Américanas, Autocracy, and Autobiographical Innovation Lisa Ortiz-Vilarelle, 2020-11-03 Overwriting the Dictator is literary study of life writing and dictatorship in Americas Its focus is women who have attempted to rewrite or overwrite discourses of womanhood and nationalism in the dictatorships of their nations of origin The project covers five 20th century autocratic governments the totalitarianism of Rafael Trujillo's regime in the Dominican Republic the dynasty of the Somoza family in Nicaragua the charismatic yet polemical impact of Juan and Eva Perón on the proletariat of Argentina the controversial rule of Fidel Castro following Cuba's 1959 revolution and Augusto Pinochet's coup d'état that transformed Chile into a police state Each chapter traces emerging patterns of experimentation with autobiographical form and determines how specific autocratic methods of control suppress certain methods of self representation and enable others The book foregrounds ways in which women's self representation produces a counter narrative that critiques and undermines dictatorial power with the depiction of women as self aware resisting subjects engaged in repositioning their gendered narratives of national identity Cuba Mike Gonzalez, 2021-04-01 A literary guide to one of the most fascinating countries in the world With its flamboyant style and rich culture Cuba has provided the inspiration and setting for literature for decades It has always been one of the most compelling places in the world though perhaps never more so than now Following Raúl Castro's resignation as President in 2018 the era of Castroism has come to an end and the US Cuba rapprochement has opened the country to a generation of Americans whose only previous exposure was through film and literature The coming years will undoubtedly bring significant changes to a country that has in many ways been frozen in time Cuba A Literary Guide for Travellers takes the literary minded traveller either in person or in an armchair on a vivid and illuminating journey retracing the footsteps of writers and artists who have lived and worked in or been inspired by the history and landscape of

Cuba This literary guide challenges some firmly held Western assumptions about the country and shines a light on one of the richest and most deeply embedded literary cultures in the world

Cuban Palimpsests Jose Quiroga, 2005 Four decades ago the Cuban revolution captured the world's attention and imagination Its impact around the world was as much cultural as geopolitical Within Cuba the state developed a strictly defined national and collective memory that led directly from a colonial past to a utopian future but this narrative came to a halt in the early 1990s The collapse of Cuba's sponsor the Soviet Union and the end of the Cold War preceded the so called Special Period in Times of Peace a euphemistic phrase that masked the genuine anxiety shared by leaders and people about the nation's future In Cuban Palimpsests Jos Quiroga explores the sites both physical and imaginative where memory bears upon Cuba's collective history in ways that illuminate this extended moment of uncertainty Crossing geographical political and cultural borders Quiroga moves with ease between Cuba Miami and New York He traces generational shifts within the exile community contrasts Havana's cultural richness with its economic impoverishment follows the cloak and dagger narratives of revolutionary and counterrevolutionary spy fiction and film and documents the world's ongoing fascination with Cuban culture From the nostalgic photographs of Walker Evans to the iconic stature of Fidel Castro from the literary expressions of despair to the beat of Cuban musical rhythms from the haunting legacy of artist Ana Mendieta to the death of Celia Cruz and the reburial of Che Guevara Cuban Palimpsests memorializes the ruins of Cuba's past and offers a powerful meditation on its enigmatic place within the new world order Jos Quiroga is professor and department chair of Spanish and Portuguese at Emory University He is the author of Understanding Octavio Paz and Tropics of Desire Interventions from Queer Latino America

Gender and the Self in Latin American Literature Emma Staniland, 2015-10-05 This book explores six texts from across Spanish America in which the coming of age story Bildungsroman offers a critique of gendered selfhood as experienced in the region's socio cultural contexts Looking at a range of novels from the late twentieth century Staniland explores thematic concerns in terms of their role in elucidating a literary journey towards agency that is towards the articulation of a socially and personally viable female gendered identity mindful of both the hegemonic discourses that constrain it and the possibility of their deconstruction and reconfiguration Myth exile and the female body are the three central themes for understanding the personal social and political aims of the Post Boom women writers whose work is explored in this volume Isabel Allende Laura Esquivel Angeles Mastretta Sylvia Molloy Cristina Peri Rossi and Zo Vald's Their adoption and adaptation of an originally eighteenth century and European literary genre is seen here to reshape the global canon as much as it works to reshape our understanding of gendered identities as socially constructed culturally contingent and open ended
