatment of optional choice of court agreements including asymmetric choice of court agreements under national laws as well as under multilateral instruments It also includes a General Report offering an overview of this area of the law and a synthesis of the findings of the national reporters The contributions to this collection show that the legal treatment of optional choice of courts differs between legal systems In some countries the law on the effect of optional choice of court agreements is at an early stage in its development whereas in others the law is relatively advanced Irrespective of this the national reporters identify unresolved issues with the effect of optional choice of court agreements where the law is unclear or the cases are conflicting demonstrating that this topic warrants greater attention This book is of interest to judges legislators lawyers academics and students who are concerned with private international law and international civil procedure Rural Development: Indonesia and the Philippines ,1985
